Communists Shoot Down 16 Allied Warplanes In Korea

U. N. Air Force Suffers Costliest Week Of Air War In Korea; Three Sabre Jets Downed In Dogfights, Thirteen Victims Of Guns

Seoul, Korea, Sunday, Jan. 13.—(AP)—The U. S. far east air forces announced Saturday their costliest week of the air war in Korea—three Sabre jets shot down in dogfights and 13 other planes destroyed by Communist ground fire.

FEAF listed Communist losses for the period—the week ended Friday—as 12 Russian-built MIGs shot down and 14 damaged in air battles. The air force reports Red losses from day to day, but now lists Allied losses only by the week. lists Allied losses only by the week.

An air force spokesman said the weekly average Allied loss since last spring has been about seven planes. Recent weeks have averaged ten planes — attesting to the growing challenge of Red air power and anti-aircraft.

The 12 MIGs shot down during the past week brought to 210 the number of swift Red jet fighters destroyed by Allied planes since the beginning of the war. FEAF said 51 others were probably destroyed and 325 damaged.

Communist losses of all types of planes were listed as: 336 destroyed, 100 probably destroyed and 380 damaged.

(In Washington, the air force announced United Nations aerial losses from all causes exceed 900 since the war's beginning. The figure was said to include 532 navy and carrier-based marine planes through Oct. 1—of which 215 were lost through enemy action.)

In Tokyo, the air force was working to consolidate all losses more exactly, but said the best available figure thus far was 423 U. S. air force combat planes lost to enemy

Two Killed, Seven Injured In Traffic Accidents Here

Two persons were killed and seven others injured, five critically, in two separate automobile accidents in the Twin Cities. One of the accidents, killing two and injuring three, occurred at the intersection of the Loop Road and the Country Club Road (Forsythe), while the other was on the Jonesboro Road just west of the West Monroe city limits.

Fatally injured in the Loop Road accident were Mrs. Marjorie Reed Dean, daughter of Luther Reed, Sr., and Aubrey Lynn Laster, nine-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Laster of Sterlington.

Critically injured in the same accident were Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Laster, 26 and 21 respectively, of Sterlington, their dauthter, Nita, aged 4.

Injured in the West Monroe accident were G. A. Anderson, Hodge, and Hardy Carson. Both were in serious condition from internal injuries.

Dr. J. T. French, parish coroner, said both victims of the Loop Road crash were dead upon arrival at the hospital. Mrs. Dean's death was attributed to a crushed chest, fractured skull, shock and thoracic

TRUMAN DECIDES AGAINST TAXES

President's Mind About Made Up Not To Seek New Boosts

Washington, Jan. 12.—(AP)—President Truman has about decided not to ask this election-year congress for new boosts in income or excise tax rates, informed officials said today.

Rather, they said, the president will hit hard for a twin program of (a) tighter tax law enforcement, and (b) the plugging of what he has termed loopholes costing the government several billion dollars of revenue yearly.

Officials who may not be named said Mrs. Truman's political advisers cautioned against an all-out drive for an increase in tax rates. Barring a last - minute change of mind, they said, the president apparently has agreed.

The reasoning of Mr. Truman's political aides was said to be that

BEARDEN GIVEN MILITARY POST

Cadet Named Battalion Commander Of N. L. S. C. ROTC

Appointment of Thomas E. Bearden as cadet battalion commander of the ROTC at Northeast State was announced Saturday by Lt. Col. Melville H. Griffith, professor of military science and tactics.

Other student appointments were Rex Pensinger as battalion executive officer, Jarrell Matkins as chief of staff, Buster Crowley, Jr., adjutant, John L. Fluitt, plans and training, and Doyle Craighead, assistant plans and training officer.

Bearden, a West Monroe senior is 21 years old and a mathematics major. He has made an enviable military record as a cadet, culminating in his designation as a Distinguished Military Student. On campus he is active in dramatics and holds membership in Alpha Theta Chi fraternity.

Pensinger, 22-year-old senior is a native of Dallas, Tex. While pursuing a business administration course, he has been active in numerous organizations. He held the presidency of the student council last year and was captain and center of the 1951 Indian football team. He is a member of Sigma Alpha Chi fraternity. Pensinger was recently designated a Distinguished Military Student.

Matkins, a senior at Northeast, is a resident of Sterlington. He is on the dean's list for scholastic excellency and holds the T. H. Harris scholarship. Subsequent to graduation in June, Matkins will be commissioned a second lieutenant in the regular army. He is married to the former Kadie Dyess of Lufkin, Tex., and is the father of an infant daughter.

Twenty-three - year - old Buster Crowley, Jr., has been a mainstay on the Indian football team for the past two years and has also been active in campus dramatic affairs. A physical education major, Crowley is completing his last year at college and plans to go on duty as a reserve second lieutenant in the army next summer. He holds membership in Alpha Theta Chi fraternity.

Washington, Jan. 12.—(AP)—Senator Brewster (R.-Me.) said today he believes Gen. Douglas MacArthur is "very much in sympathy" with the candidacy of Senator Robert A. Taft of Ohio for the Republican presidential nomination.

Brewster, a Taft supporter, also told a news conference he thinks it is "altogether likely" that MacArthur may come out publicly in support of Taft before the Republican nominating convention in July.

At the same time, Brewster said he still considers Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower an indispensable man in Europe as commander of the north Atlantic defense forces. Eisenhower is in the G. O. P. race by virtue of his statement he would accept the nomination but won't seek it.

Snow Storm In Nevada

A severe storm swirled through the Sierra Nevada mountains Saturday burying Reno, Nev., under 18 inches of snow—heaviest fall there in 14 years.

Heavy snow piled to record depths in the Sierra. The blizzard closed off all but one land route to northern Nevada. All plane flights were cancelled in the storm area.

Many Reno residents were snowbound in their homes. All available city and private snow removal equipment was thrown into the task of clearing streets, and opening blocked highways.

Main highways between California and Nevada were impassable.

SOVIET PROPOSES ATOMIC CONTROL

Vishinsky Asks Prohibition Of Atomic War Weapons

Paris, Jan. 12. —(AP)— Andrei Y. Vishinsky today proposed simultaneous prohibition of atomic weapons and establishment of strict atomic controls under which international agents would come and go on continuous inspection in any country, including Russia, whenever necessary.

The Soviet foreign minister told the United Nations political committee in a speech outlining his new ideas on atomic control that the international control organ should have the right "to conduct inspection on a continuing basis but it shall not be entitled to interfere in the domestic affairs of the states."

The Russians in the past have rejected the idea of permanent inspection teams, contending they would spy for the west. Vishinsky declared his plan was a "tremendous and momentous step forward" and called on the west to match the proposal.

American delegation spokesmen immediately minimized the value of Vishinsky's plan. They declared it contained mostly "old

Claims Perez Support Accepted By M'Lemore

New Orleans, Jan. 12.—(Special)—James M. McLemore in effect has accepted the gubernatorial primary support of Leander Perez, district attorney and political power in Plaquemines parish and in the neighboring wide-open gambling parish of St. Bernard.

Both Perez and McLemore made it clear in public statements that Perez had dropped Lucille May Grace, whom he put into the gubernatorial race, in favor of the Alexandria candidate McLemore in his public statement, made no rejection of the Perez support, simply denying that any deals or commitments were involved in support he receives from the Perez political kingdom—which, however, has been dwindling in size in recent years and actually offers very few votes to the state candidates it supports.

Revelation of the Plaquemines-Perez - McLemore lineup started Tuesday morning with publication in the Times-Picayune here, which supports McLemore for governor, that Sheriff E. H. "Dutch" Rowley of St. Bernard would not go along fully with Perez on McLemore and that the St. Bernard parish vote would be split between McLemore and Judge Spaht, who is Earl Long's candidate.

Since then there has been one explosion after another, with Perez telephoning a statement to the Times-Picayune, which it published today, calling McLemore's campaign manager, William O. White of Shreveport, "an insulting S. O. B."

An even split for McLemore and Spaht in St. Bernard and an overwhelming portion of the Plaquemines vote would give McLemore only some 3,500 to 4,000 votes —

AWARD SLATED FOR YOUNG MAN

Junior Chamber Of Commerce To Announce Choice Monday Night

The outstanding young man of the year will be announced and honored at the fourth annual distinguished service award and boss nite banquet of the Junior Chamber of Commerce Monday night at the Rendezvous. Charlton Lyons, outstanding civic leader of Shreveport, ad one of the leading businessmen of north Louisiana, will be the principal speaker of the evening.

The boss' nite banquet has become an annual affair of the Jaycees. At this time the Jaycees have as their guest their employers, or associates in business, in the hope that these men will become better acquainted with the activities of the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

The distinguished service award to the outstanding young man of the year has become an affair of annual anticipation. Three outstanding civic leaders of the Twin Cities, each past the age of 36, are the judges in selecting the recipient of this award. Although nominations were submitted to the Junior Chamber of Commerce office, the JJaycees have absolutely nothing to do with the selection of the young man. It has also been emphasized that the award's recipient does not have to be a member of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, but can be any young man between the ages of 21 and 36, who, through his community efforts in West Monroe Man Killed In W. M.

Morris Alexander, 38, 512 N. Fourth St., West Monroe La. died on route to the St. Francis Sanitarium last night after a car hit him a half mile west of West Monroe on highway 80.

The driver of the car was not identified late last night.

State police, still investigating the accident early today, said last night that Morris apparently had walked in front of the car when the car hit him in front of Rudy's Bar at about 11:10 p. m.

He died on route to the St. Francis Sanitarium, police said.

Besides state police, parish sheriff deputies and West Monroe officers investigated the death.

CANDIDATES IN MAJOR RALLIES

Boggs, Kennon, Spaht And McLemore Speak In New Orleans

The Louisiana Democratic gubernatorial primary campaign headed down the stretch today with seven of the nine candidates speaking before major rallies or issuing statements outlining their plans.

Rep. Hale Boggs, Judge Robert Kennon, James McLemore and Carlos Spaht held city-wide rallies in New Orleans.

In a statement issued from his New Orleans headquarters Boggs said the time has come "when we should do away with factional strife, bitterness and hate

"The time has come when all of us should place Louisiana first."

"When we place Louisiana first." Boggs statement said, "we will, in so doing, develop our state from one end to the other. With energetic, experienced, proven leadership, we will take advantage of the opportunities and the challenges that face us now.

Under his program, he said. "There will be constitutional civil service; state employes, school teachers and other public school employes will be paid a living wage. Municipalities will be assisted in solving their financial problems by a program of reallocation of the tobacco tax and I was the first candidate to outline such a plan."

Kennon, speaking at Kenner on his way into New Orleans, promised a square deal for the working man and an industrial program that will "put both labor and management on top" in Louisiana.

He reviewed his program which he said calls for a reduction in taxes and a reduction in running the government.

"With economical and efficient government, and fairness to all," Kennon said, "industries with big payrolls won't be afraid to come to Louisiana."

He said his platform also called for a two-cent gasoline tax reduction, which he said, would save every automobile owner in the state

'Red Attack Will Fail'

U. S. Eighth Army Headquarters, Korea, Sunday, Jan. 13.—(AP)—Gen. James A. Van Fleet said today that an all-out Communist offensive in Korea would meet "with complete disaster both on the ground and in the air."

The U. S. eighth army commander said in an interview that the Reds have built up their capabilities powerfully, particularly their air force.

"But if the Communists launch an all-out offensive and sent great numbers (of planes) over our battlelines, we would handle them. Those planes would fall like rain. It would be something to see."

OLDER VETERANS WILL BE HOSTS

Legion World War I Men To Entertain Those Of Later Wars

The next regular meeting of the L. B. Faulk post of the American Legion, Feb. 4, has been designated as "Old Timers' Night," it was announced yesterday by Sam Rubin, "Granddad" of the old timers.

Four times each year, the old timers, or veterans of World War I, entertain younger members of the post at one of the regular gatherings. Food and refreshments, paid for by the old timers, are provided for the meeting as a stimulant to attendance.

All of the meetings so far have been well attended and it is expected that the coming one will prove especially interesting as several important guests have been invited and an interesting program will be arranged, Mr. Rubin said. Guest speakers will be department Commander Gray Mann and Adjutant Department Commander

"A group of 'old timers' has agreed to set aside four nights each year, at which time the 'youngsters,' or World War II veterans, will be entertained and supplied with good food and drink, at no cost to them whatever. All cost will be borne by the 'old timers.'

A severe storm swirled through the Sierra Nevada mountains Saturday burying Reno, Nev., under 18 inches of snow—heaviest fall there in 14 years.

Heavy snow piled to record depths in the Sierra. The blizzard closed off all but one land route to northern Nevada. All plane flights were cancelled in the storm area.

Many Reno residents were snowbound in their homes. All available city and private snow removal equipment was thrown into the task of clearing streets, and opening blocked highways.

Main highways between California and Nevada were impassable.

Junior Chamber Of Commerce To Announce Choice Monday Night

The outstanding young man of the year will be announced and honored at the fourth annual distinguished service award and boss nite banquet of the Junior Chamber of Commerce Monday night at the Rendezvous. Charlton Lyons, outstanding civic leader of Shreveport, ad one of the leading businessmen of north Louisiana, will be the principal speaker of the evening.

The boss' nite banquet has become an annual affair of the Jaycees. At this time the Jaycees have as their guest their employers, or associates in business, in the hope that these men will become better acquainted with the activities of the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

The distinguished service award to the outstanding young man of the year has become an affair of annual anticipation. Three outstanding civic leaders of the Twin Cities, each past the age of 36, are the judges in selecting the recipient of this award. Although nominations were submitted to the Junior Chamber of Commerce office, the JJaycees have absolutely nothing to do with the selection of the young man. It has also been emphasized that the award's recipient does not have to be a member of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, but can be any young man between the ages of 21 and 36, who, through his community efforts in West Monroe Man Killed In W. M.

Morris Alexander, 36, 512 N. Fourth St., West Monroe La. died en route to the St. Francis Sanitarium last night after a car hit him a half mile west of West Monroe on highway 80.

The driver of the car was not identified late last night.

State police, still investigating the accident early today, said last night that Morris apparently had walked in front of the car when the car hit him in front of Rudy's Bar at about 11:10 p. m.

He died en route to the St. Francis Sanitarium, police said.

Besides state police, parish sheriff deputies and West Monroe officers investigated the death.

SOVIET PROPOSES ATOMIC CONTROL

Vishinsky Asks Prohibition Of Atomic War Weapons

Paris, Jan. 12. —(AP)— Andrei Y. Vishinsky today proposed simultaneous prohibition of atomic weapons and establishment of strict atomic controls under which international agents would come and go on continuous inspection in any country, including Russia, whenever necessary.

The Soviet foreign minister told the United Nations political committee in a speech outlining his new ideas on atomic control that the international control organ should have the right "to conduct inspection on a continuing basis but it shall not be entitled to interfere in the domestic affairs of the states."

The Russians in the past have rejected the idea of permanent inspection teams, contending they would spy for the west. Vishinsky declared his plan was a "tremendous and momentous step forward" and called on the west to match the proposal.

American delegation spokesmen immediately minimized the value of Vishinsky's plan. They declared it contained mostly "old

Claims Perez Support Accepted By M'Lemore

New Orleans, Jan. 12.—(Special)—James M. McLemore in effect has accepted the gubernatorial primary support of Leander Perez, district attorney and political power in Plaquemines parish and in the neighboring wide-open gambling parish of St. Bernard.

Both Perez and McLemore made it clear in public statements that Perez had dropped Lucille May Grace, whom he put into the gubernatorial race, in favor of the Alexandria candidate McLemore in his public statement, made no rejection of the Perez support, simply denying that any deals or commitments were involved in support he receives from the Perez political kingdom—which, however, has been dwindling in size in recent years and actually offers very few votes to the state candidates it supports.

Revelation of the Plaquemines-Perez - McLemore lineup started Tuesday morning with publication in the Times-Picayune here, which supports McLemore for governor, that Sheriff E. H. "Dutch" Rowley of St. Bernard would not go along fully with Perez on McLemore and that the St. Bernard parish vote would be split between McLemore and Judge Spaht, who is Earl Long's candidate.

Since then there has been one explosion after another, with Perez telephoning a statement to the Times-Picayune, which it published today, calling McLemore's campaign manager, William O. White of Shreveport, "an insulting S. O. B."

An even split for McLemore and Spaht in St. Bernard and an overwhelming portion of the Plaquemines vote would give McLemore only some 3,500 to 4,000 votes —

CANDIDATES IN MAJOR RALLIES

Boggs, Kennon, Spaht And McLemore Speak In New Orleans

The Louisiana Democratic gubernatorial primary campaign headed down the stretch today with seven of the nine candidates speaking before major rallies or issuing statements outlining their plans.

Rep. Hale Boggs, Judge Robert Kennon, James McLemore and Carlos Spaht held city-wide rallies in New Orleans.

In a statement issued from his New Orleans headquarters Boggs said the time has come "when we should do away with factional strife, bitterness and hate.

"The time has come when all of us should place Louisiana first."

"When we place Louisiana first." Boggs statement said, "we will, in so doing, develop our state from one end to the other. With energetic, experienced, proven leadership, we will take advantage of the opportunities and the challenges that face us now.

Under his program, he said. "There will be constitutional civil service; state employes, school teachers and other public school employes will be paid a living wage. Municipalities will be assisted in solving their financial problems by a program of reallocation of the tobacco tax and I was the first candidate to outline such a plan."

Kennon, speaking at Kenner on his way into New Orleans, promised a square deal for the working man and an industrial program that will "put both labor and management on top" in Louisiana.

He reviewed his program which he said calls for a reduction in taxes and a reduction in running the government.

"With economical and efficient government, and fairness to all," Kennon said, "industries with big payrolls won't be afraid to come to Louisiana."

He said his platform also called for a two-cent gasoline tax reduction, which he said, would save every automobile owner in the state

'Red Attack Will Fail'

U. S. Eighth Army Headquarters, Korea, Sunday, Jan. 13.—(AP)—Gen. James A. Van Fleet said today that an all-out Communist offensive in Korea would meet "with complete disaster both on the ground and in the air."

The U. S. eighth army commander said in an interview that the Reds have built up their capabilities powerfully, particularly their air force.

"But if the Communists launch an all-out offensive and sent great numbers (of planes) over our battlelines, we would handle them. Those planes would fall like rain. It would be something to see."

Southwest Shippers To Meet January 22

Presidents Of Several Railroads Will Be Among Guests Here

The Southwest Shippers advisory board will meet in Monroe for a three-day session beginning January 22, H. F. Easterling, traffic manager of the Brown Paper Mill and general chairman of the advisory board, has announced.

The meeting will bring to the Twin Cities a large number of distinguished railroad officers and representatives of all types of business and industry throughout the southwest. Simultaneous with the advisory board's meetings will be meetings of the Southwestern Industrial Traffic League and Southern Paper Manufacturers Traffic Conference.

In making his announcement, Easterling said the principal speak-

Garey Speaks At Rally In West Monroe

A large crowd gathered in West Monroe Saturday afternoon to hear Leon Garey, candidate for Lt. Gov. on the Bill Dodd ticket, state that if elected the Louisiana taxpayer would see taxes returned on a dollar for dollar basis.

Garey, who has served two terms as mayor of Houma, stated that his ticket was prepared to go work immediately after taking office, since all were experienced men. "The men composing the Dodd ticket have never been defeated for public office, said Garey, and with this record we will give to the people of Louisiana

OLDER VETERANS WILL BE HOSTS

Legion World War I Men To Entertain Those Of Later Wars

The next regular meeting of the L. B. Faulk post of the American Legion, Feb. 4, has been designated as "Old Timers' Night," it was announced yesterday by Sam Rubin, "Granddad" of the old timers.

Four times each year, the old timers, or veterans of World War I, entertain younger members of the post at one of the regular gatherings. Food and refreshments, paid for by the old timers, are provided for the meeting as a stimulant to attendance.

All of the meetings so far have been well attended and it is expected that the coming one will prove especially interesting as several important guests have been invited and an interesting program will be arranged, Mr. Rubin said. Guest speakers will be department Commander Gray Mann and Adjutant Department Commander "A group of 'old timers' has agreed to set aside four nights each year, at which time the 'youngsters,' or World War II veterans, will be entertained and supplied with good food and drink, at no cost to them whatever. All cost will be borne by the 'old timers.'

Queen, King For Pageant Chosen

Natchez, Miss., Jan. 12. —(AP)— Handsel Butts, 21, University of Mississippi senior, and Miss Katherine Chamberlain Beatner, former Ole Miss student, will be king and queen of the 1952 confederate pageant during the famed annual Natchez pilgrimage.

They will reign over Natchez during the entire pilgrimage which opens March 1 and continues through March 30. Four nights each week they will be monarchs of the colorful pageant staged in city auditorium for the thousands of visitors who come to Natchez for the yearly festival.

Miss Boatner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Shirley Alston Boatner, is a regal blonde with gray-green eyes. She is a native of Natchez and a graduate of the public school system. She attended the University of Mississippi for two years and has appeared in several pageants of the past — in tableaux in the confederate court as a maid to the queen.

Her king, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lucius M. Butts, Sr., is now attending Ole Miss from which he will be graduated with a bachelor of science degree January 25. He attended the University of North Carolina for two years and is a member of the Kappa Alpha social fraternity.

To the honorable mayor, district attorney and splendid personnel of your city police force, I am writing this letter of commendation and hearty approval and admiration of the way you have stamped out vice of all kinds, especially that of prostitution, regardless of race and color.

While not a resident of your fine city with its splendid churches and schools yet having been in and out of here for the past five winters as a nursery salesman, I must say the improvement has been wonderful and self-evident and I say hats off to you.

In regard to cases of prostitution I say, harsh though it may seem, that any girl or woman who lacks sufficient self-respect to behave herself in the streets should be confined in jail or made to stay off the streets.

I would say to you have the job of keeping Monroe a straightforward city, "May your tribe increase and God bless you."

Bus Drivers Hear Supt. W. W. Ward

Bus drivers for the Ouachita parish school board met Saturday at 10 a. m. and were addressed by Supt. W. W. Ward, who stated that he "would like to be known as a co-worker and not as the boss."

Ward stated that he would cooperate with the drivers in every way possible.

Addressing the meeting, which was called to discuss safety, were Captain Jack Davis, Monroe police department, Lt. J. A. Daniels, Louisiana state police, and J. R. Culliphar, West Monroe police department. The three officers advised the bus drivers on certain areas to be closely watched.

Morris Griggs, superintendent of transportation for the parish school board, advised all drivers present on the "do's and don'ts" of a driver.

EMPLOYMENT IS CALLED STABLE

Ouachita Non-Agricultural Industries Proceed In Normal Manner

Labor market highlights:

The Monroe labor market area (Ouachita parish) continues its stable employment in non-agricultural industries.

Construction will experience the principal gain in the next two months if material is available.

The labor supply is adequate to meet the demand for the next two months.

Unemployment increased as employment in agriculture and construction industries decreased.

Non-agricultural employment in Ouachita parish decreased from 21,025 in November, 1951 to 20,900 in December of the same year. Employment in the manufacturing industries declined by 75 employees during the 30-day period and the non-manufacturing group lost 50 during the same period.

The apparel industry in the manufacturing group experienced an increase of 19 employees. This increase resulted from a change in the type of clothing manufactured.

Employment in the paper industry decreased 110 during the past 30 days. Shortages of materials and lack of orders were the main factors in this decline.

Due to inclement weather and shortage of materials, the construction industry experienced a decline in employment.

Retail trade employment has increased due to the large number of extra employees hired for the Christmas season. Employment in this industry has increased by approximately 113 persons.

The number of persons unemployed and seeking work in Ouachita parish jumped from 1,300 in November, 1951 to 1,950 in December, 1951. The principal reason for the continued upward trend during this 30-day period has been the completion of the cotton harvest, and the availability of these seasonal workers for other types of employment. Weather conditions and material shortages have added to the upward trend.

The number of lay-offs in both the paper and contract construction industries has also increased the number of unemployed in the Monroe area.

The present level of unemployment is about 50 higher than that reported during December, 1950.

SUPPORT ASKED IN RABIES DRIVE

Dr. W. Carroll Summer Says Cooperation Of Public Needed

Dr. W. Carroll Summer, Director of the Ouachita Parish Health Unit, is urging all persons in Ouachita parish to comply with the parishwide drive to curb rabies by vaccination of the entire dog population.

Dr. Summer said the children will begin on Wednesday, January 16, 1952, and will be held at various points over the parish for the next four weeks for the vaccination of the animals. Dog owners who do not obey the law are risking the lives of members of their family as well as their pet.

"Rabies is a dangerous disease," Dr. Sumner stated. "Rabies cannot be cured; it is fatal. But it can be prevented. That is what we are trying to do now for the parish of Ouachita. Whether this campaign is a success or a failure will depend upon the cooperation of our dog-owning citizens. Everyone should realize the seriousness of this disease. We must realize that we do have rabies in Ouachita parish. Rabies is one of the oldest and most deadly diseases known. Without adequate control the disease can and may become widespread and serious at any time."

Little Theatre Curtain Call

Things have come to a pretty pass, and from where your reporter sits it looks like a big black cloud hanging over something.

Yep, if I sound a little on the bitter side, I am. Seems like things out Little Theatre way have ground to a halt. For the first time since we have moved into our Playhouse at Selman Field, and for the first time since we acquired our director, which is about two and a half years now, a crisis, the likes of which has now arisen, is looming black.

Rehearsals for "The Play's the Thing" have had to be stopped, and the production dates temporarily cancelled. Why? Well, it seems that in this area of ours, where upward to sixty thousand people live, there are not two men who are willing to participate in what would prove to be one of the most rewarding experiences ever. That's it. Two cast members had to drop from the roles of the production, one for business reasons and the other because of illness in his family, and there is no one to replace either of them.

Your Little Theatre, which five times each year brings entertainment of the most professional tenure, to over a thousand Twin Citians, has had to stop. I don't think it's right.

If you agree with me and have any suggestions, how about giving me a buzz at the News - Star building. Just ask for Sue Sharman, and we'll see if together we can't do a little helping to Little Theatre and to its director which have done so much for us in the past few years.

RANDOM NOTES . . . A little late but "Curtain Call" received a Christmas card all the way from England from ex-Monroe Little Theatre enthusiast Alice and Gil Findlay. How about dropping them a line with news about the town they can't forget. The address is No. 3 Hempstead Rd., Gellingham, Kent, England .... The other day when I said there would be cards of invitation in the mail to Little Theatre members for the special road showing of Tennessee Williams famous "Streetcar Named Desire", I made a mistake, as showman Melvin Greenblatt pointed out, these attractive cards are very special announcments. Showman Greenblatt is proud to bring this show to Monroe. I, of course, am one L. T. member who has had it on my must see list since they first started shooting in Hollywood .... Speaking of the genial Mr. Greenblatt, he is taking a six weeks vacation. Six weeks isn't that nice .... Our board member Lon Heuer is burning the midnight oil while he decorates the Little Theatre cottage on North First street. Tells me it will be another month before he is finished. Bet it will really be something for the Heuer's to show off to their friends .... Kathryn Goins and Myra Ketchum of the West Monroe Branch of the News Star - World are planning a little decoration of their own in their new office and they were asking "Curtain Call" about the pie plates (Lon's decoration idea when Little Theatre was being decorated) that have been sensational to everyone from Canada to the Gulf who have seen them. You see what I mean by Lon's originality in decoration .... Little Theatre member Yvonne Brett has been making all the dress sales this week. Can hardly wait to see her come out in some of her new creations .... Add to Little Theatre members and well remembered actors that we will surely miss, the Herb Bailey's and their cute daughter. The newspaper boy on their route reported to me that he was loosing a customer the other day. When asked who it was he said "I don't know his name but he was in the play "Dear Ruth". How's that for identifying someone .... Guess I'd better stop this gossip and get back to work. Will see you Monday.

"Citation:

"For excellent service in the line of his profession while serving with a marine infantry company during operations against the enemy in Korea June 10, 1951. Private First Class Bryant, serving as a company wireman, displayed outstanding skill, courage and confidence in the performance of his duties, with complete disregard for his own personal safety, he continuously exposed himself to intense enemy fire during the day long attack to assist in the evacuation of the wounded and the distribution of critically needed ammunition. His devotion to duty, coolness under fire and high degree of professional competence were an inspiration to all who observed him and contributed materially to the success of the company in attaining its objective. His conduct throughout was in keeping with the highest traditions of the United States naval service."

FIGURES DON'T LIE—These are facts

Fact 1—There was no black top road in the ward when I became a member of Police Jury.

Fact 2—After I was appointed, I immediately started a program to get black top roads where they were in desperate need.

Fact 3—Here are the results of my untiring efforts:

Black Top Streets and Roads
Milhaven Road	5.0 miles	$42,000.00
Tichell & Standifer	2.6 miles	20,800.00
Mary St., Dooleyville	0.25 miles	700.00

That's it. Two cast members had to drop from the roles of the production, one for business reasons and the other because of illness in his family, and there is no one to replace either of them.

Your Little Theatre, which five times each year brings entertainment of the most professional tenure, to over a thousand Twin Citians, has had to stop. I don't think it's right.

If you agree with me and have any suggestions, how about giving me a buzz at the News - Star building. Just ask for Sue Sharman, and we'll see if together we can't do a little helping to Little Theatre and to its director which have done so much for us in the past few years.

RANDOM NOTES . . . A little late but "Curtain Call" received a Christmas card all the way from England from ex-Monroe Little Theatre enthusiast Alice and Gil Findlay. How about dropping them a line with news about the town they can't forget. The address is No. 3 Hempstead Rd., Gellingham, Kent, England .... The other day when I said there would be cards of invitation in the mail to Little Theatre members for the special road showing of Tennessee Williams famous "Streetcar Named Desire", I made a mistake, as showman Melvin Greenblatt pointed out, these attractive cards are very special announcments. Showman Greenblatt is proud to bring this show to Monroe. I, of course, am one L. T. member who has had it on my must see list since they first started shooting in Hollywood .... Speaking of the genial Mr. Greenblatt, he is taking a six weeks vacation. Six weeks isn't that nice .... Our board member Lon Heuer is burning the midnight oil while he decorates the Little Theatre cottage on North First street. Tells me it will be another month before he is finished. Bet it will really be something for the Heuer's to show off to their friends .... Kathryn Goins and Myra Ketchum of the West Monroe Branch of the News Star - World are planning a little decoration of their own in their new office and they were asking "Curtain Call" about the pie plates (Lon's decoration idea when Little Theatre was being decorated) that have been sensational to everyone from Canada to the Gulf who have seen them. You see what I mean by Lon's originality in decoration .... Little Theatre member Yvonne Brett has been making all the dress sales this week. Can hardly wait to see her come out in some of her new creations .... Add to Little Theatre members and well remembered actors that we will surely miss, the Herb Bailey's and their cute daughter. The newspaper boy on their route reported to me that he was loosing a customer the other day. When asked who it was he said "I don't know his name but he was in the play "Dear Ruth". How's that for identifying someone .... Guess I'd better stop this gossip and get back to work. Will see you Monday.

PFC BRYANT IS GIVEN CITATION

Recognized For Attention To Duty In Aiding Wounded In Korea

A citation is given from the first marine division of the U. S. marine corps to Pfc. Clifton G. Bryant, U. S. marine corps. It is as follows:

"Citation:

"For excellent service in the line of his profession while serving with a marine infantry company during operations against the enemy in Korea June 10, 1951. Private First Class Bryant, serving as a company wireman, displayed outstanding skill, courage and confidence in the performance of his duties, with complete disregard for his own personal safety, he continuously exposed himself to intense enemy fire during the day long attack to assist in the evacuation of the wounded and the distribution of critically needed ammunition. His devotion to duty, coolness under fire and high degree of professional competence were an inspiration to all who observed him and contributed materially to the success of the company in attaining its objective. His conduct throughout was in keeping with the highest traditions of the United States naval service."

Some Of The Accomplishments Of TED TILLMAN

While Serving As Your Police Juror.

FIGURES DON'T LIE—These are facts

Fact 1—There was no black top road in the ward when I became a member of Police Jury.

Fact 2—After I was appointed, I immediately started a program to get black top roads where they were in desperate need.

Fact 3—Here are the results of my untiring efforts:

Black Top Streets and Roads
Milhaven Road	5.0 miles	$42,000.00
Ticheli & Standifer	2.6 miles	20,800.00
Mary St., Dooleyville	0.25 miles	700.00
Proposed and Approved
Prairie	2.3 miles	$23,000.00
Buck Jones Lane	1.3 miles	13,000.00
		$36,000.00
Drainage
Ward 3	63 miles	$425,000.00
		$524,500.00

If I am elected as a member of the Police Jury, Ward 3, I have many more plans for improvement of Ward 3, equally as great as the above figures.
Keep Ted Tillman in Ward 3 and Ted Tillman will keep Ward 3 the best place in Ouachita Parish to live.

The Issue for Voters:

Who Is Best Qualified To Be Governor?

All independent voters—whether leaning to Hale Boggs, Robert F. Kennon or James M. McLemore— have the same objective in Tuesday's Louisiana gubernatorial primary:

Ridding our state government of Earl Long and Earl Longism.

Thus the final decision for the independent voter Tuesday rests with—

Which of the three independent candidates has the best chance to get into the second primary—

Which of the three would have the best chance to beat Earl Long forces in the second primary—

Which of the three, if elected, is best qualified to give the kind of state government all independents want.

In our opinion, the answer to all three questions is: Hale Boggs.

In political camps of all the non-independents, Boggs is placed far ahead of both Kennon and McLemore in the race for a spot in the second primary.

Independent political observers all over the state give him every chance for that place.

They give virtually no chance to either McLemore or Kennon.

As for the second primary itself, Boggs alone can carry into that race both a unified independent vote and support from every past political faction in Louisiana.

No other candidate has or can obtain such second primary strength.

The final question for the independent voter thus rests with the qualifications of each of the three independent candidates to give the kind of government all independent voters want.

Let's look at the record:

Mr. McLemore bases his candidacy on the strange philosophy that because he never has had so much as one minute of experience or training in governmental work he is the best qualified man to administer government. In effect he seems to contend that the man who has the least first-hand knowledge about a subject is, automatically, the best authority on it.

Judge Kennon's governmental experience has been solely in the judiciary—handing down court decisions—except for a period as mayor of Minden a decade ago.

Hale Boggs—alone of the independent trio—has proven in high public office his qualifications to hold such office.

His eight years in congress have not been merely eight years of yea and nay votes, but eight years of intense activity in government problems often directly connected with grave problems that will confront Louisiana's next governor.

For example:

TAXES: LOUISIANA'S GRAVEST PROBLEM:

Judge Kennon has had no experience in the governmental end of taxation.

Mr. McLemore has had no experience in the governmental end of taxation.

Mr. Boggs is recognized as an intensely active and capable member of the house of representatives Ways and Means committee, in which all federal tax legislation must originate. With Chairman Doughton of that committee, he has fought relentlessly against much of the Truman tax program. This is a fight which no human being could win completely, but in many instances dangerous Truman tax plans were blocked or cut.

Mr. Boggs was a leader in the fight against the Truman forces in preserving Louisiana's community tax rights when figuring federal income tax. This has saved the small taxpayers of Louisiana millions of dollars annually.

He led the fight—through selection by both Democratic and Republican congressmen of all the oil producing states—to block Truman administration efforts to alter the oil depletion allowance. This victory helped every little owner of a bit of oil land, or of oil royalty rights.

He is the author of new legislation which has brought income tax relief to widows and widowers, rich and poor, all over the nation.

He has been a student of Louisiana taxation throughout and before his years in congress. Recently, he amazed certain mayors of Louisiana municipalities with his intimate knowledge of fiscal problems of their own cities. He is pledged to state action—via return of state tax revenue to villages, cities and towns—to help solve the critical tax revenue problems that face almost all municipalities of the state.

One of the independent candidates—McLemore—has not as yet even answered questions on municipal revenue problems put to him by the Louisiana Municipal association. Kennon did answer—in favor of state aid to the municipalities.

Neither Judge Kennon nor Mr. McLemore have had any experience in any of these fields.

WELFARE, PENSIONS:

Judge Kennon has had no first-hand governmental experience in such fields.

Mr. McLemore has had no first-hand experience in such fields.

Mr. Boggs is co-author of the federal railroad retirement act in its present form, looked on as a model guarantee of security for the aged.

He has the benefit of first-hand legislative experience in all federal-aid welfare legislation enacted in recent years by congress.

His vote in the house Ways and Means committee in the last session of congress brought about house acceptance of a senate bill through which chiselers eventually may be driven from Louisiana welfare rolls and the way thus opened for more efficient and beneficial administration of aid to the genuinely needy.

FEDERAL-STATE PROBLEMS:

Welfare, pensions, tidelands, waterway developement, [illegible] control, forestry developement, establishment in Louisiana of new military installations and defense industries—[illegible] are vital problems for this state and each of [illegible] the federal government.

[illegible] to handle these federal-state problems?

THE LEGISLATURE:

The state legislature is the key to good or bad government; it can make or break the state.

Of all nine candidates, Hale Boggs alone included in his platform— as Plank No. 2, second only to his plank on honest government— a pledge to do all in his power to make and keep the legislature independent.

He is pledged in his platform against rubber stamping, legal bribery to get pet personal bills passed, and all the other evils of legislature subservience to whip-snapping from the governor's office.

With Mr. Boggs this was a fundamental of his own beliefs as to government.

Such a pledge came only later from Judge Kennon and Mr. McLemore—after the matter had become a campaign issue through the Boggs platform.

We believe—honestly and sincerely—that in experience, training, and proven capability in high public office Hale Boggs is qualified beyond any other candidate to administer Louisiana's government in these perilous times when experience, accompanied by proven honesty and morality, is a priceless and essential asset.

Because of these things—and many others—we have no hesitancy in again urging the people of Louisiana to go to the polls Tuesday and—

Vote Boggs!

Police Jury Record Good

With three new places and 13 old seats at stake in the police jury election to be held Tuesday and with 67 candidates running for those 16 seats, it seems wise to make an appraisal of the record that has been set by the present police jury. In this way, voters can decide whether it seems wiser to re-elect most of the present police jury members or to elect new ones.

After a study of the excellent and extraordinary record of the present police jury, it seems that maintenance of the principal structure of the police jury is extremely important. In other words, although some of the voters will want to exercise their personal preference in voting, it appears that it would be a wise and advantageous move to return most of the present police jurors to their positions.

This does not mean, in any way that no new members should be elected. In the three largest wards of the parish—wards three, five and ten—one new member each must be elected, since each of these wards has an additional seat, based on increased population, as shown by the 1950 census. This means that voters can pick one new man and still vote for the two present members in these wards if they wish to do so, or, if they have some special reason for voting against a present member, they can vote for one present member and two new members, or they can vote for three new members if they think there should be a new setup.

Since the present police jury has functioned harmoniously and has made great strides in road improvement and drainage and since it has adopted a system of financing that makes dishonesty virtually impossible, there could scarcely be any reason of changing its structure materially.

A. E. Montgomery one of the police jurors in ward ten, has been serving as president of the police jury for the last six years, having been elected each year without opposition. During that time the police jury has had full cooperation on the part of state and parish officials and of city officials of Monroe and West Monroe.

At the time Mr. Montgomery became president, there were no blacktop roads in Ouachita parish. During those six years, 80 miles of roads have been blacktopped and these roads reach into every ward in the parish, including some in ward 10, although that ward is largely inside the city limits. During that time, 83 miles of major drainage canals and several miles of laterals have been opened, thus taking surplus water off large acreages and making the land suitable for cultivation or pasture.

This work has been carried on without imposing any additional taxes, the police jury operating on the present assessment and on money derived from the gasoline tax. A majority of the police jurors have gone on record as being opposed to calling an election to vote additional taxes.

The financial system used in this parish has worked so well that other parishes have used it as a model. In some of the parishes, each police juror is given a certain portion of the available money to spend in his ward. There is little way of checking up on how much he spends for these improvements and how much he may divert to personal use. In Ouachita parish, no money is spent by any police juror. Each project must be approved by the whole police jury and the payments are made by the police jury secretary, who must make a report on all expenditures.

Most members of the police jury express their opinions freely in meetings and sometimes there are wide differences of opinion but after a vote has been taken on an issue and the majority has spoken, these differences are forgotten and the members go on to the next question.

With a harmonious police jury, an excellent system of operation and a splendid record of accomplishment, there seems little reason for major changes in the membership, except for the addition of the three new members.

Shady Wall's Record Good

Among the five candidates for the two seats in the house of representatives from Ouachita parish there is only one candidate whose record the voters have a chance to study. He is Representative Shady Wall, up for re-election. All the other candidates are running for the first time and therefore have not had a chance to show what they will do.

Representative Wall has made a good record and is entitled to re-election. From among the other candidates the voters should be able to select a good man to fill the other seat.

Following a study of the records of all the representatives in Louisiana, the following report was made on Representative Wall: "Shady Wall—Signed and kept civil service pledge. Voted against tobacco, gas and beer taxes and for sales and severance taxes. Voted against Earl Long rigged constitutional convention plan."

Money from the sales tax is devoted chiefly to paying benefits to the aged and that from the severance tax is used to pay increased salaries for teachers and for educational improvements.

Peak Steel Production

Several features of the present steel situation do not seem to make sense. Steel is being producted at an annual rate of approximately 105,000,000 tons, but a shortage is reported.

In 1944 at the peak of production during World War II, total tonnage was 90,000,000 tons. At that time the U. S. was supplying 12,000,000 men under arms, a vast shipbuilding program was under way, and many tons were being shipped to other nations.

It is inconceivable that demands for steel are greater than they were in 1944, but a shortage is reported—with production nearly 20 per cent higher than in that year.

There is a rumor that government agencies, particularly the military, are receiving allotments greater than their [illegible] needs and are attempting to build stockpiles [illegible] to hoarding.

George E. Sokolsky:

THESE DAYS

A MIGHTY QUESTION

A very beautiful woman I know, who is supposed to be wholly ornamental, every once in a while knocks over her friends with a startling questio which can only enter the mind of one not corrupted by too much learning. It is sheer good sense.

This time a group of us were bemoaning the state of the world in a jam session on all matters from how to save mankind to the characteristics of Harry Truman and the mink, when this sweet child threw this into the session:

"What would happen if we could go back to 1914?"

That stopped us.

"What do you mean, go back?" I said petulantly.

Her point was that the world was fairly comfortable until we all went to war in 1914. So what would we be like if that had not happened?

I think the jam session ended with that one. Nobody dared face it. Yet, I could not keep that question out of my head for several days.

There had been no general war from 1815 to 1914. During that century, the material progress of the world had made greater strides than in any similar period in the whole of human history. It was the century of the application of steam, electricity, electronics. It was the era of the development of the electric light, the sewing machine, farm machinery, mass production in industry, the typewriter. It was the time for the freeing of women from economic and political discrimination. Representative government appeared in an increasing number of countries. Education gradually ceased to be a monopoly of the rich; slavery was abolished in all forms in all countries in Europe and the Americas. New means of communications shortened time and space.

Spiritual values appeared in the law. Such bodies as the Hague Tribunal and the International Red Cross came into existence. A vast volume of international law was written. Religious freedom was acknowledged and public outrage expressed itself in countless forms against injustice anywhere.

Then came World War I, a wholly meaningless and unwarranted war. Originating as a conflict between two processing nations, Great Britain and Germany, over markets, it ended in the Bolshevik revolution in Russia, the rise of facism and nazism in Italy and Germany, the beginning of the break-up of the British empire and the emergence of the United States as the almoner of the world.

For the United States, it meant the increase of the size and function of government, the assumption of huge governmental costs and the adoption of the income tax, which reversed the economic and social character of this nation.

From 1914 to 1952, the United States moved from a free economy to a mixed economy, from the individual operating according to his will and judgment and at his risk to a government-regulated and at times controlled economy. This involved not only widespread use of subsidies, making an increasing number of Americans dependent upon government, but it perforce levelled downward elements in the population to a general proletariat.

Because of economic dislocations arising out of war, often called depressions, states and municipalities became more and more dependent upon the federal government, which, having the advantage of the income and excise taxes, was able to [illegible] ed the various payroll taxes, which were sugar-coated by what has generally been called social security.

In fact, the economic and social system of the United States entered upon a form of Fabian socialism, somewhat inchoate because of the confusing admixtures of Marxism and Keynesian economics. Politically, it tended to a centralized national system, with increased powers for officials and a constant war as a means toward maintaining a ruling group in power. Congress struggled against the psychological use of war as a weapon of control of our own people and the supreme court was debased by unfit appointments.

Against this stood the inherent love of Americans for freedom; their strong insistence upon attending to their own affairs and resisting governmental interference; their continued belief in congress as the center of our governmental system; and their enormous capacity for production in the face of adverse circumstances.

What would have happened to us and to the rest of the world if 1914 had not diverted us from a steady course of progress?

Who can really answer that question, but I am glad that it was asked. Perhaps if we stand on that point, our perspective as to our purposes and remedies may be more correct.

In Washington With

BASCOM TIMMONS

General Eisenhower's backers are evidently preparing to make clever use, politically speaking, of his present active service in Europe in pushing his candidacy for the Republican nomination.

In doing so, they have apparently been guilty of a material misrepresentation concerning the restriction put upon his own political activity by army regulations.

When Senator Henry Cabot Lodge (Rep.-Mass.) national manager of the Eisenhower forces wrote Governor Sherman Adams his monumental letter projecting the general's name into the New Hampshire presidential primaries of March 11 he asserted that he couldn't ask General Eisenhower directly whether he was a Republican or a Democrat "because as a member of the army on active duty he is prohibited by army regulations from engaging directly or indirectly in a nomination campaign."

Lodge, himself a former army officer with a distinguished combat record, must have known himself that such a statement stretched the facts. Next day the general came forth with a statement in Paris saying quite explicitly that he was a Republican, and he ought to know army regulations.

The fact of the matter is that all the regulations do is bar an officer on active duty from participating in a political campaign or in other political activity "looking to the influencing of an election or the solicitation of votes for themselves or others." Statement of an officer's political preferences or his own feelings toward a movement to nominate him would hardly come within those restrictions, so the letter to Adams was simply a political device, though an old one.

As seen here, the Eisenhower move shapes up about like this: If he should sweep the primaries for convention delegates in New Hampshire, Wisconsin and some [illegible] the General, he would be well on his way to nomination and election [illegible] in advance of the Republican convention. Hal Boyle's

Notebook

By Ed Creagh
(For Hal Boyle)

Washington, Jan. 12. —(AP)— "I'm sorry," my wife said. "We must have a bad connection. I thought for a minute you said you were going to a party with a kangaroo."

"Not with a kangaroo. For a kangaroo," I said.

"Oh," she said. A party for a kangaroo. That makes everything perfectly clear.

"Look, are you feeling all right? You're not feverish or anything? You haven't had a blow on the head?"

So I explained that some movie people, who have just finished shooting a picture called "Kangaroo," had flown a couple of the beasts in from Australia. One kangaroo took to her bed after a few hours of Washington, but the Australian ambassador was giving a party for the other one.

"All this," my wife said, "sounds a little giddy, even for this town. Go ahead, though. Try to get home early. And I don't want to hear any stories about your having to sit up with the sick kangaroo."

Well, the party at the embassy was more fun than a barrel of kangaroos.

This Percy Spender, the ambassador, is a ruddy, gusty type who sets out a fine buffet. Turns out he's a great kangaroo fancier. Mrs. Spender can take kangaroos or leave them alone, but she let this one romp through her house with never a shudder.

And Joe, the kangaroo, stole the show.

He's the only kangaroo I ever met socially, but if they're all like him I want one. He's greyish in color and about the size of a small kangaroo. He's as cunning as an Easter bunny, and tame, too. Didn't kick a single American.

Mostly Joe was led around on a leash by a pretty Australian model named Loretta North, an 18-year-old who has been chosen "Miss Kangaroo," of all titles. She didn't have anything to do with kangaroos until she won the contest, but she learns fast. Turns out there's a lot to learn, too.

"Wonderful animals!" boomed the ambassador. "Ought to see them jump! Ten yards easily! Whole herds of them in the interior of Australia! It's a picture, by gad, to see a whole herd jumping at once. Why, I remember one time—"

Just then his son, John, who is 16, burst in. He made a bee-line for Joe—and the kangaroo, who had never seen him before, greeted him like a long-lost brother. Talk about a boy and a dog — you should have seen John and little Joe scamper through the embassy corridors.

Joey fell on his face, finally. Besides, he had a tough schedule ahead of him—New York this week end, then a tour of 20 or more U. S. and Canadian cities. So they covered him with a brown blanket and he took a long nap, right there on the rug.

"Has it occurred to you," somebody said, "that with Washington women afraid to wear mink coats, on account of all the scandals, there might be a brisk demand for coats made from kangaroo fur?"

I could have sworn that, under his blanket, Joe the kangaroo trembled from head to foot.

IN HOLLYWOOD

Hollywood, January 12 — Alfred Lunt, I'm informed by a Broadway columnist, is improving his spare time by writing a cook book. And I'm just about as surprised by that news as I would be if I suddenly met a man with two legs, one head and a pair of arms. I've always regarded Mr. Lunt as a typical actor (albeit a very good actor), and all typical actors seem possessed by a frantic yen to be known as gourmets, and usually write cookbooks, or books filled with bar recipes, or books on famous cafes they have visited, in order to achieve the distinction they desire.

Just why an actor's thoughts should dwell so fondly on food and drink, and why he should want to be considered an authority on those subjects, I don't know. Possibly it's because so many actors, during the early stages of their careers have been unable to afford good food and good drinks; possibly it's because they find something dramatic in the poses of the bon vivant. As I say, I don't know, but having been around many actors in my time, I'm thoroughly aware of the phenomenon.

I never think of this actorish yen, without remembering the chucklesome results of Grace Moore's decision, early in her Hollywood heydey, to give an ultra-ultra dinner party. Miss Moore prided herself more on her knowledge of fine foods than she did on her acting ability, and more on her intimate knowledge of fine wines than she did on her voice.

A fan magazine writer wrote a story about this famous dinner party and in the story included a list of the aperitifs, wines and liqueurs to be served. The story had to be submitted to the publicity chief of Miss Moore's studio for an okay, and he threw up his hands in horror. It wouldn't do for the public, many of whom disapprove violently of alcoholic beverages, to know that Grace Moore advocated the use of the stuff. He carefully underlined every word pertaining to spirits in the manuscript, then sent it on to the magazine editor with instructions that every word so underlined had to be deleted.

What happened? Well, the editor (she said) got her manuscripts shuffled and sent the one with the underlining to the printer. And an underlined word means just one thing to a printer, to wit, set it in italics. That's the way the story came out! The poor publicity chief caught you-know-what from his bosses for letting the mention of liquor get into print, and he caught the same, only more so, from Miss Moore when she discovered that he'd tried to delete it.

Yesterday, if I remember correctly, I mentioned the fact that Jimmy Cagney's career as a screen idol skyrocketed after he socked Mae Clark in the face with a grapefruit. Here's the follow-up on that mention. Cagney, at the moment, is playing Captain Flagg in 20th Century-Fox's "What Price Glory," and there's a scene in that opus which calls for Corinne Calvet, in the role of Charmaine, to bash him in the puss with an overripe tomato. Jimmy tells me that he's sending Mae Clark a wire today, inviting her to be a set visitor when he gets smacked. He says he's always felt that there was injustice in the fact that he won fame by wielding the grapefruit, whereas she profitted not at all, professionally speaking at least, by being the victim.

In "Don't Bother to Knock," Richard Widmark, seeing his co-star, Marilyn Monroe, for the first time, emits an enthusiastic wolf whistle. When he essayed it, Director Roy Baker, recently imported from England, disapproved. "Why not do it this way?" he asked and gave forth with one of the most expressive whistles ever heard in these parts. Widmark regarded him with surprise. "Where did you learn to do that?" he demanded. "I thought the wolf whistle was an American institution." "My boy," retorted Baker, "where certain subject matter is concerned, there is an international language!" (Distributed by the McNaught Syndicate, Inc.)

The Issue for Voters:

Who Is Best Qualified To Be Governor?

All independent voters—whether leaning to Hale Boggs, Robert F. Kennon or James M. McLemore— have the same objective in Tuesday's Louisiana gubernatorial primary:

Ridding our state government of Earl Long and Earl Longism.

Thus the final decision for the independent voter Tuesday rests with—

Which of the three independent candidates has the best chance to get into the second primary—

Which of the three would have the best chance to beat Earl Long forces in the second primary—

Which of the three, if elected, is best qualified to give the kind of state government all independents want.

In our opinion, the answer to all three questions is: Hale Boggs.

In political camps of all the non-independents, Boggs is placed far ahead of both Kennon and McLemore in the race for a spot in the second primary.

Independent political observers all over the state give him every chance for that place.

They give virtually no chance to either McLemore or Kennon.

As for the second primary itself, Boggs alone can carry into that race both a unified independent vote and support from every past political faction in Louisiana.

No other candidate has or can obtain such second primary strength.

The final question for the independent voter thus rests with the qualifications of each of the three independent candidates to give the kind of government all independent voters want.

Let's look at the record:

Mr. McLemore bases his candidacy on the strange philosophy that because he never has had so much as one minute of experience or training in governmental work he is the best qualified man to administer government. In effect he seems to contend that the man who has the least first-hand knowledge about a subject is, automatically, the best authority on it.

Judge Kennon's governmental experience has been solely in the judiciary—handing down court decisions—except for a period as mayor of Minden a decade ago.

Hale Boggs—alone of the independent trio—has proven in high public office his qualifications to hold such office.

His eight years in congress have not been merely eight years of yea and nay votes, but eight years of intense activity in government problems often directly connected with grave problems that will confront Louisiana's next governor.

For example:

TAXES: LOUISIANA'S GRAVEST PROBLEM:

Judge Kennon has had no experience in the governmental end of taxation.

Mr. McLemore has had no experience in the governmental end of taxation.

Mr. Boggs is recognized as an intensely active and capable member of the house of representatives Ways and Means committee, in which all federal tax legislation must originate. With Chairman Doughton of that committee, he has fought relentlessly against much of the Truman tax program. This is a fight which no human being could win completely, but in many instances dangerous Truman tax plans were blocked or cut.

Mr. Boggs was a leader in the fight against the Truman forces in preserving Louisiana's community tax rights when figuring federal income tax. This has saved the small taxpayers of Louisiana millions of dollars annually.

He led the fight—through selection by both Democratic and Republican congressmen of all the oil producing states —to block Truman administration efforts to alter the oil depletion allowance. This victory helped every little owner of a bit of oil land, or of oil royalty rights.

He is the author of new legislation which has brought income tax relief to widows and widowers, rich and poor, all over the nation.

He has been a student of Louisiana taxation throughout and before his years in congress. Recently, he amazed certain mayors of Louisiana municipalities with his intimate knowledge of fiscal problems of their own cities. He is pledged to state action—via return of state tax revenue to villages, cities and towns—to help solve the critical tax revenue problems that face almost all municipalities of the state.

One of the independent candidates—McLemore—has not as yet even answered questions on municipal revenue problems put to him by the Louisiana Municipal association. Kennon did answer—in favor of state aid to the municipalities.

Neither Judge Kennon nor Mr. McLemore have had any experience in any of these fields.

WELFARE, PENSIONS:

Judge Kennon has had no first-hand governmental experience in such fields.

Mr. McLemore has had no first-hand experience in such fields.

Mr. Boggs is co-author of the federal railroad retirement act in its present form, looked on as a model guarantee of security for the aged.

He has the benefit of first-hand legislative experience in all federal-aid welfare legislation enacted in recent years by congress.

His vote in the house Ways and Means committee in the last session of congress brought about house acceptance of a senate bill through which chiselers eventually may be driven from Louisiana welfare rolls and the way thus opened for more efficient and beneficial administration of aid to the genuinely needy.

FEDERAL-STATE PROBLEMS:

Welfare, pensions, tidelands, waterway developement, flood control, forestry developement, establishment in Louisiana of new military installations and defense industries—all of these are vital problems for this state and each of them ties directly into the federal government.

Who is best qualified to handle these federal-state relationships successfully for Louisiana?

Hale Boggs with eight years of first-hand federal legislative contact with such problems—and with federal officials— as one of Louisiana's members of congress?

Judge Kennon, whose official life in recent years has consisted solely of writing court decisions in the parish courthouse or campaigning unsuccessfully for state office?

Mr. McLemore, with no experience of any kind in government or governmental problems?

Hale Boggs.

THE LEGISLATURE:

The state legislature is the key to good or bad government; it can make or break the state.

Of all nine candidates, Hale Boggs alone included in his platform— as Plank No. 2, second only to his plank on honest government— a pledge to do all in his power to make and keep the legislature independent.

He is pledged in his platform against rubber stamping, legal bribery to get pet personal bills passed, and all the other evils of legislature subservience to whip-snapping from the governor's office.

With Mr. Boggs this was a fundamental of his own beliefs as to government.

Such a pledge came only later from Judge Kennon and Mr. McLemore—after the matter had become a campaign issue through the Boggs platform.

We believe—honestly and sincerely—that in experience, training, and proven capability in high public office Hale Boggs is qualified beyond any other candidate to administer Louisiana's government in these perilous times when experience, accompanied by proven honesty and morality, is a priceless and essential asset.

Because of these things—and many others—we have no hesitancy in again urging the people of Louisiana to go to the polls Tuesday and—

Vote Boggs!

Police Jury Record Good

With three new places and 13 old seats at stake in the police jury election to be held Tuesday and with 67 candidates running for those 16 seats, it seems wise to make an appraisal of the record that has been set by the present police jury. In this way, voters can decide whether it seems wiser to re-elect most of the present police jury members or to elect new ones.

After a study of the excellent and extraordinary record of the present police jury, it seems that maintenance of the principal structure of the police jury is extremely important. In other words, although some of the voters will want to exercise their personal preference in voting, it appears that it would be a wise and advantageous move to return most of the present police jurors to their positions.

This does not mean, in any way that no new members should be elected. In the three largest wards of the parish—wards three, five and ten—one new member each must be elected, since each of these wards has an additional seat, based on increased population, as shown by the 1950 census. This means that voters can pick one new man and still vote for the two present members in these wards if they wish to do so, or, if they have some special reason for voting against a present member, they can vote for one present member and two new members, or they can vote for three new members if they think there should be a new setup.

Since the present police jury has functioned harmoniously and has made great strides in road improvement and drainage and since it has adopted a system of financing that makes dishonesty virtually impossible, there could scarcely be any reason of changing its structure materially.

A. E. Montgomery one of the police jurors in ward ten, has been serving as president of the police jury for the last six years, having been elected each year without opposition. During that time the police jury has had full cooperation on the part of state and parish officials and of city officials of Monroe and West Monroe.

At the time Mr. Montgomery became president, there were no blacktop roads in Ouachita parish. During those six years, 80 miles of roads have been blacktopped and these roads reach into every ward in the parish, including some in ward 10, although that ward is largely inside the city limits. During that time, 83 miles of major drainage canals and several miles of laterals have been opened, thus taking surplus water off large acreages and making the land suitable for cultivation or pasture.

This work has been carried on without imposing any additional taxes, the police jury operating on the present assessment and on money derived from the gasoline tax. A majority of the police jurors have gone on record as being opposed to calling an election to vote additional taxes.

The financial system used in this parish has worked so well that other parishes have used it as a model. In some of the parishes, each police juror is given a certain portion of the available money to spend in his ward. There is little way of checking up on how much he spends for these improvements and how much he may divert to personal use. In Ouachita parish, no money is spent by any police juror. Each project must be approved by the whole police jury and the payments are made by the police jury secretary, who must make a report on all expenditures.

Most members of the police jury express their opinions freely in meetings and sometimes there are wide differences of opinion but after a vote has been taken on an issue and the majority has spoken, these differences are forgotten and the members go on to the next question.

With a harmonious police jury, an excellent system of operation and a splendid record of accomplishment, there seems little reason for major changes in the membership, except for the addition of the three new members.

Shady Wall's Record Good

Among the five candidates for the two seats in the house of representatives from Ouachita parish there is only one candidate whose record the voters have a chance to study. He is Representative Shady Wall, up for re-election. All the other candidates are running for the first time and therefore have not had a chance to show what they will do.

Representative Wall has made a good record and is entitled to re-election. From among the other candidates the voters should be able to select a good man to fill the other seat.

Following a study of the records of all the representatives in Louisiana, the following report was made on Representative Wall: "Shady Wall—Signed and kept civil service pledge. Voted against tobacco, gas and beer taxes and for sales and severance taxes. Voted against Earl Long rigged constitutional convention plan."

Money from the sales tax is devoted chiefly to paying benefits to the aged and that from the severance tax is used to pay increased salaries for teachers and for educational improvements.

Peak Steel Production

Several features of the present steel situation do not seem to make sense. Steel is being producted at an annual rate of approximately 105,000,000 tons, but a shortage is reported.

In 1944 at the peak of production during World War II, total tonnage was 89,000,000 tons. At that time the U. S. was supplying 12,000,000 men under arms, a vast shipbuilding program was under way, and many tons were being shipped to other nations.

It is inconceivable that demands for steel are greater than they were in 1944, but a shortage is reported—with production nearly 20 per cent higher than in that year.

There is a rumor that government agencies, particularly the military, are receiving allotments greater than their actual current needs and are attempting to build stockpiles in a manner which amounts to hoarding.

Defense Mobilizer Wilson demands fairer distribution, in line with immediate needs. The situation certainly merits official clarification.

George E. Sokolsky:

THESE DAYS

A MIGHTY QUESTION

A very beautiful woman I know, who is supposed to be wholly ornamental, every once in a while knocks over her friends with a startling questio which can only enter the mind of one not corrupted by too much learning. It is sheer good sense.

This time a group of us were bemoaning the state of the world in a jam session on all matters from how to save mankind to the characteristics of Harry Truman and the mink, when this sweet child threw this into the session:

"What would happen if we could go back to 1914?"

That stopped us.

"What do you mean, go back?" I said petulantly.

Her point was that the world was fairly comfortable until we all went to war in 1914. So what would we be like if that had not happened?

I think the jam session ended with that one. Nobody dared face it. Yet, I could not keep that question out of my head for several days.

There had been no general war from 1815 to 1914. During that century, the material progress of the world had made greater strides than in any similar period in the whole of human history. It was the century of the application of steam, electricity, electronics. It was the era of the development of the electric light, the sewing machine, farm machinery, mass production in industry, the typewriter. It was the time for the freeing of women from economic and political discrimination. Representative government appeared in an increasing number of countries. Education gradually ceased to be a monopoly of the rich; slavery was abolished in all forms in all countries in Europe and the Americas. New means of communications shortened time and space.

Spiritual values appeared in the law. Such bodies as the Hague Tribunal and the International Red Cross came into existence. A vast volume of international law was written. Religious freedom was acknowledged and public outrage expressed itself in countless forms against injustice anywhere.

Then came World War I, a wholly meaningless and unwarranted war. Originating as a conflict between two processing nations, Great Britain and Germany, over markets, it ended in the Bolshevik revolution in Russia, the rise of facism and nazism in Italy and Germany, the beginning of the break-up of the British empire and the emergence of the United States as the almoner of the world.

For the United States, it meant the increase of the size and function of government, the assumption of huge governmental costs and the adoption of the income tax, which reversed the economic and social character of this nation.

From 1914 to 1952, the United States moved from a free economy to a mixed economy, from the individual operating according to his will and judgment and at his risk to a government-regulated and at times controlled economy. This involved not only widespread use of subsidies, making an increasing number of Americans dependent upon government, but it perforce levelled downward elements in the population to a general proletariat.

Because of economic dislocations arising out of war, often called depressions, states and municipalities became more and more dependent upon the federal government, which, having the advantage of the income and excise taxes, was able to tap larger reservoirs of the people's earnings. To these were added the various payroll taxes, which were sugar-coated by what has generally been called social security.

In fact, the economic and social system of the United States entered upon a form of Fabian socialism, somewhat inchoate because of the confusing admixtures of Marxism and Keynesian economics. Politically, it tended to a centralized national system, with increased powers for officials and a constant war as a means toward maintaining a ruling group in power. Congress struggled against the psychological use of war as a weapon of control of our own people and the supreme court was debased by unfit appointments.

Against this stood the inherent love of Americans for freedom; their strong insistence upon attending to their own affairs and resisting governmental interference; their continued belief in congress as the center of our governmental system; and their enormous capacity for production in the face of adverse circumstances.

What would have happened to us and to the rest of the world if 1914 had not diverted us from a steady course of progress?

Who can really answer that question, but I am glad that it was asked. Perhaps if we stand on that point, our perspective as to our purposes and remedies may be more correct.

In Washington With

BASCOM TIMMONS

General Eisenhower's backers are evidently preparing to make clever use, politically speaking, of his present active service in Europe in pushing his candidacy for the Republican nomination.

In doing so, they have apparently been guilty of a material misrepresentation concerning the restriction put upon his own political activity by army regulations.

When Senator Henry Cabot Lodge (Rep.-Mass.) national manager of the Eisenhower forces wrote Governor Sherman Adams his monumental letter projecting the general's name into the New Hampshire presidential primaries of March 11 he asserted that he couldn't ask General Eisenhower directly whether he was a Republican or a Democrat "because as a member of the army on active duty he is prohibited by army regulations from engaging directly or indirectly in a nomination campaign."

Lodge, himself a former army officer with a distinguished combat record, must have known himself that such a statement stretched the facts. Next day the general came forth with a statement in Paris saying quite explicitly that he was a Republican, and he ought to know army regulations.

The fact of the matter is that all the regulations do is bar an officer on active duty from participating in a political campaign or in other political activity "looking to the influencing of an election or the solicitation of votes for themselves or others." Statement of an officer's political preferences or his own feelings toward a movement to nominate him would hardly come within those restrictions, so the letter to Adams was simply a political device, though an old one.

As seen here, the Eisenhower move shapes up about like this: If he should sweep the primaries for convention delegates in New Hampshire, Wisconsin and some major state like Illinois, Ike could be well on his way to nomination and election considerably in advance of the Republican convention. But most veteran political leaders predict that he will go into that convention with his real

Hal Boyle's

Notebook

By Ed Creagh
(For Hal Boyle)

Washington, Jan. 12. —(AP)— "I'm sorry," my wife said. "We must have a bad connection. I thought for a minute you said you were going to a party with a kangaroo."

"Not with a kangaroo. For a kangaroo," I said.

"Oh," she said. A party for a kangaroo. That makes everything perfectly clear.

"Look, are you feeling all right? You're not feverish or anything? You haven't had a blow on the head?"

So I explained that some movie people, who have just finished shooting a picture called "Kangaroo," had flown a couple of the beasts in from Australia. One kangaroo took to her bed after a few hours of Washington, but the Australian ambassador was giving a party for the other one.

"All this," my wife said, "sounds a little giddy, even for this town. Go ahead, though. Try to get home early. And I don't want to hear any stories about your having to sit up with the sick kangaroo."

Well, the party at the embassy was more fun than a barrel of kangaroos.

This Percy Spender, the ambassador, is a ruddy, gusty type who sets out a fine buffet. Turns out he's a great kangaroo fancier. Mrs. Spender can take kangaroos or leave them alone, but she let this one romp through her house with never a shudder.

And Joe, the kangaroo, stole the show.

He's the only kangaroo I ever met socially, but if they're all like him I want one. He's greyish in color and about the size of a small kangaroo. He's as cunning as an Easter bunny, and tame, too. Didn't kick a single American.

Mostly Joe was led around on a leash by a pretty Australian model named Loretta North, an 18-year-old who has been chosen "Miss Kangaroo," of all titles. She didn't have anything to do with kangaroos until she won the contest, but she learns fast. Turns out there's a lot to learn, too.

"Wonderful animals!" boomed the ambassador. "Ought to see them jump! Ten yards easily! Whole herds of them in the interior of Australia! It's a picture, by gad, to see a whole herd jumping at once. Why, I remember one time —"

Just then his son, John, who is 16, burst in. He made a bee-line for Joe—and the kangaroo, who had never seen him before, greeted him like a long-lost brother. Talk about a boy and a dog — you should have seen John and little Joe scamper through the embassy corridors.

Joey fell on his face, finally. Besides, he had a tough schedule ahead of him—New York this week end, then a tour of 30 or more U. S. and Canadian cities. So they covered him with a brown blanket and he took a long nap, right there on the rug.

Gangs, Graft & Governors

Any gang of public plunderers operating over a period of time is storing up a tremendous political fortune. Not for themselves—but for the men who eventually send them to jail . . . Crime doesn't pay—for the criminal—but it certainly pays off for the public servants who bring them to bay . . . History proves that when thieves fall out, not only do all honest men get their due, but a few get a great deal of publicity, which skyrockets them to fame and fortune.

For instance, early in 1871, three scoundrels had a quarrel in N. Y. C. They were ex-Sheriff O'Brien, Controller Connolly and Boss Tweed . . . O'Brien's revenge consisted of turning over Connolly's records to the N. Y. Times. Tweed promptly offered George Jones, the editor, 5 million dollars not to publish them. The Times ran the headline, of course, and simultaneously the decline of Tweed and the spectacular rise of two other men started.

One was a young cartoonist named Thomas Nast, who created the Tammany Tiger with his pen . . . Tweed offered Nast a half million dollars to stop drawing, but Nast was already out of hearing—halfway up the ladder of success to his final destination, the pinnacle of journalistic immortality . . . The man who pinned the prison stripes on Tweed's dirty shirt was Samuel J. Tilden of Gramercy Park. As a result of his attacks on the Tweed ring, New York elected him governor in 1874 and the people elected him president in 1876—but he was robbed of the latter . . . In any event, the fallen body of Tweed was the stepping stone for Tilden's career.

About the turn of the Century, the very best names in New York were engaged in a very bitter fight for control of one of its very best assets — a large insurance company. The quarreling behind the closed Wall Street doors became loud enough to reach the sensitive ears of Joseph Pulitzer in Park Row. The charges and counter-charges between the battling financial moguls convinced Pulitzer that the forgotten men were the policy holders—the little people who paid the premiums.

Something more than a mere legislative inquiry was needed. A thorough, honest, mathematically and legally trained examiner . . . As an additional qualification, he could not be connected with the Society and Wall Street world, because the interests he was to attack were the very citadel of both . . . The man was found. His careful, cold analysis resulted in the great insurance reforms. The inquiry earned for him the title of "The Man with the Rockcrusher Mind" . . . The man was Charles Evans Hughes, and from the great insurance investigation he went on to be governor of N. Y., chief justice of the United States, and, very nearly, in the 1916 elections, the presidency itself.

About the middle of the 1870's, there occurred in Sacramento, California, one of the most dramatic incidents in the history of that great state. . . Frank Rhodes, a big time gambler, controlled Sacramento and too much of the State government. The decent people were more than fed up—and among the decent people was a fine fighting attorney with two teen-age boys, named Grove L. Johnson.

One night Frank Rhodes called a meeting of the big-time politicians and crooks at his gambling house and they all showed up. In the midst of the meeting, in walked Grove L. Johnson and his two boys, all carrying guns. They covered the meeting with their pistols and then Johnson, at pistol point, told them off. He called them dirt beneath his feet, traducers of a great state, crooks and half men. He said they would be cleaned out by the decent people in the end because they would find their leader. . . . Johnson was right. Righter than he knew. As the man and the two boys backed out of the thunderstruck room he did not know that one of the boys beside him was to provide California with its great reform governor and U. S. senator. Also very nearly president. His very own son, Hiram Johnson.

On a hot July night in 1912, Herman Rosenthal was shot down in front of the Hotel Metropole in N. Y. C. . . . A gambler and stool pigeon, he had long been a thorn in the side of crooked Police Lt. Charles Becker. The grafting ring was frightened at Rosenthal's disclosures, and on that fateful night its criminal agents, "Whitey" Lewis, "Gyp the Blood," "Lefty Louis" and "Dago Frank" sent Rosenthal to another world by the pistol shot route. . . . But, unwittingly, by shooting him down, they also sent another man on the way up. Dis't Att'y Charles S. Whitman was elected governor of N. Y. following his conviction of the murderers.

In 1905, the state of Idaho was torn by industrial strife. It ended in the killing of Idaho's governor, Frank Steunenberg, by a bomb. . . The outraged and terrified community looked for — and found —a fearless State Prosecutor. A man of action, he walked into court with three murder indictments in his hand and two air-shooters on his hips. Though the spectacular case ended in an acquittal, due to the brilliant defense of Clarence Darrow — the State Prosecutor, Wm. E. Borrah, was sent on by the people of Idaho to Washington —and the eventual [illegible] of the United States Senate.

There are dozens of incidents in our history confirming the same pattern. . . . The brilliant lawyer who won the government's case against the Teapot Dome [illegible] went on to become Justice Owen Roberts of the United States Supreme Court . . . . The Seabury Investigation revealed the political rackets — and for his conviction of the leaders N. Y. repeatedly elected D. A. Thomas E. Dewey its governor — and his party twice nominated him for the presidency.

This form chart of reward for public service against corruption has the greatest bearing on the presidential sweepstakes in 1952. . . On form, Sen. Kefauver should be the Democratic nominee. . . . However, opposed to this ordinarily easy path to victory at the polls, is the military hero pattern. Washington, Jackson, Harrison and Grant became president via this route, and numerous other warriors received their party nominations . . Thus, if history repeats itself, Eisenhower should be a walk-in for the Republican nomination. But, oddly enough, the politicians of both parties are opposed to the nomination of the candidate who is most likely to bring their party to victory in 1952!

In any event, history works by a reverse process. . . . The interstate gambling ring, inadvertently and unconsciously but nonetheless certainly, raised the chances of Kefauver for President. But the analogy doesn't end there. Corporal Hitler, listening to the bombs wrecking his Berlin bunker, could not know that those same explosions were blasting open the road to the White House for his conqueror, General Eisenhower.

KENNON IS FOR FAIR PROGRAM

Pledges 'Absolute Fairness To The Working Man' Of La.

Kenner, La., Jan. 12.—(Special)—A square deal for the working man and an industrial development program that will "put both labor and management on top" in Louisiana was promised here today by Judge Robert F. Kennon, if he is elected governor.

"Labor is the real backbone of the state and has the biggest stake in this election," Kennon declared, "and when I am elected we will have a policy that will insure absolute fairness to the working man.

"The Kennon program calls for both a reduction in taxes and a reduction in the cost of running the government. With economical and efficient government, and fairness to all, industries with big payrolls won't be afraid to come to Louisiana."

Kennon reiterated his platform, stressing the two-cent gasoline tax reduction, which he said would save every automobile owner in the state a minimum of $20 a year. And he declared again that if he is elected, persons making less than $5,000 a year would be exempt from state income taxes.

Kennon predicted not only that he would be in the runoff but that he would be top man in the election Tuesday, with Bill Dodd and Carlos Spaht fighting it out for second place, and either Hale Boggs or James McLemore in fourth position.

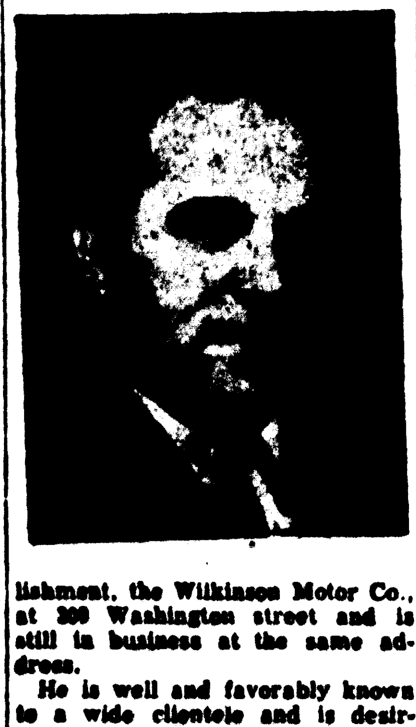
"McLemore has gained some strength in north Louisiana and may beat Boggs out for fourth place," Kennon said.

Judge Kennon also told the Jefferson parish audience that he "wouldn't say for sure that he is going to carry Jefferson, but would be afraid to bet that he wouldn't." Kennon pointed out that he did carry Jefferson in his senatorial race against Russell Long in 1948.

L. O. WILKINSON OUT FOR OFFICE

Well Known Garage Man Candidate For Member Of Police Jury

L. O. (Shorty) Wilkinson, candidate for police jury ward 10, is a well known business man. He came to Monroe in 1925 and was employed by the Monroe Automobile Supply Co., for 10 years.



He then opened his own establishment, the Wilkinson Motor Co., at 300 Washington street and is still in business at the same address.

He is well and favorably known to a wide clientele and is desirous of helping the Twin Cities and Ouachita parish advance. If elected he will work to this end.

He is married and father of two sons who are members of the firm of their father.

Malacca, Malaya —(AP)— Thievery brings stiff penalties in Malaya.

One man recently was sentenced to one year's "rigorous imprisonment" for stealing a fountain pen from a shop.

FARM SQUEEZE CALLED LIKELY

Ransom Declares Prices Will Advance, Receipts Go Down

All signs point to an increasing financial squeeze on farmers, according to A. C. Ransom, secretary-treasurer of the Ouachita Valley National Farm Loan Association.

Mr. Ransom reports that costs of things farmers buy are up 15 to 20 per cent and prices generally received for farm products are lower as compared to a year ago.

The advance in the price of cotton will help farmers to meet the situation, especially the producers who made a good crop, Mr. Ransom stated. But many farmers made a short crop. Most other cash crops— peanuts, sugar cane, rice, sweet potatoes—are short.

The short corn and hay crops, over-grazed, drouth-stricken pastures, and the delay in getting stands of fall-sown winter pastures and grazing crops add to farmers' financing problems.

Non-real estate debts climbed faster during 1950 than in any year since the end of World War I, reached the highest point in 28 years, and doubled in the last year. The farm real estate mortgage debt in the fifth district reached an all-time high.

Short cash crops, short feed crops short pasture, plus a shrinking dollar in return for farm products, and the need for more dollars to buy the same amount of goods make it a real squeeze.

For these reasons, Secretary-treasurer Ransom believes that many farmers may use more long-term credit as a means of meeting the tight financial situation.

If some of the short-term debts can be transferred to a long-time loan on the farm, the interest rate will be lower and the required annual payment will be less. Some of the squeeze can be taken out with a long-term loan.

Mr. Ransom says he will be glad to discuss farm financing with any farmer in need of long-term credit.

LEBLANC HEADS LONG MOTORCADE

Senator Dudley J. LeBlanc headed a nine - mile long motorcade in his home parish of Vermillion and told the audience that by bringing this motorcade to their communities, he was proving to his many friends that his campaign was gathering speed and strength like a snowball rolling down a mountain which ends in an overwhelming avalanche.

LeBlanc said, "this surge towards the people's cause will entirely drown and smother my many opponents. These candidates have been making an effort to mislead the people. If they would see this tremendous gathering I am sure what they have been saying would be considered false. My opponents know that they have to beat me and they have even gone to the extent of copying many of the planks of my platform. But the people of Louisiana will not be misled. They know who has been their sincere friend in the past."

LeBlanc reiterated his pledge to increase the old age pension to $75.00 a month; pay a bonus to veterans of World War I and veterans of the Korean conflict; increase the pay of school teachers, school bus drivers and school janitors; bring industries to Louisiana and provide a college education to children whose parents are unable to give them one, without any additional increase in taxes, or perhaps a decrease of taxes if possible.

The motorcade formed at Erath, then proceeded to Delcambre, Henry, Forked Island, Gueydan, and Kaplan and was climaxed by a big Bar-B-Q in Abbeville, Senator LeBlanc's home town.

Senator LeBlanc and his ticket will speak Sunday at: Milton 9:00 a.m., Youngsville 9:30 a.m., Broussard 10:00 a.m., Mouton Switch 10:30 a.m., Breaxbridge 11:00 a. m., Cecilia 11:30 a.m., Henderson 1:00 p.m. Duson 2:15 p.m., Scott 3:00 p.m., Vatican 3:30 p.m. Carencro 4:00 p.m.

LeBlanc will officially close his stumping tour at Bunkie Sunday night at 6:30 p.m.

Monday night LeBlanc will appear on WDSU — TV at 10:15 p.m.

Mrs. Moore Runs On Boggs Ticket

Mrs. Ellen Moore, candidate for Register of State Land Office on the Hale Boggs' ticket, is the best qualified candidate for the post in the race, Boggs' fifth district campaign headquarters claimed here last night.

A spokesman for Boggs' headquarters said Mrs. Moore, a Baton Rouge resident, is a teacher, successful business - woman and civic leader. She is also a reserve officer in the army and has taught in state schools for 17 years.

A graduate of Louisiana State University, Mrs. Moore, the spokesman said, is the past president of the Pilots International, an active member of the Classroom Teachers Association of Louisiana, the Louisiana Education Association, the National Educational Association and the Parent-Teacher Association.

Mrs. Moore is running on a platform calling for more safeguard of the Democratic way of free thought and expression, of home rule and of states right. She has pledged to do her best in exposing advocates of socialism and communism.

IN MOVIELAND

Hollywood, Jan. 12.—(AP)—American movie fans can expect to see more German actors on the screen and more films about Germany.

German actors and film subjects have been seen in such 20th-Fox movies as "The Big Lift," "The Desert Fox" and "Decision Before Dawn." The studio is now planning "The Steeper Cliff" to be made in Germany with Oskar Werner, the sensational young actor of "Decision Before Dawn." MGM will star Gene Kelly in "The Devil Makes Three," a story of black marketing on the Autobahn. It will be made on the famed highway in Germany.

More studios are expected to follow suit. The reasons go deeper than the search for new and exciting locales and actors. The fact is that the German film market is becoming increasingly more profitable. One producer estimated this week that a top picture will be able to take a million dollars out of Germany.

More German and other European stars will be developed by the Hollywood studios. Experience has proved that an international star list is a good way to insure an international market . . .

One of the most significant film industry moves in recent months: The million-dollar libel suit filed by Stanley Kramer against the organization which has been picketing his picture, "Death of a Salesman." The pickets alleged Communist connections of the film's makers.

This marks the first time that a member of the industry has made a frontal attack on those who sought to boycott a picture. The important factor is that the entire industry is behind Kramer in his battle. Frank Freeman, speaking for the major producers, offered "complete support." So have the independent producers . . .

Warner Brothers seems to be getting its musicals out of the files lately. Recent pictures and the older films they derived from are: "West Point Story" ("Flirtation Walk"), "On Moonlight Bay" ("Penrod and Sam"), "About Face" ("Brother Rat"), "She's Working Her Way Through College" ("The Male Animal") and "Painting the Clouds With Sunshine" (one of the "Golddiggers" series). On the future list are musicalized versions of "Three Men on a Horse" and "Four Daughters" which starred the Lane sisters.

Wonder if the studio will be turning up "The Life of Emile Zola" and "Of Human Bondage." . . .

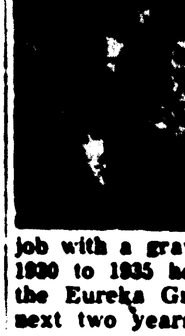
Brrr, it has been a cold winter for movie personalities on Broadway. Many of them were handicapped personally, but their plays got the frigid shoulder from the critics. Among the casualties: Gloria Swanson, Ginger Rogers, Ann Sothern, Robert Cummings, David Niven, Dorothy McGuire . . .

If there were an award for the loudest actor on the screen, it would be a tough race between Kirk Douglas and Broderick Crawford. Also, my nomination for the loudest television show: "Howdy Dowdy." It seems a mistaken notion that you have to shout at kids to hold their attention.

JACK RUSSELL ACTIVE LEADER

Transportation Experience Said To Be An Asset In Race For Police Jury

Jack M. Russell, who for the past 11 years has been engaged in the bus and taxi business in West Monroe, today formally announces that he is a candidate for election to the Ouachita parish police jury in the primary election on January 15.



Born at Calhoun in 1913, Mr. Russell attended the Calhoun High School. He came to West Monroe in 1928 to accept a job with a gravel company. From 1930 to 1935 he was employed at the Eureka Grocery, and for the next two years operated his own grocery store. For the next five years he was a member of the West Monroe police department.

In 1940 he established the Monroe-Sterlington Bus Line, which he is still operating along with the old Stevens Bus Line under the name of Jack's Bus Line. He also operates four taxi companies, the Winnfield Bus Line, Daws Cafe and West Side Motor Company.

"I decided to enter the police jury race," he said, "because I believe I am qualified to render good service to our ward and parish. My experience with transportation has made me highly familiar with the necessity of good roads and their maintenance. At the present time one of my chief aims is to see a great improvement in the Natchitoches street extension to the Brown Paper Mill."

Mr. Russell is chairman of the roads committee of the West Monroe Business Men's Association.

"I want to make it clear," said Mr. Russell, "that I am not lined up with any political group, and if I am elected I will work harmoniously with the other jurors or any other officials.

BLACKOUT BURGLARS

Singapore —(AP)— Blackout problems beset even the burglars here.

The other night they had to work by candlelight to steal two cases of textiles valued at $1,700 from a store. When the lights were noticed and an alarm sounded the thieves had to escape through the back of the store and make off on their waiting bicycles.

BABY PLACING HOME OPERATES

New Orleans Has Institution For Care Of Girls In Need Of Care

Mrs. Catherine B. Healey, social worker with the Protestant Home for Babies, 1219 Eighth street, New Orleans, is in Monroe in connection with her work which is concerned with the placing of babies in good homes where their welfare will be secure.

The home she represents has been a licensed child caring and placement agency, and has conducted an adoption program within the state of Louisiana. Only recently the home has decided to open its establishment to pregnant girls and to accord maternity care during pregnancy and through confinement until discharged.

The home now operates under a provisional license issued by the department of public welfare contingent on the success of the program.

Mrs. Healey states that they are prepared to offer shelter to a limited number of illegitimately pregnant mothers as well as prenatal, delivery and post-natal care through facilities of local hospitals.

Mrs. Healey states that application can be made by those interested direct to her at the New Orleans address and it will be given prompt attention.

Mill Employe Dies Of Injury

Oak Grove, La., Jan. 12.—(Special)—A 34-year-old employe of the International Paper Company of Bastrop died this afternoon from injuries received while working Wednesday.

Roy B. Chunn, of Bastrop, died of a fractured skull caused by a stick of pulp wood, which hit him on the back of his head.

Funeral services will be held in the Bastrop Assembly of God Sunday at 2 p.m. with the Rev. R. Allen, officiating.

Interment will follow in Memorial Cemetery under the direction of Catron-Gay Funeral Home of Oak Grove.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Adalee Chunn, one son, Gary Chunn, a daughter, Patricia Chunn, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Chunn, of Bastrop, one brother, Julis Chunn, of Bastrop and one sister, Mrs. R. L. Heatherley, of Bastrop.

DODSON

Mrs. Bertha Stovall who is connected with the state welfare board located in Winnfield attended the state welfare convention in Baton Rouge the past week. After the convention adjourned she visited with her sister Mrs. Dick Curren of Bay St. Louis, Miss.

Mrs. A. L. Mixon visited with her sister, Mrs. Oren Sholars of Dubach, from Tuesday of last week until Sunday.

Mrs. R. O. Fugler of Tioga visited Mr. and Mrs. Judson Campbell and family Sunday. She also visited with her mother, Mrs. S. F. Campbell who is a patient in the General Hospital in Winnfield.

Mr. and Mrs. George Kern of Lafayette and Mr. and Mrs. I. C. Gentry of Jonesboro were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Terrell and Edan.

Miss Mae Lee of Oak Grove visited her brother, J. K. Lee, and family recently.

Mrs. Lula Emmons is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Bickley in Bastrop this week.

Friends of Lonnie L. Jones of Shreveport but a former resident of Dodson were delighted to hear of his promotion to manager of the Shreveport branch office of the New York Life Insurance Company. Mr. Jones was formerly the manager of the Birmingham office but replaces Robert W. Campbell who will be the head of the New York office.

Mrs. Floyd Taylor returned home recently after a visit in San Diego, Calif., with her daughter, Mrs. Harvey Moore and family.

Mrs. C. R. Waters had the following members of her family visiting with her on New Year's day, Mr. and Mrs. Lamar Waters and family, Lamar, Jr., and Helen, Mrs. Roy L. Barton and children, Flora Lee, Myrna Rae, Roy and Connie Faye, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Magee and sons, Jarlon and Lamar, all of Alexandria; Winifred M. Terrell and son, Chester, of Shreveport; Mrs. Arah Terrell Guillary and son, Terrell Guillary of Waco, Tex., and her father, W. B. Terrell, of Arcadia.

strength undetermined and Sen. R. A. Taft (Rep.-Ohio) in the lead because the Taft workers have several months start and the Lodge maneuver will spur them. But, of the record of previous conventions, Taft will have to win quickly or Eisenhower will move in.

What Taft forces fear in something like the sweep which developed for Wendell Willkie in 1940, which was far greater than experienced political leaders calculated. Willkie of course had campaigned actively, but he did not have enough time to get around much before the Philadelphia convention that year and the enthusiasm for him was mostly spontaneous, kept alive by packed galleries in the convention hall.

Republicans for Taft are annoyed that the general won't "come back and fight." They point out that the first phase of his work in organizing NATO forces in Europe is done, that he has a highly qualified man—Lieut. Gen. Alfred M. Gruenther—ready to step into his shoes and that as things now stand, he will be so beset by Americans flying to Europe to talk politics with him that he will not be able to devote more than half his time to military duties.

When he gives up that command, he will revert to his status as a retired five star general and to the presidency of Columbia University and can make speeches and campaign to his heart's content, just as General Douglas MacArthur can if he so desires. He would also continue to receive his annual pay and allowances of $13,761 plus a "perennial money allowance" of $5,000 a year. That total of $18,761 goes with his rank, and the only way he can lose it is to resign his commission.

When you cook a pound of dried prunes you will find that it makes about twelve one-half cup servings.

'HOSPITAL' RESTORES RARE BOOKS

Rome—(AP)—A fast-building "book hospital" in Rome is attracting "precious patients" from all over the world.

The hospital is "The Institute of Book Pathology". The patients are ancient and rare books and parchments which have suffered accidents or are threatened by destructive book bacteria.

Mostly the damage to previous stores of old books and records in Italy during the war has been responsible for the growth of the institute, officials said. Many of the ancient documents saved from the Abbey of Monte Cassino were restored there.

The institute, founded in 1938, now boasts the most modern equipment. It can duplicate the parchment, the ink and [illegible] drying processes of [illegible]

It has photoelectric equipment [illegible] detect "internal diseases" in books —the destructive bugs which in time could reduce a treasured volume to shreds. There is also a "gas chamber"—to destroy these book vermin.

Kep, Cambodia, Indo-China —(AP) — This little seaside resort along the Gulf of Siam has become a favorite recreation spot for the nearly 500 Americans doing jobs for the American government in Indo-China.

Kep, a beautiful spot beside the sea, has one clean and comfortable hotel called "The Bungalow." Shellfish and seafood appear at every meal and there's an abundance of venison steaks. Rooms run from $4 to $5 per day.

Voters of Ward 10

In asking your vote and support to elect me as one of the three Police Jurors on January 15th, I make you but one promise; to work faithfully and honestly for the constant improvement of Ward 10 and Ouachita Parish and to give full cooperation to my fellow Jurors whoever they may be.

L. O. "Shorty" Wilkinson

To those of you I have been unable to contact personally, I take this means to ask your vote.

The statement below is being made (and paid for) by friends of James McLemore in answer to recent implications in the New Orleans Item regarding the ability and integrity of James McLemore.

We, the undersigned citizens of Alexandria and Central Louisiana, having known Gubernatorial Candidate, Jim McLemore, for many years, and being in a position to testify to his honesty, integrity, and record as a community, business and civic leader, ask you not to be mislead by any last-minute attempts made by his opponents in a desperate effort to stop a definite trend in his direction. The fact, that he has made an honest success in his business dealings, which have always been open and above board, is more reason why you are assured that he will be a business success in handling the affairs of the state in an honorable manner.

We are proud to be Jim McLemore's neighbors and friends. We recommend him to the citizenry of the State of Louisiana as the outstanding candidate for Governor.

Gangs, Graft & Governors

Any gang of public plunderers operating over a period of time is storing up a tremendous political fortune. Not for themselves—but for the men who eventually send them to jail . . . Crime doesn't pay—for the criminal—but it certainly pays off for the public servants who bring them to bay . . . History proves that when thieves fall out, not only do all honest men get their due, but a few get a great deal of publicity, which skyrockets them to fame and fortune.

For instance, early in 1871, three scoundrels had a quarrel in N. Y. C. They were ex-Sheriff O'Brien, Controller Connolly and Boss Tweed . . . O'Brien's revenge consisted of turning over Connolly's records to the N. Y. Times. Tweed promptly offered George Jones, the editor, 5 million dollars not to publish them. The Times ran the headline, of course, and simultaneously the decline of Tweed and the spectacular rise of two other men started.

One was a young cartoonist named Thomas Nast, who created the Tammany Tiger with his pen . . . Tweed offered Nast a half million dollars to stop drawing, but Nast was already out of hearing—halfway up the ladder of success to his final destination, the pinnacle of journalistic immortality . . . The man who pinned the prison stripes on Tweed's dirty shirt was Samuel J. Tilden of Gramercy Park. As a result of his attacks on the Tweed ring, New York elected him governor in 1874 and the people elected him president in 1876—but he was robbed of the latter . . . In any event, the fallen body of Tweed was the stepping stone for Tilden's career.

About the turn of the Century, the very best names in New York were engaged in a very bitter fight for control of one of its very best assets — a large insurance company. The quarreling behind the closed Wall Street doors became loud enough to reach the sensitive ears of Joseph Pulitzer in Park Row. The charges and counter-charges between the battling financial moguls convinced Pulitzer that the forgotten men were the policy holders—the little people who paid the premiums.

Something more than a mere legislative inquiry was needed. A thorough, honest, mathematically and legally trained examiner . . . As an additional qualification, he could not be connected with the Society and Wall Street world, because the interests he was to attack were the very citadel of both . . . The man was found. His careful, cold analysis resulted in the great insurance reforms. The inquiry earned for him the title of "The Man with the Rockcrusher Mind" . . . The man was Charles Evans Hughes, and from the great insurance investigation he went on to be governor of N. Y., chief justice of the United States, and, very nearly, in the 1916 elections, the presidency itself.

About the middle of the 1870's, there occurred in Sacramento, California, one of the most dramatic incidents in the history of that great state. . . Frank Rhodes, a big time gambler, controlled Sacramento and too much of the State government. The decent people were more than fed up—and among the decent people was a fine fighting attorney with two teen-age boys, named Grove L. Johnson.

One night Frank Rhodes called a meeting of the big-time politicians and crooks at his gambling house and they all showed up. In the midst of the meeting, in walked Grove L. Johnson and his two boys, all carrying guns. They covered the meeting with their pistols and then Johnson, at pistol point, told them off. He called them dirt beneath his feet, traducers of a great state, crooks and half men. He said they would be cleaned out by the decent people in the end because they would find their leader. . . . Johnson was right. Righter than he knew. As the man and the two boys backed out of the thunderstruck room he did not know that one of the boys beside him was to provide California with its great reform governor and U. S. senator. Also very nearly president. His very own son, Hiram Johnson.

On a hot July night in 1912, Herman Rosenthal was shot down in front of the Hotel Metropole in N. Y. C. . . . A gambler and stool pigeon, he had long been a thorn in the side of crooked Police Lt. Charles Becker. The grafting ring was frightened at Rosenthal's disclosures, and on that fateful night its criminal agents, "Whitey" Lewis, "Gyp the Blood," "Lefty Louis" and "Dago Frank" sent Rosenthal to another world by the pistol shot route. . . . But, unwittingly, by shooting him down, they also sent another man on the way up. Dis't Att'y Charles S. Whitman was elected governor of N. Y. following his conviction of the murderers.

In 1905, the state of Idaho was torn by industrial strife. It ended in the killing of Idaho's governor, Frank Steunenberg, by a bomb. . . The outraged and terrified community looked for — and found —a fearless State Prosecutor. A man of action, he walked into court with three murder indictments in his hand and two six-shooters on his hips. Though the spectacular case ended in an acquittal, due to the brilliant defense of Clarence Darrow — the State Prosecutor, Wm. E. Borrah, was sent on by the people of Idaho to Washington —and the eventual command of the United States Senate.

There are dozens of incidents in our history duplicating the same pattern. . . . The brilliant lawyer who won the government's case against the Teapot Dome leases went on to become Justice Owen Roberts of the United States Supreme Court . . . . The Seabury Investigation revealed the political rackets — and for his conviction of the leaders N. Y. repeatedly elected D. A. Thomas E. Dewey its governor — and his party twice nominated him for the presidency.

This form chart of reward for public service against corruption has the grestest bearing on the presidential sweepstakes in 1952. . . On form, Sen. Kefauver should be the Democratic nominee. . . . However, opposed to this ordinarily easy path to victory at the polls, is the military hero pattern. Washington, Jackson, Harrison and Grant became president via this route, and numerous other warriors received their party nominations . . Thus, if history repeats itself, Eisenhower should be a walk-in for the Republican nomination. But, oddly enough, the politicians of both parties are opposed to the nomination of the candidate who is most likely to bring their party to victory in 1952!

In any event, history works by a reverse process. . . . The interstate gambling ring, inadvertently and unconsciously but nonetheless certainly, raised the chances of Kefauver for President. But the analogy doesn't end there. Corporal Hitler, listening to the bombs wrecking his Berlin bunker, could not know that those same explosions were blasting open the road to the White House for his conqueror, General Eisenhower.

KENNON IS FOR FAIR PROGRAM

Pledges 'Absolute Fairness To The Working Man' Of La.

Kenner, La., Jan. 12.—(Special) —A square deal for the working man and an industrial development program that will "put both labor and management on top" in Louisiana was promised here today by Judge Robert F. Kennon, if he is elected governor.

"Labor is the real backbone of the state and has the biggest stake in this election," Kennon declared, "and when I am elected we will have a policy that will insure absolute fairness to the working man.

"The Kennon program calls for both a reduction in taxes and a reduction in the cost of running the government. With economical and efficient government, and fairness to all, industries with big payrolls won't be afraid to come to Louisiana."

Kennon reiterated his platform, stressing the two-cent gasoline tax reduction, which he said would save every automobile owner in the state a minimum of $20 a year. And he declared again that if he is elected, persons making less than $5,000 a year would be exempt from state income taxes.

Kennon predicted not only that he would be in the runoff but that he would be top man in the election Tuesday, with Bill Dodd and Carlos Spaht fighting it out for second place, and either Hale Boggs or James McLemore in fourth position.

"McLemore has gained some strength in north Louisiana and may beat Boggs out for fourth place," Kennon said.

Judge Kennon also told the Jefferson parish audience that he "wouldn't say for sure that he is going to carry Jefferson, but would be afraid to bet that he wouldn't." Kennon pointed out that he did carry Jefferson in his senatorial race against Russell Long in 1948.

L. O. WILKINSON OUT FOR OFFICE

Well Known Garage Man Candidate For Member Of Police Jury

L. O. (Shorty) Wilkinson, candidate for police jury ward 10, is a well known business man. He came to Monroe in 1925 and was employed by the Monroe Automobile Supply Co., for 10 years.

He then opened his own establishment, the Wilkinson Motor Co., at 309 Washington street and is still in business at the same address.

He is well and favorably known to a wide clientele and is desirous of helping the Twin Cities and Ouachita parish advance. If elected he will work to this end.

He is married and father of two sons who are members of the firm of their father.

One man recently was sentenced to one year's "rigorous imprisonment" for stealing a fountain pen from a shop.

FARM SQUEEZE CALLED LIKELY

Ransom Declares Prices Will Advance, Receipts Go Down

All signs point to an increasing financial squeeze on farmers, according to A. C. Ransom, secretary-treasurer of the Ouachita Valley National Farm Loan Association.

Mr. Ransom reports that costs of things farmers buy are up 15 to 20 per cent and prices generally received for farm products are lower as compared to a year ago.

The advance in the price of cotton will help farmers to meet the situation, especially the producers who made a good crop, Mr. Ransom stated. But many farmers made a short crop. Most other cash crops— peanuts, sugar cane, rice, sweet potatoes—are short.

The short corn and hay crops, over-grazed, drouth-stricken pastures, and the delay in getting stands of fall-sown winter pastures and grazing crops add to farmers' financing problems.

Non-real estate debts climbed faster during 1950 than in any year since the end of World War I, reached the highest point in 28 years, and doubled in the last year. The farm real estate mortgage debt in the fifth district reached an all-time high.

Short cash crops, short feed crops short pasture, plus a shrinking dollar in return for farm products, and the need for more dollars to buy the same amount of goods make it a real squeeze.

For these reasons, Secretary-treasurer Ransom believes that many farmers may use more long-term credit as a means of meeting the tight financial situation.

If some of the short-term debts can be transferred to a long-time loan on the farm, the interest rate will be lower and the required annual payment will be less. Some of the squeeze can be taken out with a long-term loan.

Mr. Ransom says he will be glad to discuss farm financing with any farmer in need of long-term credit.

LEBLANC HEADS LONG MOTORCADE

Senator Dudley J. LeBlanc headed a nine - mile long motorcade in his home parish of Vermillion and told the audience that by bringing this motorcade to their communities, he was proving to his many friends that his campaign was gathering speed and strength like a snowball rolling down a mountain which ends in an overwhelming avalanche.

LeBlanc said, "this surge towards the people's cause will entirely drown and smother my many opponents. These candidates have been making an effort to mislead the people. If they would see this tremendous gathering I am sure what they have been saying would be considered false. My opponents know that they have to beat me and they have even gone to the extent of copying many of the planks of my platform. But the people of Louisiana will not be misled. They know who has been their sincere friend in the past."

LeBlanc reiterated his pledge to increase the old age pension to $75.00 a month; pay a bonus to veterans of World War I and veterans of the Korean conflict; increase the pay of school teachers, school bus drivers and school janitors; bring industries to Louisiana and provide a college education to children whose parents are unable to give them one, without any additional increase in taxes, or perhaps a decrease of taxes if possible.

The motorcade formed at Erath, then proceeded to Delcambre, Henry, Forked Island, Gueydan, and Kaplan and was climaxed by a big Bar-B-Q in Abbeville, Senator LeBlanc's home town.

Senator LeBlanc and his ticket will speak Sunday at: Mitlon 9:00 a.m., Youngsville 9:30 a.m., Broussard 10:00 a.m., Mouton Switch 10:30 a.m., Breaxbridge 11:00 a. m., Cecilia 11:30 a.m., Henderson 1:00 p.m., Duson 2:15 p.m., Scott 3:00 p.m., Vatican 3:30 p.m. Carencro 4:00 p.m.

LeBlanc will officially close his stumping tour at Bunkie Sunday night at 6:30 p.m.

Monday night LeBlanc will appear on WDSU — TV at 10:15 p.m.

Mrs. Moore Runs On Boggs Ticket

Mrs. Ellen Moore, candidate for Register of State Land Office on the Hale Boggs' ticket, is the best qualified candidate for the post in the race, Boggs' fifth district campaign headquarters claimed here last night.

A spokesman for Boggs' headquarters said Mrs. Moore, a Baton Rouge resident, is a teacher, successful business - woman and civic leader. She is also a reserve officer in the army and has taught in state schools for 17 years.

A graduate of Louisiana State University, Mrs. Moore, the spokesman said, is the past president of the Pilots International, an active member of the Classroom Teachers Association of Louisiana, the Louisiana Education Association, the National Educational Association and the Parent-Teacher Association.

Mrs. Moore is running on a platform calling for more safeguard of the Democratic way of free thought and expression, of home rule and of states right. She has pledged to do her best in exposing advocates of socialism and communism.

Bob Thomas

IN MOVIELAND

Hollywood, Jan. 12.—(AP)—American movie fans can expect to see more German actors on the screen and more films about Germany.

German actors and film subjects have been seen in such 20th-Fox movies as "The Big Lift," "The Desert Fox" and "Decision Before Dawn." The studio is now planning "The Steeper Cliff" to be made in Germany with Oskar Werner, the sensational young actor of "Decision Before Dawn." MGM will star Gene Kelly in "The Devil Makes Three," a story of black marketing on the Autobahn. It will be made on the famed highway in Germany.

More studios are expected to follow suit. The reasons go deeper than the search for new and exciting locales and actors. The fact is that the German film market is becoming increasingly more profitable. One producer estimated this week that a top picture will be able to take a million dollars out of Germany.

More German and other European stars will be developed by the Hollywood studios. Experience has proved that an international star list is a good way to insure an international market . . .

One of the most significant film industry moves in recent months: The million-dollar libel suit filed by Stanley Kramer against the organization which has been picketing his picture, "Death of a Salesman." The pickets alleged Communist connections of the film's makers.

This marks the first time that a member of the industry has made a frontal attack on those who sought to boycott a picture. The important factor is that the entire industry is behind Kramer in his battle. Frank Freeman, speaking for the major producers, offered "complete support." So have the independent producers . . .

Warner Brothers seems to be getting its musicals out of the files lately. Recent pictures and the older films they derived from are: "West Point Story" ("Flirtation Walk"), "On Moonlight Bay" ("Penrod and Sam"), "About Face" ("Brother Rat"), "She's Working Her Way Through College" ("The Male Animal") and "Painting the Clouds With Sunshine" (one of the "Golddiggers" series). On the future list are musicalized versions of "Three Men on a Horse" and "Four Daughters" which starred the Lane sisters.

Wonder if the studio will be turning up "The Life of Emile Zola" and "Of Human Bondage." . . .

Brrr, it has been a cold winter for movie personalities on Broadway. Many of them were handicapped personally, but their plays got the frigid shoulder from the critics. Among the casualties: Gloria Swanson, Ginger Rogers, Ann Sothern, Robert Cummings, David Niven, Dorothy McGuire . . .

If there were an award for the loudest actor on the screen, it would be a tough race between Kirk Douglas and Broderick Crawford. Also, my nomination for the loudest television show: "Howdy Dowdy." It seems a mistaken notion that you have to shout at kids to hold their attention.

JACK RUSSELL ACTIVE LEADER

Transportation Experience Said To Be An Asset In Race For Police Jury

Jack M. Russell, who for the past 11 years has been engaged in the bus and taxi business in West Monroe, today formally announces that he is a candidate for election to the Ouachita parish police jury in the primary election on January 15.

Born at Calhoun in 1912, Mr. Russell attended the Calhoun High School. He came to West Monroe in 1926 to accept a job with a gravel company. From 1930 to 1935 he was employed at the Eureka Grocery, and for the next two years operated his own grocery store. For the next five years he was a member of the West Monroe police department.

In 1940 he established the Monroe-Sterlington Bus Line, which he is still operating along with the old Stevens Bus Line under the name of Jack's Bus Line. He also operates four taxi companies, the Winnfield Bus Line, Daws Cafe and West Side Motor Company.

"I decided to enter the police jury race," he said, "because I believe I am qualified to render good service to our ward and parish. My experience with transportation has made me highly familiar with the necessity of good roads and their maintenance. At the present time one of my chief aims is to see a great improvement in the Natchitoches street extension to the Brown Paper Mill."

Mr. Russell is chairman of the roads committee of the West Monroe Business Men's Association.

"I want to make it clear," said Mr. Russell, "that I am not lined up with any political group, and if I am elected I will work harmoniously with the other jurors or any other officials.

BLACKOUT BURGLARS

Singapore —(AP)— Blackout problems beset even the burglars here.

The other night they had to work by candlelight to steal two cases of textiles valued at $1,700 from a store. When the lights were noticed and an alarm sounded the thieves had to escape through the back of the store and make off on their waiting bicycles.

BABY PLACING HOME OPERATES

New Orleans Has Institution For Care Of Girls In Need Of Care

Mrs. Catherine B. Healey, social worker with the Protestant Home for Babies, 1219 Eighth street, New Orleans, is in Monroe in connection with her work which is concerned with the placing of babies in good homes where their welfare will be secure.

The home she represents has been a licensed child caring and placement agency, and has conducted an adoption program within the state of Louisiana. Only recently the home has decided to open its establishment to pregnant girls and to accord maternity care during pregnancy and through confinement until discharged.

The home now operates under a provisional license issued by the department of public welfare contingent on the success of the program.

Mrs. Healey states that they are prepared to offer shelter to a limited number of illegitimately pregnant mothers as well as prenatal, delivery and post-natal care through facilities of local hospitals.

Mrs. Healey states that application can be made by those interested direct to her at the New Orleans address and it will be given prompt attention.

Mill Employe Dies Of Injury

Oak Grove, La., Jan. 12.—(Special)—A 34-year-old employe of the International Paper Company of Bastrop died this afternoon from injuries received while working Wednesday.

Roy B. Chunn, of Bastrop, died of a fractured skull caused by a stick of pulp wood, which hit him on the back of his head.

Funeral services will be held in the Bastrop Assembly of God Sunday at 2 p.m. with the Rev. R. Allen, officiating.

Interment will follow in Memorial Cemetery under the direction of Catron-Gay Funeral Home of Oak Grove.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Adalee Chunn, one son, Gary Chunn, a daughter, Patricia Chunn, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Chunn, of Bastrop, one brother, Julis Chunn, of Bastrop and one sister, Mrs. R. L. Heatherley, of Bastrop.

DODSON

Mrs. Bertha Stovall who is connected with the state welfare board located in Winnfield attended the state welfare convention in Baton Rouge the past week. After the convention adjourned she visited with her sister Mrs. Dick Curren of Bay St. Louis, Miss.

Mrs. A. L. Mixon visited with her sister, Mrs. Oren Sholars of Dubach, from Tuesday of last week until Sunday.

Mrs. R. O. Fugler of Tioga visited Mr. and Mrs. Judson Campbell and family Sunday. She also visited with her mother, Mrs. S. F. Campbell who is a patient in the General Hospital in Winnfield.

Mr. and Mrs. George Kern of Lafayette and Mr. and Mrs. I. C. Gentry of Jonesboro were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Terrell and Edan.

Miss Mae Lee of Oak Grove visited her brother, J. K. Lee, and family recently.

Mrs. Lula Emmons is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Bickley in Bastrop this week.

Friends of Lonnie L. Jones of Shreveport but a former resident of Dodson were delighted to hear of his promotion to manager of the Shreveport branch office of the New York Life Insurance Company. Mr. Jones was formerly the manager of the Birmingham office but replaces Robert W. Campbell who will be the head of the New York office.

strength undetermined and Sen. R. A. Taft (Rep.-Ohio) in the lead because the Taft workers have several months start and the Lodge maneuver will spur them. But, of the record of previous conventions, Taft will have to win quickly or Eisenhower will move in.

What Taft forces fear in something like the sweep which developed for Wendell Willkie in 1940, which was far greater than experienced political leaders calculated. Willkie of course had campaigned actively, but he did not have enough time to get around much before the Philadelphia convention that year and the enthusiasm for him was mostly spontaneous, kept alive by packed galleries in the convention hall.

Republicans for Taft are annoyed that the general won't "come back and fight." They point out that the first phase of his work in organizing NATO forces in Europe is done, that he has a highly qualified man—Lieut. Gen. Alfred M. Gruenther—ready to step into his shoes and that as things now stand, he will be so beset by Americans flying to Europe to talk politics with him that he will not be able to devote more than half his time to military duties.

When he gives up that command, he will revert to his status as a retired five star general and to the presidency of Columbia University and can make speeches and campaign to his heart's content, just as General Douglas MacArthur can if he so desires. He would also continue to receive his annual pay and allowances of $13,761 plus a "perennial money allowance" of $5,000 a year. That total of $18,761 goes with his rank, and the only way he can lose it is to resign his commission.

When you cook a pound of dried prunes you will find that it makes about twelve one-half cup servings.

'HOSPITAL' RESTORES RARE BOOKS

Rome—(AP)—A fast-building "book hospital" in Rome is attracting "precious patients" from all over the world.

The hospital is "The Institute of Book Pathology". The patients are ancient and rare books and parchments which have suffered accidents or are threatened by destructive book bacteria.

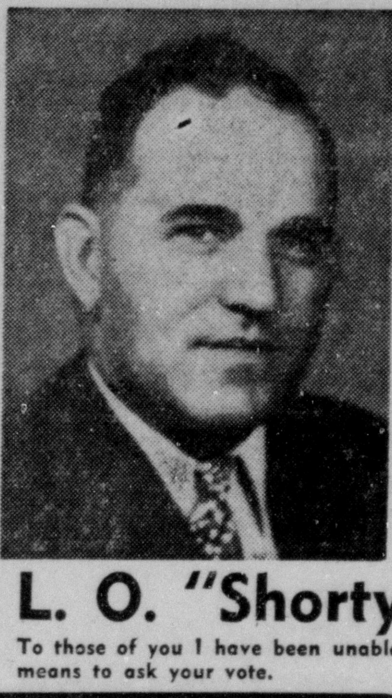
Mostly the damage to previous stores of old books and records in Italy during the war has been responsible for the growth of the institute, officials said. Many of the ancient documents saved from the Abbey of Monte Cassino were restored there.

The institute, founded in 1938, now boasts the most modern equipment. It can duplicate the parchment, the ink and printing and drying processes of centuries ago.

It has photoelectric equipment to detect "internal diseases" in books —the destructive bugs which in time could reduce a treasured volume to shreds. There is also a "gas chamber"—to destroy these book vermin.

Kep, Cambodia, Inco-China —(AP) — This little seaside resort along the Gulf of Siam has become a favorite recreation spot for the nearly 500 Americans doing jobs for the American government in Indo-China.

Kep, a beautiful spot beside the sea, has one clean and comfortable hotel called "The Bungalow." Shellfish and seafood appear at every meal and there's an abundance of venison steaks. Rooms run from $4 to $5 per day.



Voters of Ward 10

In asking your vote and support to elect me as one of the three Police Jurors on January 15th, I make you but one promise; to work faithfully and honestly for the constant improvement of Ward 10 and Ouachita Parish and to give full cooperation to my fellow Jurors whoever they may be.

L. O. "Shorty" Wilkinson

To those of you I have been unable to contact personally, I take this means to ask your vote.

The statement below is being made (and paid for) by friends of James McLemore in answer to recent implications in the New Orleans Item regarding the ability and integrity of James McLemore.

We, the undersigned citizens of Alexandria and Central Louisiana, having known Gubernatorial Candidate, Jim McLemore, for many years, and being in a position to testify to his honesty, integrity, and record as a community, business and civic leader, ask you not to be mislead by any last-minute attempts made by his opponents in a desperate effort to stop a definite trend in his direction. The fact, that he has made an honest success in his business dealings, which have always been open and above board, is more reason why you are assured that he will be a business success in handling the affairs of the state in an honorable manner.

We are proud to be Jim McLemore's neighbors and friends. We recommend him to the citizenry of the State of Louisiana as the outstanding candidate for Governor.

McLemore Promises More Home Rule To La. Cities

Gubernatorial candidate James McLemore yesterday told the Louisiana Municipal Association he would like to give the cities and towns of the state "more home rule than they asked for" in a questionnaire.

"I would prefer and shall recommend that the cities be permitted to collect their own tobacco or other taxes without having to depend on the state," McLemore said in a letter to Mayor Clyde E. Fant of Shreveport, president of the Municipal Association.

The Alexandria candidate's statement was in reply to a questionnaire asking gubernatorial aspirants whether they would (1) favor a continuation of the principle of allowing cities to share in state taxes; (2) whether they would favor basing the cities' per capita allotment from the state cigarette tax on a 1950 population basis instead of that of 1940, as at present; and (3; whether they would favor doubling the per capita allotment.

"In principle I can give an affirmative answer to all three of your questions," McLemore wrote, adding that, in practice, he would prefer to give the municipalities complete home rule by allowing them to collect their own taxes.

"The politicians at Baton Rouge have pretty well tangled up Louisiana's economic scheme, and the solution to the mess they have made will, of course, require a thorough review of the whole tax structure.

"I am pledged to a program of tax reduction and economy in government which will involve a somewhat scientific study of the revenue needs of our cities and the state as a whole.

McLemore quoted the "home rule plank from his platform as follows:

"Assist towns and cities to conduct their affairs by assuring them a fair share of tax revenues without sacrifice of their independence and integrity. Government is an instrument of the people, and governing their local affairs is the right of all voters."

Continuing, McLemore said:

"The state and federal governments have pretty well prempted the entire field of taxation, leaving the cities and towns with only scant and insufficient sources of income. This is a situation which I, as governor, will endeavor to correct."

McLemore explained that his reply to the questionnaire was delayed because of "the strenuous campaign I am now waging for better government in Louisiana, and the need for a more thorough study of our tax problems—both federal and state."

McLemore Promises More Home Rule To La. Cities

Gubernatorial candidate James McLemore yesterday told the Louisiana Municipal Association he would like to give the cities and towns of the state "more home rule than they asked for" in a questionnaire.

"I would prefer and shall recommend that the cities be permitted to collect their own tobacco or other taxes without having to depend on the state," McLemore said in a letter to Mayor Clyde E. Fant of Shreveport, president of the Municipal Association.

The Alexandria candidate's statement was in reply to a questionnaire asking gubernatorial aspirants whether they would (1) favor a continuation of the principle of allowing cities to share in state taxes; (2) whether they would favor basing the cities' per capita allotment from the state cigarette tax on a 1950 population basis instead of that of 1940, as at present; and (3; whether they would favor doubling the per capita allotment.

"In principle I can give an affirmative answer to all three of your questions," McLemore wrote, adding that, in practice, he would prefer to give the municipalities complete home rule by allowing them to collect their own taxes.

"The politicians at Baton Rouge have pretty well tangled up Louisiana's economic scheme, and the solution to the mess they have made will, of course, require a thorough review of the whole tax structure.

"I am pledged to a program of tax reduction and economy in government which will involve a somewhat scientific study of the revenue needs of our cities and the state as a whole.

McLemore quoted the "home rule plank from his platform as follows:

"Assist towns and cities to conduct their affairs by assuring them a fair share of tax revenues without sacrifice of their independence and integrity. Government is an instrument of the people, and governing their local affairs is the right of all voters."

Continuing, McLemore said:

"The state and federal governments have pretty well prempted the entire field of taxation, leaving the cities and towns with only scant and insufficient sources of income. This is a situation which I, as governor, will endeavor to correct."

McLemore explained that his reply to the questionnaire was delayed because of "the strenuous campaign I am now waging for better government in Louisiana, and the need for a more thorough study of our tax problems—both federal and state."

Bachelor of science in education—Laverne C. Williams.

Bachelor of science in home economics—Helen Nelson Wommack.

CANDIDATE

Dudley Seamans, candidate for state senator from the parishes of West Carroll and Morehouse, composing the 29th senatorial district, said here yesterday that his platform was "to work for the people."

Seamans, who served as West Carrol representative in the regular session of the legislature 1948-50, stated that he was the only independent candidate in the race and that he had no political backing what so ever.

The candidate listed as his achievements in the legislature the following bills: co-author of the bill to raise the un-employment compensation from $18 to $25 a month, co-author of the "so-called" free lunch program; author of the bill to appropriate $150,000 for a memorial trade school in Oak Grove, which is in full operation at the present time; co-author of the old age pension bill.

Seamans stated that if elected he would support an increase in the old age pension, if it could be done without raising taxes, and see that the free lunch program was made "free" again.

"I am not in favor of any more taxes," said Seamans.

If you want to heat crusty rolls put them in a brown paper bag, fasten down the top of the bag, and place them in a moderately hot oven for about ten minutes.

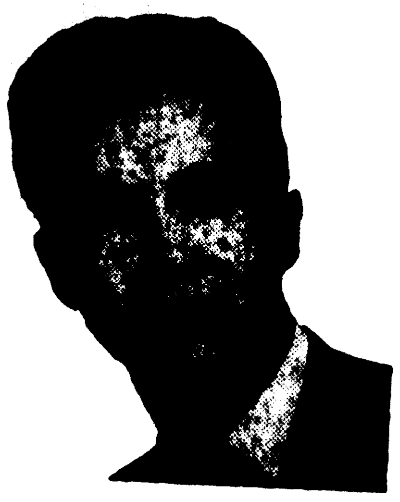
RECORD GOOD



In a statewide compilation of the records of state representatives, votes cast by these solons on important state questions were shown. Representative Shady Wall of Ouachita Parish was listed among the group and, for the benefit of voters, the following quotation from the report is given: "Shady Wall—Signed and kept civil service pledge. Voted against tobacco, gas and beer taxes and for sales and severance taxes. Voted against Earl Long rigged constitutional convention plan." Sales taxes are being used for old age assistance and severance taxes are being used chiefly to pay increased salaries of teachers and for educational improvement.

GLOBAL STUDY BEING PLANNED

Missions Of World To Be Studied By Presbyterian Women

The Presbyterian Church of Monroe at Catalpa and Grammont streets, will hold an all day world mission study for the women of the church on Thursday January 17. This is a part of the mission study period held each year in January.

Circles will meet in their regular groups at 9:30 for the transaction of routine business. At 10:00 they will assemble for Bible study of the 9th commandment taught by Mrs. Jack Fouchea. At 10:30 Miss Meta Biggar, a missionary from Soonchun, Korea, now on leave in the U. S., will speak to the group about the Korean people and her evangelistic work with them over a period of many years. She is a native of Kansas. Neighboring churches are invited to join the Monroe Church in this day of fellowship and study with Miss Biggar.

This year the interdenominational topic for mission study among the adult groups is Latin America. Books for general reading are "We Americans, North and South" and "He Wears Orchids."

A covered dish luncheon will be served at 12:00 in Fellowship Hall.

Cream puddings, cream pies, and cream puffs should be refrigerated as soon as they are prepared. Do not remove from the refrigerator until they are to be served.

CANDIDATE

C. S. Causey, above, is a candidate for re-election to the Ouachita parish jury from ward three.

SPARE TIME ENGLISH TEACHER

Saigon, Indo-China.—AP—Pretty, tall, blonde Miss Juanita Nutt, formerly an English instructor in a suburban high school near Springfield, Ill., is still teaching — in her spare time.

She holds class in Saigon about once a week for a group of bright Vietnamese youngsters who are trying to learn English.

Miss Nutt does the job for the U. S. information service. Her regular job is general clerk in the American Legation in Indo-China. She gave up high school teaching about two years ago to join the American foreign service.

WOODLAWN HAS REGULAR MEET

P.-T. A. Group Has Session; Program Given By Grade Four

The Woodlawn P.-T. A. held its regular meeting January 10 with Mrs. C. F. Hebert, vice-president, presiding.

During the business session each was asked to aid in some money raising project to thus be able to purchase a coffee urn for the group.

Yearbooks made by Mrs. Pierec and Miss Louise Griggs were complimented. A nominating committee was named to function before the election of next year's officers.

F. O. Seymour, principal speaker, discussed furthering personality development in children and youth.

Members of grade six, U. C. Cockrell, teacher, presented a program in which the following participated: Mary Allen, Curtis Bamburg, Harry Barfoot, Evelyn Beavers, Harold Blakeney, Mary Ann Brown, Algie Futch, Georgia Honeycutt, Hix Landrum, Dorothy Lovelady, Betty Lou Mathis, Maudie Miller, Genece Pepper, Patsy Rogers, Rodger Rutledge, Cecil Saterfield, Barbara Smith.

The Calhoun P.-T. A. invited members of the Woodlawn P.-T. A. to attend its study course Jan. 4 to 18 at 7 p. m.

The room count was won by Mrs. J. Gaster's fourth grade. Refreshments were served by a committee of fourth grade mothers.

LAWRENCE PETTIT

Lawrence B. Pettit, well known Monroe businessman, candidate for police juror from Ward 3, said today that his interest in seeking the position was to see "fair and honest government prevail."

Pettit who is vice-president of the Southern Lumber and Box Company, Jackson street, asserted that he would attempt to institute in Ward 3 benefits which could be rendered by the police jury. "Streets in my ward which need repairing and also those which need to be paved will have my direct attention along with the drainage program," said Pettit.

Pettit, who has resided in Ouachita parish for 27 years, is a deacon in the First Baptist Church, president of the Kiwanis Club, president of the trustee board for the Louisiana Baptist Children's Home, member of the Ouachita parish welfare board and civil defense director for the city of Monroe.

He resides at 109 Filer street and is the father of four children.

POLICE OFFICERS [illegible]

Kuala Lumpur, Malaya, [illegible] Two police officers have been sentenced to brief prison terms for applying third degree methods to obtain information from a suspected bandit sympathizer.

The assistant superintendent of police received one month rigorous imprisonment and $17 fine, while a detective sergeant was sentenced to a day in prison.

Victim of the alleged beatings by the police is a 19-year-old youth who told the court that police took him to a quarry in Pahang. They then struck him several times and fired several shots from a revolver to intimidate him, he said.

Candidate for Governor JUDGE ROBERT F. KENNON

Scholar Jurist Soldier Statesman

Follow the career of this able man and you have living proof of his capacity to serve you as your governor. The experience which he has gained as Mayor, District Attorney, Combat Officer in World War II, Judge of the Court of Appeal and Justice of the Supreme Court of Louisiana amply qualify him—more than any other candidate—to ably fill the exacting duties of the office which he seeks.

As a comparatively young man, Judge Kennon possesses the vigor and the energy to permit him to meet and conquer the multitude of problems that are constantly arising in a state and country facing a constantly changing social and economic order.

In 1948, in his first campaign for state office and without the assistance of organized support, Judge Kennon received 127,569 votes in the State of Louisiana as a candidate for Governor. Less than a year later Judge Kennon was again called upon by the people of his state and received 253,668 votes in the State of Louisiana as a candidate for the United States Senate.

Out of the political mud and confusion that is developing more and more, comes one clear fact: Bob Kennon is the only clean man in the race and is best fitted to be our governor.

KENNONS gonna win!

Candidate for Governor JUDGE ROBERT F. KENNON

Scholar Jurist Soldier Statesman

HONOR GRADUATE: Louisiana State University. Bob Kennon was an honor student, receiving awards for the best grades in the University. Captain of his cadet company, made varsity letters in football and tennis. Graduated with an A. B. degree in 1923, L. L. B. degree in 1925.

HE WAS A GOOD STUDENT

MAYOR OF MINDEN, LA. At 23, young Robert Kennon gained nation-wide fame as the youngest man ever to be Mayor of a Louisiana city. At 24 he was made vice president of the Louisiana Municipal Association.

HE WAS A GOOD MAYOR

DISTRICT ATTORNEY: In 1930, with a record of achievement in public office, Bob Kennon was elected District Attorney of Bossier - Webster Parishes. He carried these two parishes in his district by almost a two-to-one majority. He was re-elected in the same position in 1936 without opposition.

HE WAS A GOOD DISTRICT ATTORNEY

Follow the career of this able man and you have living proof of his capacity to serve you as your governor. The experience which he has gained as Mayor, District Attorney, Combat Officer in World War II, Judge of the Court of Appeal and Justice of the Supreme Court of Louisiana amply qualify him–more than any other candidate–to ably fill the exacting duties of the office which he seeks.

As a comparatively young man, Judge Kennon possesses the vigor and the energy to permit him to meet and conquer the multitude of problems that are constantly arising in a state and country facing a constantly changing social and economic order.

In 1948, in his first campaign for state office and without the assistance of organized support, Judge Kennon received 127,569 votes in the State of Louisiana as a candidate for Governor. Less than a year later Judge Kennon was again called upon by the people of his state and received 253,668 votes in the State of Louisiana as a candidate for the United States Senate.

Out of the political mud and confusion that is developing more and more, comes one clear fact: Bob Kennon is the only clean man in the race and is best fitted to be our governor.

Bob Kennon married the former Eugenia Sentell of Bossier Parish in 1931. The Kennons have three fine sons, Robert, Jr. 14, Charles Sentell 11 and Kenwood 8, all healthy clean-cut young Americans. This picture of the family group was taken just a few weeks ago at the Kennon home in Minden, Louisiana.

HE IS A GOOD FAMILY MAN

JUDGE, APPELLATE COURT: At the age of 38, Robert Kennon carried the ten parishes of his North Louisiana Court of Appeal District by nine thousand votes. This was in 1940 when he defeated the incumbent Judge.

HE WAS A GOOD CAMPAIGNER

VETERAN, WORLD WAR II: Bob Kennon was in uniform eleven months prior to Pearl Harbor. He spent four and one-half years on active duty and was in combat operations with the Ninth Army during the European Campaign. He rose to the rank of Colonel.

HE WAS A GOOD SOLDIER

JUSTICE, LOUISIANA SUPREME COURT: At 43, Robert F. Kennon, by unanimous selection, became the youngest member of the State's highest judicial group.

HE IS A GOOD JUDGE

JUDGE ROBERT F. KENNON WILL BE A GOOD GOVERNOR

- A constitutional guarantee for local government in every community.
- Real Civil Service - Protected by Constitutional Amendment.
- A fair taxation policy - - encourage new industry.

OUACHITA BOYS, BASKIN GIRLS TAKE TOURNEY

CALHOUN QUINT LOSES TO LIONS IN FINAL SCRAP

O. P. H. S. Girls Runners-Up In Their Own Division

The Ouachita Parish High School boys and the Baskin girls swept to championships in the third annual Ouachita Parish High Invitational Basketball Tournament here last night.

Coach Herbert H. Holliman's Lions downed neighboring Calhoun in the boys' finals, 44 to 37, after Coach "Tiny" Tarbutton's high-geared Baskin sextet had knocked out the O. P. H. S. girls in their title game, 69 to 38.

White, Calhoun center, was individual high scorer of the boys' final with 16 points, but the shooting of Davis, with 13, and Bennett and Grantham, with ten each, kept Ouachita rolling to victory.

Daisy Baskin and Ruth Ragsdale led the triumph for the Baskin girls as they personally accounted for enough points to whip Ouachita. Miss Baskin dumped 24 points through the nets. Her teammate followed with 22. Leading scorer for the Ouachita sextet was Joyce Dumas with 18.

The Ouachita boys gained the finals by stopping the Ruston Bearcats, 42 to 30, in their semi-final contest yesterday. The Lions had eliminated Baskin and Choudrant in Friday games. Calhoun came into the finals with Ouachita with a semi-final victory over Winnsboro, 39-31, after stopping Rayville and L. T. I. in the preliminaries.

In the girls' semi-final contests yesterday, Baskin dropped Farmerville, 68 to 35, and Ouachita rolled over St. Matthew's of Monroe, 44 to 14. Only eight teams appeared in the girls' division, and Baskin drew the lone-bye to the semi-finals. Other girls' teams competing but eliminated in the first round Friday were St. Paschal's of West Monroe, Rayville, and Collinston.

A full entry of 16 teams played in the boys' division. These also included Farmerville, Start, Grayson, St. Paschal's, Ogden, Collinston, LaSalle of Olla, St. Matthew's and Rayville.

Consolation honors went to the Farmerville girls and to the Ruston boys. The Farmerville sextet knocked off St. Matthew's, 47 to 18, yesterday afternoon after both had lost their semi-final scraps. Ruston tripped Winnsboro, 42 to 32, in their duel for boys' third place honors.

The tournament all-star boys' teams were: First Team—Rushing, of Baskin; Davis, of Ouachita; R. Fain, of Ogden; Barnes, of Calhoun; Bennett of Ouachita. Second Team — Hubbard, of Ruston; Thompson, of Calhoun; Hemphill, of Grayson; Crumpton, of Rayville; Terall, of LaSalle.

The tournament all-star girls' teams were: Baskin, of Baskin; Parker, of Farmerville; Brunson, of Ouachita; Coronado, of Baskin; Hill, of Ouachita; and Aulds, of Farmerville. Second Team—Maggio, of St. Matthew's; Dumas, of Ouachita; Fox, of Baskin; Eppinette, of Rayville, and Eberts, of St. Matthew's.

Delegate Top Weighted For Inaugural Handicap

Miami, Fla., Jan. 12.—(AP)—Woolford farm's aging Delegate was assigned the top weight of 122 pounds today for the $10,000 Inaugural Handicap next Thursday at Hialeah race course.

The eight-year-old Delegate will be trying for a third victory in the six-furlong race. He won in 1948 and 1942 and ran second last year. A win Thursday would make him the first horse in Hialeah history to win three inaugurals and he also would become Hialeah's first five-time stake winner.

Delegate, who set a new world's record of 1:01 and three-fifths for five and one-half furlongs at Belmont Park last fall, will carry one [illegible] more in the Inaugural than [illegible] C. [illegible] Jr's. Spartan Val-

Suntan Gal Wins Old Hickory Run

New Orleans, Jan. 12.—(AP)—The favorites never threatened today as Suntan Gal won the Old Hickory Handicap at the New Orleans Fair Grounds race track. The time was 1:46 and one-fifth for the mile and one-sixteenth.

Suntan Gal led by a length and a half. She was first out of the gate and was never headed. Owned by L. D. Peat and ridden by Jockey L. C. Cook, Suntan Gal paid $10.10 and $6.00.

Second was Sabaean, and co-favorite, Bugledrums was third. Sabaean paid $6.60 to place.

Jockey Howard Craig rode three mounts to victory in the day's events—High Carrier in the 4th, Gloriette in the 5th, and Frisk in the 8th.

The 9,000 in attendance bet $421,359 through the mutuel windows.

FIGHT MANAGER IN ROUGH SPOT

Already Suspended For His Attack On Referee

New York, Jan. 12. —(AP)— Witnesses testified today that fight Manager Tommy Ryan had assaulted Referee Ray Moller and Matchmaker Al Weill last night and there was a strong possibility that the district attorney might take action soon against the manager.

Ryan already is under suspension for his ring attack on the referee in Madison Square Garden and Chairman Bob Christenberry of the state athletic commission has vowed that Ryan's manager's license will be revoked. That probably will take place next Friday.

The commission held a preliminary hearing today on the wild aftermath to the Ernie Durando - Rocky Castellani middleweight scrap and then adjourned until Friday.

As soon as the hearing was over, Manuel Robbins, counsel for the commission, hurried over to the district attorney's office to make a full report.

Ryan is the manager of Castellani, who was stopped in 2:04 of the seventh round of last night's ten-rounder, a bout telecast and broadcast by networks. Castellani, a 9 to 5 favorite, swept the first five rounds and seemed a cinch to outpoint the stocky, powerful Bayonne, N. J., bomber.

But in the sixth Durando dropped him for nine with a right to the head and in the seventh he dropped him for nine again with a terrific right uppercut. Castellani, an ex-marine, barely staggered to his feet and then fell back against the ropes.

Miller immediately halted the bout. Ryan stormed into the ring and swung several punches at Miller, a former crack lightweight. Miller contented himself with fending off the blows.

Several deputy officials and knockdown timekeeper Al Berle rushed into the ring to lead Ryan away.

Karel Sys Takes European Crown

Brussels, Jan. 12.—(AP)—Karel Sys of Brussels won the European heavyweight championship today with a dazzling display of boxing which thoroughly befuddled huge Hein Ten Hoff of Germany.

Sys, only 208¾ to the champ's 220, won 13 rounds on the score board of French Referee Rene Schemann, with two rounds even. Ten Hoff, defending the championship for the first time after winning it from Britain's Jack Gardner, Sept. 23, failed to win a single round, and for the most part failed to start an offensive. There were no knockdowns in the one-sided fight.

A head shorter than his opponent, Sys was far too fast for the lumbering, awkward Ten Hoff. Time and again Sys stabbed Ten Hoff with his left jab and leaped lightly back as the champion's counterpunches swung through empty air.

Although he had a big advantage in reach, Ten Hoff failed to make use of it and spent most of the fight at a safe distance from the Belgian.

Mulley, Schwartz Gain West Coast Net Finals

St. Petersburg, Fla., Jan. 12.—(AP)—Sidney Schwartz, of New York and Miami, upset Budge Patty of New York 6-2, 6-4, 6-3 in the semi-finals of the 23rd annual West Coast Tennis Tournament.

Earlier Gardnar Mulloy, Miami seeded first, defeated Tony Vincent, also of Miami, 6-3, 6-1, 4-6, 6-3.

Mulley and Schwartz meet in tomorrow's finals.

In the women's division Magda Rurac, the displaced Roumanian, defeated Ann Gray of Washington, 6-4, 6-4 to gain the final round.

In the lower bracket Laura Lou (Jabe) [illegible], [illegible], [illegible] 6-4.

REJECT PROPOSAL TO CEASE SPRING FOOTBALL DRILLS

Otherwise Plans Follow Closely Presidents' Plan

By Hugh Fullerton, Jr.

Cincinnati, Jan. 12.—(AP)—The National Collegiate Athletic Association rebuffed the college presidents in one respect today, but in many others brought its own program closer in line with the proposals of the 11-man American Council on Education committee.

The N. C. A. A. delegates firmly rejected legislation which would have outlawed spring football practice and out-of-season basketball drills. Instead they restricted such practices to 20 sessions in each sport."

They altered their principle governing financial aid to athletes, putting such aid more securely under the control of the individual institutions and they adopted a principle calling for sound academic standards.

The influential A. C. E. presidents committee, which reported on its study of athletics this week, declared that there should be no out-of-season practice sessions. It also ruled out football "bowl" games and other post-season team contests and called for closer restriction on other athletic practices.

The N. C. A. A. merely called for further study of post - season games by a special committee and meanwhile placed a ban on making new commitments for such games to be played after Jan. 2, 1953.

Winding up a busy session, the convention also established a new ethics committee, which will have broad powers to investigate any incident which the N. C. A. A. council deems "detrimental to the welfare of intercollegiate athletics as a whole."

It also turned down an effort to eliminate the "platoon system" from football by means of restrictive rules.

The anti - platoon move, which was something of a surprise to many delegates, came on a resolution from the Pacific Coast Conference calling for a "mandate" to the football rules committee to make the change. After lively debate, it was rejected by a lopsided count.

Hugh C. Willett of Southern California, who was re-elected president of the N. C. A. A., took notice in his concluding speech of widespread comments that the presidents had taken over the N. C. A. A.'s powers.

"The last two years have been over stormy waters," Willett said. "We are stronger than we ever have been before. We are not done for. We will see this thing through."

Earl Fullbrook of Nebraska was elected secretary-treasurer to succeed Kenneth L. (Tug) Wilson, who announced his retirement from that important position yesterday.

Although the N. C. A. A. legislative program, is at variance with the presidents' committee plan in many respects, it provides tighter controls than ever before were exercised.

After voting down a constitutional amendment which would have banned all out-of-season football and basketball practices by a 113 to 54 margin, the convention adopted the 20 - session limit by 105-46. The 20 organized sessions of football practice must take place within 30 calendar days; in basketball they must be within 24 days.

This amendment was passed over the heated objections of Fritz Crisler, Michigan athletic director, who presented the coaches' viewpoint. Yesterday the football coaches association proposed a limit of 30 days of practice within a six-weeks period.

The lengthy principle and resolution on post-season contests, provides that from now on no member can make or renew any commitment beyond Jan. 2, 1953, and, further, that commitments now in force may be abrogated by next year's convention.

The Big Ten and Pacific Coast Conference have contracts to play in the Rose Bowl through Jan. 1, 1954. The Cotton Bowl and Sugar Bowl have agreements with the Southwest and Southeastern conferences for the appearance of the championship teams. To what extent these agreements will be affected was not made clear.

In establishing a new principle governing financial aid to replace the old "principle of amateurism," the N. C. A. A. placed control of this matter entirely in the hands of the colleges and their separate conferences." It requires merely that all aid must be administered by the institutions, thus ruling out direct contributions to athletes from "booster" clubs or any other non-college groups.

Thanatopsis Will Get Plenty Home Support

St. Joseph, Mo., Jan. 12.—(AP)—Thanatopsis, racing horse grandson of the great Man O'War, may be short on some things, but not on owners.

He has 38 of them. And all 38 are waiting to see what he does in his first race at Keenelane in April.

Thanatopsis, bay offspring of Cannon's Roar, is owned by the Thanatopsis Literary Society of St. Joseph. He was given to its members by W. True Davis, Jr., horse fancier and serum manufacturer.

Davis, a regular with the group, named the horse after the society, then decided to give it to the members. The owners pay a nominal sum monthly for the keep of the horse. They will divide the purses the horse wins—if any.

The Thanatopsis Society is made up of business and professional men, politicians, newsmen and others. They meet regularly to discuss everything from the state of the world to rotation pool, politics, and weight lifting. Occasionally, but not often, literary subjects are mentioned.

Thanatopsis, whose interests run more toward oats and hay rather than things literary, is being trained here but will leave for Keeneland soon.

AMPHIBLEN WINS STRAUS HANDICAP

Apsley Home Second In Tropical's Feature

Miami, Fla., Jan. 12.—(AP)—Amphiblen, with Jockey Charlie Burr up, came from far back today to win the $7,500 Henry L. Straus Handicap at Tropical Park before a record crowd of 14,574—largest of the meeting to date.

Amphiblen, first favorite of the day to win, ran the mile and a sixteenth in 1:43.1 and paid $8.60, $4.40 and $3.30 in the $2 mutuels.

Apsley, with Hedley Woodhouse up, was second most of the way and took the lead briefly at the head of the stretch but could not keep up with the driving Amphiblen.

Apsley paid $4.50 and $3.30 while Combat Boots was third by a length returning $5.50.

Ten four-year-olds and upward competed in the richest purse of the meeting with Apsley and Directoire running as an entry. Fugitive lost his rider at the start but the boy, Earl J. Knapp, was uninjured.

Form players took a beating in the first six races. Sabson won the opener at $45.20 for $2 while Burr brought in Quick Buck in the second to pay $14 and make up a daily double of $486.10.

Light Moon, paying $103.50 won the sixth race, a mile and a sixteenth, carrying a $2,600 purse, with Knapp in the irons. Count Victor, the two to one favorite, ran out.

Tennessee Downs Mississippi, 76-69

Knoxville, Tenn., Jan. 12.—(AP)—Robert Jarvis and Ken Robbins piled up 46 points between them tonight for Mississippi, but they couldn't match the balanced barrage of six Tennessee basketball players who won the game 76 to 69.

Center Jarvis led Mississippi in the early scoring which kept the visitors in the lead until midway of the second quarter.

Then Capt. Tommy Bartlett's brilliant floor play, Hank Bertelkamp's rebounding and the steady marksmanship of all the six Vols who saw service tonight put Tennessee in the lead to stay. None of the Vols scored less than 10 points, while Charlie Hipsher was high man with only 16.

U. S. GIRL TAKES SWISS SKI TITLE

Another American Olympic Hope Breaks Leg

Grindewald, Switzerland, Jan. 12. —(AP)— American Olympic ski hopes rose and fell today as Andrea Mead Lawrence won the women's Swiss giant slalom and George Macomber suffered a probable broken leg in the International Lauberhorn downhill race.

Mrs. Lawrence, 19-year-old veteran of the 1948 Olympics, led the huge international field by two-tenths of a second in the Swiss meet, which drew ski queens from 11 different nations.

On the other side of the mountain, at Wengen, the 24-year-old Macomber of West Newton, Mass., apparently hit a bare spot as he shot down the mountainside and was somersaulted. He landed in such a manner that he is believed to have dislocated his shoulder as well as breaking his leg.

Macomber also was unable to compete in the 1948 Olympics because of a broken leg, suffered in training. The 1952 winter games are set for Oslo, Norway, Feb. 14-25.

Except for Mrs. Lawrence, whose home is in Rutland, Vt., the U. S. Olympic hopefuls did poorly. Verne Goodwin of Pittsfield, Mass. was the first American to finish in the men's race and he was no better than 17th.

Jannette Burr, Seattle, Wash., was the next American behind Mrs. Lawrence, finishing in a tie for 11th place with Celina Seghi, the Italian tigeress who competed in the U. S. two years ago.

Mrs. Lawrence whizzed the distance in 43.8 seconds to nose out Andree Bermond - Tourniermms, France. Trude Jochim - Beiser of Austria, was third in :45.1.

Katy Rodolph, Hayden, Colo., was 21st with a :47.4 clocking while Sally Neidlinger, Hanover, N. H., and Sandra Tomlinson, Vancouver, B. C., but an American citizen, finished with identical times of :48.9.

Alabama Quintet Beats Engineers

Tuscaloosa, Ala., Jan. 12.—(AP)—Alabama squelched a scoring burst by Georgia Tech's Center Pete Silas and defeated the Engineers in a Southeastern Conference basketball battle tonight, 66 to 60.

The tide cautiously froze the ball in the last two minutes of the game while leading the visitors 66-59. Tech added only one more point, a free throw by Peden Templeton.

Alabama led at the half 38 to 26, and the Engineers didn't have enough steam when they opened their court drive in the last two periods.

Hudlin Returns As Travs' Pilot

Little Rock, Jan. 12.—(AP)—Willis Hudlin is coming back to the Little Rock Travelers as manager for the fourth time.

He was appointed today to succeed Gene Desautels, who piloted the Travelers to the Class AA Southern Association pennant in 1951 and resigned recently to become manager of Indianapolis in the American Association.

Hudlin, who pitched for the Cleveland Indians for 14 years, first served as manager of the Travelers in 1942.

INVITATIONS OUT FOR CAGE EVENT

Entry Deadline Saturday For Gold Medal Meet

Collinston, La., Jan. 12. (Special) Invitations went out this week to independent men's basketball teams throughout this section of the state for the annual Gold Medal Independent Tournament to be held at Collinston High School gymnasium here January 31 and February 2nd. The deadline for accepting entries is midnight next Saturday.

"Andy team failing to receive an invitation but desiring to participate should contact us at once." declared Leon Langston, tourney promoter. "We hope to make this one of the finest annual independent basketball events in this section. To this end we're going to do everything possible to accomodate the team, and we hope to make bracket allowances for any teams that might have schedule difficulties or exceptional travel restrictions. But we'll have to know these conditions well enough in advance to be able to work out an agreeable schedule.

"As soon as the brackets are prepared, every team will be mailed a copy well in advance of playing dates."

Only men's teams are participating. Trophies will be presented for first, second, and third place winners. Ten individual medals will be awarded each of the top three clubs. Trophies will also be awarded for sportsmanship and best-all-around player. Individual medals will also be awarded members of the all-tourney squad, and ten individual medals will be offered for the outstanding players on teams losing their first games.

LION, 25-1 SHOT, TAKES $25,000 SANTA CATALINA

Special Touch Shares Stakes At Santa Anita

Arcadia, Calif., Jan. 12. —(AP)— Lion, a 25 - 1 longshot, beat out the favored Moonrush in the $25,000 - added Santa Catalina Handicap today to share stakes honors with Special Touch in the mud at Santa Anita.

Lion, ridden by Jockey William Cook and overlooked in the betting, charged out of nowhere in the stretch to whip Moonrush by two lengths. The pre - race favorite, Bed O'Roses, was scratched.

Blue Reading ran third. Time for the mile and one eighth was 1:51 4-5. Lion returned $60.40, $18.30, and $5.90 across the board. Moonrush, with Eddie Arcaro up, paid $4.20 and $2.80, while Blue Reading paid $2.80 to show.

The race was the second half of Santa Anita's customary Saturday doubleheader. Special Touch sloshed to a 2½ lengths triumph over Alfred Vanderbilt's Next Move in the first one, the $20,000 - added Santa Maria Handicap. A foul was claimed in that one, but it was disallowed.

The Santa Maria was to have marked a bid by Vanderbilt to take both features with Next Move and Bed O'Roses, his two brilliant mares.

At the last minute, however, Bed O'Roses was declared out of the afterpiece, the $25,000 Santa Catalina Handicap, when the track came up sloppy.

A crowd of 34,000 braved a driving rainstorm to watch the program.

Special Touch, second choice in the betting, paid $6.80, $3.00 and $2.80 across the board. Next Move returned $2.80 and $2.60, and Blue Cloth paid $4.30 to show.

C. V. Whitney's horse of the year, Counterpoint, turned in an impressive workout between the third and fourth races, going seven furlongs in 1:23 2-5. It was the fastest drill at this distance recorded at the meeting even on a fast track.

Bosox Sell Robinson; Bring Al Evans Back

Boston, Jan. 12. —(AP)— The Boston Red Sox today sold Catcher Aaron Robinson to Portland of the Pacific Coast League and signed in his place Al Evans.

Evans, a 10 - year man, agreed to go to Louisville, Boston farm in the American Association, last August after the Sox obtained Robinson on waivers from the Detroit Tigers.

OUACHITA BOYS, BASKIN GIRLS TAKE TOURNEY

CALHOUN QUINT LOSES TO LIONS IN FINAL SCRAP

O. P. H. S. Girls Runners-Up In Their Own Division

The Ouachita Parish High School boys and the Baskin girls swept to championships in the third annual Ouachita Parish High Invitational Basketball Tournament here last night.

Coach Herbert H. Holliman's Lions downed neighboring Calhoun in the boys' finals, 44 to 37, after Coach "Tiny" Tarbutton's high-geared Baskin sextet had knocked out the O. P. H. S. girls in their title game, 69 to 38.

White, Calhoun center, was individual high scorer of the boys' final with 16 points, but the shooting of Davis, with 13, and Bennett and Grantham, with ten each, kept Ouachita rolling to victory.

Daisy Baskin and Ruth Ragsdale led the triumph for the Baskin girls as they personally accounted for enough points to whip Ouachita. Miss Baskin dumped 24 points through the nets. Her teammate followed with 22. Leading scorer for the Ouachita sextet was Joyce Dumas with 18.

The Ouachita boys gained the finals by stopping the Ruston Bearcats, 42 to 30, in their semi-final contest yesterday. The Lions had eliminated Baskin and Choudrant in Friday games. Calhoun came into the finals with Ouachita with a semi-final victory over Winnsboro, 39-31, after stopping Rayville and L. T. I. in the preliminaries.

In the girls' semi-final contests yesterday, Baskin dropped Farmerville, 68 to 35, and Ouachita rolled over St. Matthew's of Monroe, 44 to 14. Only eight teams appeared in the girls' division, and Baskin drew the lone-bye to the semi-finals. Other girls' teams competing but elininated in the first round Friday were St. Paschal's of West Monroe, Rayville, and Collinston.

A full entry of 16 teams played in the boys' division. These also included Farmerville, Start, Grayson, St. Paschal's, Ogden, Collinston, LaSalle of Olla, St. Matthew's and Rayville.

Consolation honors went to the Farmerville girls and to the Ruston boys. The Farmerville sextet knocked off St. Matthew's, 47 to 18, yesterday afternoon after both had lost their semi-final scraps. Ruston tripped Winnsboro, 42 to 32, in their duel for boys' third place honors.

The tournament all-star boys' teams were: First Team—Rushing, of Baskin; Davis, of Ouachita; R. Fain, of Ogden; Barnes, of Calhoun; Bennett of Ouachita. Second Team — Hubbard, of Ruston; Thompson, of Calhoun; Hemphill, of Grayson; Crumpton, of Rayville; Terall, of LaSalle.

The tournament all-star girls' teams were: Baskin, of Baskin; Parker, of Farmerville; Brunson, of Ouachita; Coronado, of Baskin; Hill, of Ouachita; and Aulds, of Farmerville. Second Team—Maggio, of St. Matthew's; Dumas, of Ouachita; Fox, of Baskin; Eppinette, of Rayville, and Eberts, of St. Matthew's.

Delegate Top Weighted For Inaugural Handicap

Miami, Fla., Jan. 12.—(AP)—Woolford farm's aging Delegate was assigned the top weight of 122 pounds today for the $10,000 Inaugural Handicap next Thursday at Hialeah race course.

The eight-year-old Delegate will be trying for a third victory in the six-furlong race. He won in 1948 and 1942 and ran second last year. A win Thursday would make him the first horse in Hialeah history to win three inaugurals and he also would become Hialeah's first five-time stake winner.

Delegate, who set a new world's record of 1:01 and three-fifths for five and one-half furlongs at Belmont Park last fall, will carry one pound more in the Inaugural than William G. Helis Jr's. Spartan Valor.

Scheduled to pack 119 pounds are Brookmeade Stable's Bold, Palatine Stable's Woodchuck and Helis' Roman Fair. Hal Price Headley's Jumbo and Henry H. Heckt's The Pincher were assigned 118 pounds.

Maine Chance Farm's Admiral's Pride, Alvin Untermeyer's Seaflash, and Mrs. A. Roberts' Eatontown, winner of the 1950 Inaugural, will carry 116 pounds.

Suntan Gal Wins Old Hickory Run

New Orleans, Jan. 12.—(AP)—The favorites never threatened today as Suntan Gal won the Old Hickory Handicap at the New Orleans Fair Grounds race track. The time was 1:46 and one-fifth for the mile and one-sixteenth.

Suntan Gal led by a length and a half. She was first out of the gate and was never headed. Owned by L. D. Peat and ridden by Jockey L. C. Cook, Suntan Gal paid $10.10 and $6.00.

Second was Sabaean, and co-favorite, Bugledrums was third. Sabaean paid $6.60 to place.

Jockey Howard Craig rode three mounts to victory in the day's events—High Carrier in the 4th, Gloriette in the 5th, and Frisk in the 8th.

The 9,000 in attendance bet $421,359 through the mutuel windows.

FIGHT MANAGER IN ROUGH SPOT

Already Suspended For His Attack On Referee

New York, Jan. 12. —(AP)— Witnesses testified today that fight Manager Tommy Ryan had assaulted Referee Ray Moller and Matchmaker Al Weill last night and there was a strong possibility that the district attorney might take action soon against the manager.

Ryan already is under suspension for his ring attack on the referee in Madison Square Garden and Chairman Bob Christenberry of the state athletic commission has vowed that Ryan's manager's license will be revoked. That probably will take place next Friday.

The commission held a preliminary hearing today on the wild aftermath to the Ernie Durando - Rocky Castellani middleweight scrap and then adjourned until Friday.

As soon as the hearing was over, Manuel Robbins, counsel for the commission, hurried over to the district attorney's office to make a full report.

Ryan is the manager of Castellani, who was stopped in 2:04 of the seventh round of last night's ten - rounder, a bout telecast and broadcast by networks. Castellani, a 9 to 5 favorite, swept the first five rounds and seemed a cinch to outpoint the stocky, powerful Bayonne, N. J., bomber.

But in the sixth Durando dropped him for nine with a right to the head and in the seventh he dropped him for nine again with a terrific right uppercut. Castellani, an ex - marine, barely staggered to his feet and then fell back against the ropes.

Miller immediately halted the bout. Ryan stormed into the ring and swung several punches at Miller, a former crack lightweight. Miller contented himself with fending off the blows.

Several deputy officials and knockdown timekeeper Al Berle rushed into the ring to lead Ryan away.

Karel Sys Takes European Crown

Brussels, Jan. 12.—(AP)—Karel Sys of Brussels won the European heavyweight championship today with a dazzling display of boxing which thoroughly befuddled huge Hein Ten Hoff of Germany.

Sys, only 206¾ to the champ's 220, won 13 rounds on the score board of French Referee Rene Schemann, with two rounds even. Ten Hoff, defending the championship for the first time after winning it from Britain's Jack Gardner, Sept. 23, failed to win a single round, and for the most part failed to start an offensive. There were no knockdowns in the one-sided fight.

A head shorter than his opponent, Sys was far too fast for the lumbering, awkward Ten Hoff. Time and again Sys stabbed Ten Hoff with his left jab and leaped lightly back as the champion's counterpunches swung through empty air.

Although he had a big advantage in reach, Ten Hoff failed to make use of it and spent most of the fight at a safe distance from the Belgian.

Mulloy, Schwartz Gain West Coast Net Finals

St. Petersburg, Fla., Jan. 12.—(AP)—Sidney Schwartz, of New York and Miami, upset Budge Patty of New York 6-2, 6-4, 6-3 in the semi-finals of the 23rd annual West Coast Tennis Tournament.

Earlier Gardnar Mulloy, Miami seeded first, defeated Tony Vincent, also of Miami, 6-2, 6-1, 4-6, 6-3.

Mulloy and Schwartz meet in tomorrow's finals.

In the woman's division Magda Rurac, the displaced Roumanian, defeated Ann Gray of Washington, 7-5, 6-2 to gain the final round.

In the lower bracket Laura Lou (Jahn) Kunnen, Clearwater, defeated Doris Popple, Miami, 6-4, 6-2.

Miss Rurac and Laura Lou meet in finals tomorrow.

N. C. A. A. Tightens Controls Over College Athletics

REJECT PROPOSAL TO CEASE SPRING FOOTBALL DRILLS

By Hugh Fullerton, Jr.

Cincinnati, Jan. 12.—(AP)—The National Collegiate Athletic Association rebuffed the college presidents in one respect today, but in many others brought its own program closer in line with the proposals of the 11-man American Council on Education committee.

The N. C. A. A. delegates firmly rejected legislation which would have outlawed spring football practice and out-of-season basketball drills. Instead they restricted such practices to 20 sessions in each sport."

They altered their principle governing financial aid to athletes, putting such aid more securely under the control of the individual institutions and they adopted a principle calling for sound academic standards.

The influential A. C. E. presidents committee, which reported on its study of athletics this week, declared that there should be no out-of-season practice sessions. It also ruled out football "bowl" games and other post-season team contests and called for closer restriction on other athletic practices.

The N. C. A. A. merely called for further study of post - season games by a special committee and meanwhile placed a ban on making new commitments for such games to be played after Jan. 2, 1953.

Winding up a busy session, the convention also established a new ethics committee, which will have broad powers to investigate any incident which the N. C. A. A. council deems "detrimental to the welfare of intercollegiate athletics as a whole."

It also turned down an effort to eliminate the "platoon system" from football by means of restrictive rules.

The anti - platoon move, which was something of a surprise to many delegates, came on a resolution from the Pacific Coast Conference calling for a "mandate" to the football rules committee to make the change. After lively debate, it was rejected by a lopsided count.

Hugh C. Willett of Southern California, who was re-elected president of the N. C. A. A., took notice in his concluding speech of widespread comments that the presidents had taken over the N. C. A. A.'s powers.

"The last two years have been over stormy waters," Willett said. "We are stronger than we ever have been before. We are not done for. We will see this thing through."

Earl Fullbrook of Nebraska was elected secretary-treasurer to succeed Kenneth L. (Tug) Wilson, who announced his retirement from that important position yesterday.

Although the N. C. A. A. legislative program, is at variance with the presidents' committee plan in many respects, it provides tighter controls than ever before were exercised.

After voting down a constitutional amendment which would have banned all out-of-season football and basketball practices by a 113 to 54 margin, the convention adopted the 20 - session limit by 105-46. The 20 organized sessions of football practice must take place within 30 calendar days; in basketball they must be within 24 days.

This amendment was passed over the heated objections of Fritz Crisler, Michigan athletic director, who presented the coaches' viewpoint. Yesterday the football coaches association proposed a limit of 30 days of practice within a six-weeks period.

The lengthy principle and resolution on post-season contests, provides that from now on no member can make or renew any commitment beyond Jan. 2, 1953, and, further, that commitments now in force may be abrogated by next year's convention.

The Big Ten and Pacific Coast Conference have contracts to play in the Rose Bowl through Jan. 1, 1954. The Cotton Bowl and Sugar Bowl have agreements with the Southwest and Southeastern conferences for the appearance of the championship teams. To what extent these agreements will be affected was not made clear.

In establishing a new principle governing financial aid to replace the old "principle of amateurism," the N. C. A. A. placed control of this matter entirely in the hands of the colleges and their separate conferences." It requires merely that all aid must be administered by the institutions, thus ruling out direct contributions to athletes from "booster" clubs or any other non-college groups.

NO DEAL

Philadelphia, Jan. 12.—(AP)—The Philadelphia Athletics today decided against buying the International League's Ottawa franchise and moving it to Jersey City because the American leaguers don't want to put a class B team in a triple A circuit.

Thanatopsis Will Get Plenty Home Support

St. Joseph, Mo., Jan. 12.—(AP)—Thanatopsis, racing horse grandson of the great Man O'War, may be short on some things, but not on owners.

He has 38 of them. And all 38 are waiting to see what he does in his first race at Keenelane in April.

Thanatopsis, bay offspring of Cannon's Roar, is owned by the Thanatopsis Literary Society of St. Joseph. He was given to its members by W. True Davis, Jr., horse fancier and serum manufacturer.

Davis, a regular with the group, named the horse after the society, then decided to give it to the members. The owners pay a nominal sum monthly for the keep of the horse. They will divide the purses the horse wins—if any.

The Thanatopsis Society is made up of business and professional men, politicians, newsmen and others. They meet regularly to discuss everything from the state of the world to rotation pool, politics, and weight lifting. Occasionally, but not often, literary subjects are mentioned.

Thanatopsis, whose interests run more toward oats and hay rather than things literary, is being trained here but will leave for Keeneland soon.

AMPHIBLEN WINS STRAUS HANDICAP

Apsley Home Second In Tropical's Feature

Miami, Fla., Jan. 12.—(AP)—Amphiblen, with Jockey Charlie Burr up, came from far back today to win the $7,500 Henry L. Straus Handicap at Tropical Park before a record crowd of 14,574—largest of the meeting to date.

Amphiblen, first favorite of the day to win, ran the mile and a sixteenth in 1:43.1 and paid $8.60, $4.40 and $3.30 in the $2 mutuels.

Apsley, with Hedley Woodhouse up, was second most of the way and took the lead briefly at the head of the stretch but could not keep up with the driving Amphiblen.

Apsley paid $4.50 and $3.30 while Combat Boots was third by a length returning $5.50.

Ten four-year-olds and upward competed in the richest purse of the meeting with Apsley and Directoire running as an entry. Fugitive lost his rider at the start but the boy, Earl J. Knapp, was uninjured.

Form players took a beating in the first six races. Sabson won the opener at $45.20 for $2 while Burr brought in Quick Buck in the second to pay $14 and make up a daily double of $486.10.

Light Moon, paying $103.50 won the sixth race, a mile and a sixteenth, carrying a $2,600 purse, with Knapp in the irons. Count Victor, the two to one favorite, ran out.

Tennessee Downs Mississippi, 76-69

Knoxville, Tenn., Jan. 12.—(AP)—Robert Jarvis and Ken Robbins piled up 46 points between them tonight for Mississippi, but they couldn't match the balanced barrage of six Tennessee basketball players who won the game 76 to 69.

Center Jarvis led Mississippi in the early scoring which kept the visitors in the lead until midway of the second quarter.

Then Capt. Tommy Bartlett's brilliant floor play, Hank Bertelkamp's rebounding and the steady marksmanship of all the six Vols who saw service tonight put Tennessee in the lead to stay. None of the Vols scored less than 10 points, while Charlie Hipsher was high man with only 16.

U. S. GIRL TAKES SWISS SKI TITLE

Another American Olympic Hope Breaks Leg

Grindewald, Switzerland, Jan. 12. —(AP)— American Olympic ski hopes rose and fell today as Andrea Mead Lawrence won the women's Swiss giant slalom and George Macomber suffered a probable broken leg in the International Lauberhorn downhill race.

Mrs. Lawrence, 19-year-old veteran of the 1948 Olympics, led the huge international field by two-tenths of a second in the Swiss meet, which drew ski queens from 11 different nations.

On the other side of the mountain, at Wengen, the 24-year-old Macomber of West Newton, Mass., apparently hit a bare spot as he shot down the mountainside and was somersaulted. He landed in such a manner that he is believed to have dislocated his shoulder as well as breaking his leg.

Macomber also was unable to compete in the 1948 Olympics because of a broken leg, suffered in training. The 1952 winter games are set for Oslo, Norway, Feb. 14-25.

Except for Mrs. Lawrence, whose home is in Rutland, Vt., the U. S. Olympic hopefuls did poorly. Verne Goodwin of Pittsfield, Mass. was the first American to finish in the men's race and he was no better than 17th.

Jannette Burr, Seattle, Wash., was the next American behind Mrs. Lawrence, finishing in a tie for 11th place with Celina Seghi, the Italian tigeress who competed in the U. S. two years ago.

Mrs. Lawrence whizzed the distance in 43.8 seconds to nose out Andree Bermond - Tourniermms, France. Trude Jochim - Beiser of Austria, was third in :45.1.

Katy Rodolph, Hayden, Colo., was 21st with a :47.4 clocking while Sally Neidlinger, Hanover, N. H., and Sandra Tomlinson, Vancouver, B. C., but an American citizen, finished with identical times of :48.9.

Alabama Quintet Beats Engineers

Tuscaloosa, Ala., Jan. 12.—(AP)—Alabama squelched a scoring burst by Georgia Tech's Center Pete Silas and defeated the Engineers in a Southeastern Conference basketball battle tonight, 66 to 60.

The tide cautiously froze the ball in the last two minutes of the game while leading the visitors 66-59. Tech added only one more point, a free throw by Peden Templeton.

Alabama led at the half 38 to 26, and the Engineers didn't have enough steam when they opened their court drive in the last two periods.

Hawaii All-Stars Even Score With Collegians

Honolulu, Jan. 12.—(AP)—The Hawaii All-Stars upset the College All-Stars, 39-27 here last night in the second Hula Bowl football game of the new year.

Last Sunday the collegians from the mainland won the first game 41-40.

The Hawaii team, bolstered by several pro players, scored in every period to win the second encounter. They led 19-14 at the half.

Hudlin Returns As Travs' Pilot

Little Rock, Jan. 12.—(AP)—Willis Hudlin is coming back to the Little Rock Travelers as manager for the fourth time.

He was appointed today to succeed Gene Desautels, who piloted the Travelers to the Class AA Southern Association pennant in 1951 and resigned recently to become manager of Indianapolis in the American Association.

Hudlin, who pitched for the Cleveland Indians for 14 years, first served as manager of the Travelers in 1942.

INVITATIONS OUT FOR CAGE EVENT

Entry Deadline Saturday For Gold Medal Meet

Collinston, La., Jan. 12. (Special) Invitations went out this week to independent men's basketball teams throughout this section of the state for the annual Gold Medal Independent Tournament to be held at Collinston High School gymnasium here January 31 and February 2nd. The deadline for accepting entries is midnight next Saturday.

"Andy team failing to receive an invitation but desiring to participate should contact us at once." declared Leon Langston, tourney promoter. "We hope to make this one of the finest annual independent basketball events in this section. To this end we're going to do everything possible to accomodate the team, and we hope to make bracket allowances for any teams that might have schedule difficulties or exceptional travel restrictions. But we'll have to know these conditions well enough in advance to be able to work out an agreeable schedule.

"As soon as the brackets are prepared, every team will be mailed a copy well in advance of playing dates."

Only men's teams are participating. Trophies will be presented for first, second, and third place winners. Ten individual medals will be awarded each of the top three clubs. Trophies will also be awarded for sportsmanship and best-all-around player. Individual medals will also be awarded members of the all-tourney squad, and ten individual medals will be offered for the outstanding players on teams losing their first games.

Special Touch Shares Stakes At Santa Anita

Arcadia, Calif., Jan. 12. —(AP)— Lion, a 25 - 1 longshot, beat out the favored Moonrush in the $25,000 - added Santa Catalina Handicap today to share stakes honors with Special Touch in the mud at Santa Anita.

Lion, ridden by Jockey William Cook and overlooked in the betting, charged out of nowhere in the stretch to whip Moonrush by two lengths. The pre - race favorite, Bed O'Roses, was scratched.

Blue Reading ran third. Time for the mile and one eighth was 1:51 4-5. Lion returned $60.40, $18.30, and $5.90 across the board. Moonrush, with Eddie Arcaro up, paid $4.20 and $2.80, while Blue Reading paid $2.80 to show.

The race was the second half of Santa Anita's customary Saturday doubleheader. Special Touch sloshed to a 2½ lengths triumph over Alfred Vanderbilt's Next Move in the first one, the $20,000 - added Santa Maria Handicap. A foul was claimed in that one, but it was disallowed.

The Santa Maria was to have marked a bid by Vanderbilt to take both features with Next Move and Bed O'Roses, his two brilliant mares.

At the last minute, however, Bed O'Roses was declared out of the afterpiece, the $25,000 Santa Catalina Handicap, when the track came up sloppy.

A crowd of 34,000 braved a driving rainstorm to watch the program.

Special Touch, second choice in the betting, paid $6.80, $3.00 and $2.80 across the board. Next Move returned $2.80 and $2.60, and Blue Cloth paid $4.30 to show.

C. V. Whitney's horse of the year, Counterpoint, turned in an impressive workout between the third and fourth races, going seven furlongs in 1:23 2-5. It was the fastest drill at this distance recorded at the meeting even on a fast track.

Bosox Sell Robinson; Bring Al Evans Back

Boston, Jan. 12. —(AP)— The Boston Red Sox today sold Catcher Aaron Robinson to Portland of the Pacific Coast League and signed in his place Al Evans.

Evans, a 10 - year man, agreed to go to Louisville, Boston farm in the American Association, last August after the Sox obtained Robinson on waivers from the Detroit Tigers.

NATIONAL ALL-STARS WIN PRO BOWL, 30-13

20-POINT RALLY IN FINAL PERIOD CLINCHES GAME

19,400 Fans Brave Downpour Of Rain To See Tilt

By Bob Myers

Los Angeles, Jan. 12. —(AP)—Traveling 89 yards in a touchdown drive that featured the aerial brilliance of Quarterback Bob Waterfield and Right End Elroy Hirsch, the National Conference All Stars came from behind in the fourth quarter and rolled on today to defeat the American Conference stars, 30 - 13, in the second Pro Bowl game played in rain and mud.

The Nationals, gaining delicious revenge for a 28 - 27 setback in the first Pro Bowl game a year ago, turned two fumbles into two more touchdowns in the final period to humiliate their rivals.

But it was that long haul, begun in a downpour late in the third period that sent Coach Joe Stydahar's Nationals from behind a 13 - 10 deficit and on to victory.

Waterfield hit Hirsch, his All - Pro teammate of the Los Angeles Rams for gains of 17 and 9, and then unleashed a 21 - yard throw to the enemy two yard line. Here, Fullback John Dottley of the Chicago Bears barged through the middle of the big American line for the winning points.

Veteran Sammy Baugh of the Washington Redskins, sent into the muddy struggle in the closing minutes to replace Otto Graham of Cleveland, was the victim of two bobbles with the soaked ball. Twice he fumbled and twice the winners tallied.

Giant Leo Nomellini of the San Francisco 49ers fielded the first one when Baugh tired to hand off to his fullback, Ed Price, and rumbled 30 yards to sew up the contest.

Don Paul recovered the other bobble on the six, and three playes later, Doak Walker of Detroit lofted a throw to the leaping Hirsch in the end zone for the final touchdown, just as the gun sounded.

Until the game broke open in the final quarter, the 19,400 courageous souls who braved the elements saw one of the tightest contests of a long grid season. Rain this morning and during the game kept an expected 15,000 or so more timorous fans away from The Coliseum.

The Americans, coached by Paul Brown of Cleveland, scored first when Graham connected with his brownie teammate, Dub Jones, on a 44 - yard scoring pass.

Waterfield, given an opportunity through a 31 - yard run by Ram Fullback Dan Towler, put the Nationals on the board with a 30 - yard field goal in the first quarter.

The lineups:

Villemain, Hairston Are Paired For Feb. 6 Fight

Detroit, Jan. 12. —(AP)— Middleweight contenders Robert Villemain of France and Gene Hairston will clash in a 10 - round fight at Olympia Stadium here Feb. 6.

Promoter Nick Londes of the International Boxing Club said he hoped to match the winner against Champion Sugar Ray Robinson for [illegible].

LOUISIANA TECH STARTERS against the cagemen of Loyola University at Ruston Monday night include these Bulldog stars. Left to right: Joe Mott of Oak Ridge, senior guard, 6 feet; Jerry Lovett of Middletown, Ind., senior forward, 6 feet; Robert Bertrand of Meaux, senior forward, 6 feet; Bill Bailey of Athens, freshman guard, 6 feet 2 inches, and Crawford Vines of Pisgah, sophomore center, 6 feet 4 inches. The game, starting at 7:30 p. m. Monday, will be a Gulf States conference engagement.

LOYOLA VISITING TECH TOMORROW

Bulldog Quint Expects Wolves To Be Tough

Ruston, Jan. 12. (Special) — For their third conference clash, Louisiana Tech's basketball squad will be host Monday night to the Loyola University Wolfpack at 7:30 o'clock in Tech Stadium.

Coach Cecil Crowley's charges lost a close one, 62-60, Thursday to Louisiana College at Pineville, their first loss of the season, and there is little hope of bouncing back into the win column with an easy game Monday.

Loyola has been described as having a team capable of beating any squad in the Gulf States Conference, particularly after their 51-50 trouncing of Mississippi Southern. The feeling around the loop is that the Southerners boast the best team in the G. S. C. this season.

Sparking Loyola's bid for basketball fame are a couple of tall fellows, Tom Ketchum, a 6 ft. 7 inch center, and Gus Reynoir, 6 ft five inch forward, with able assists from Bobby Conrad and Monte Caballero, guards, and Bobby Hanberg, forward.

This quintet of lettermen from last year also includes four on the regular starting team of the past season.

It all adds up to a rugged aggregation the Bulldogs will meet here. Against this competition, however, Tech's starting line - up will include a group that has a bit of offensive power in its own right.

Starting at forwards will be Jerry Lovett, who gathered in 29 points against Louisiana College, and Robert Bertrand. At guards will be Joe Mott and Bill Bailey, with Crawford Vines at center.

12 Schools Ready For Arcadia Meet

Arcadia, La., Jan. 12.—(Special)—Twelve schools have entered teams to date in Arcadia's Invitational Tournament to be held at the new Arcadia gymnasium January 18 and 19. The schools entering teams are as follows:

Gibsland, Bryceland, Bienville, Saline, Simsboro, Athens, Hico, Dubach, Bernice, Oak Grove (Converse, La.) Dubberly, Junction City, and Arcadia's two teams will be in the meet, of course.

The tournament managers say that they have room for several more teams to enter and that those school officials interested should communicate at once with Coach Ben Whitman or the principal of the school, E. R. Hester, Arcadia.

Most of the above schools are entering both boys and girls teams.

Early next week a schedule of games to be played in the tournament will be prepared and mailed out to all the schools participating.

Travelers' Hal Simpson 'Most Valuable Player'

New Orleans, Jan. 12.—(AP)—Little Rock Outfielder Hal Simpson wasn't among the Southern Association's leading batters in 1951; he wasn't the leading fielder in the league; but Prince Hal was the most valuable player to his team with a big margin to spare.

Simpson was named the most valuable yesterday by Southern President Charlie Hurth after a poll conducted by Bob Phillips, secretary of the S. A. Baseball Writers Association.

Simpson hit .311 and batted in 126 runs. He played the full 154 game schedule which Little Rock followed to the Southern pennant.

Simpson received 65 of a possible 80 points. Jim Piersall of Birmingham was second with 38. Walt Moryn of Mobile was third with 30.

GUY, LAIRD WILL LEAD CROWVILLE

Eleven-Game Grid Schedule On Tap For Bulldogs

Crowville, Jan. 12.—(Special)—Marion Guy and Billy Joe Laird have been elected co-captains of the Crowville High School Bulldogs during the 1952 gridiron season.

Both boys are 160-pound juniors and three-year lettermen. Guy plays fullback and Laird holds down an end position. Guy led the Bulldog scorers with 11 touchdowns during the last season, while Laird was on the receiving end of five touchdown passes.

Guy has confined his athletic ability to football, but Laird is a three sports letterman. He is a basketball guard and a pitcher in baseball, having three no-hit games to his credit and a share in two other no-hit games, besides his football ability.

Eleven other lettermen are due to return to the Bulldog squad for the 1952 season. They are: End Jarrell Busby Tackles William Busby and George Franklin; Centers Larry O'Brien and Joe Parker; Guards Jimmy Lanier and Rogers Keys; and Backs Lewis Ray Sikes, Dennis Ray Franklin, Lloyd Cox, and Fay Riser.

The Bulldogs face a rugged 11-game schedule next season. Additions are Winnsboro, Delhi and Gilbert; while LaSalle of Olla and Block of Jonesville have been dropped.

Principal F. P. Talbert announced the Bulldog schedule as follows:

Sept. 12—Clarks, here.
Sept. 19—Sicily Island, there.
Sept. 26—Newellton, there.
Oct. 3—Tallulah, there.
Oct. 10—Start, here.

Crimmins Mapping Plans For Indiana

Bloomington, Ind., Jan. 12.—(AP)—Bernie Crimmins, new head football coach at Indiana University, told reporters today he's going to teach the Hoosiers "my way of thumping."

Cummins, who has coached at Notre Dame since 1946 under Coach Frank Leahy, said he will use only the T-formation and variations of it.

He said he will keep Ed Whereatt, freshman coach, on his staff. Other talk at Crimmins' press luncheon indicated a probable addition to the staff may be Bob Maddox, now line coach at Missouri. He and Crimmins were friends at Notre Dame.

Another I. U. assistant who probably will be retained is Bob White, another of Crimmins' student-day friends, who later played football for Indiana.

Whereatt joined the Indiana staff in 1948 along with Clyde Smith, who steps out of the head coaching job April 1. Both Whereatt and Smith came from Wisconsin Teachers Colleges.

The girls' game was the most thrilling of the night as the Monroe team came from behind in the last minutes of the game to beat Delhi, [illegible].

Curtis Boys Given Rematch With Hayamaka, M'Donald

KALLIO WILL USE 2 REFEREES FOR RELAY SCRAMBLE

Tag Match Headlines Mat Card Here Tuesday

Jack and George Curtis, beaten by a foul blow in last week's tag team wrestling bout at Gus Kallio's Arena, returned Tuesday night to take on the same pair, Sugi Hayamaka and "Sockeye" McDonald, in a revenge match.

Jack Curtis had last week's scramble sewed up in the deciding fall with an unbreakable leg hold on Hayamaka, but came to grief when his over - anxious brother leaped into the ring to forestall an attack on Jack from McDonald, who was outside the ropes.

The referee turned his back to put George out of the ring and the burly McDonald poled big Jack behind the ear with a ham-like right hand. Jack fell to the mat in a semi - unconscious condition and Hayamaka made the pin. Jack Robbins, the referee, turned around just in time to count Curtis out.

To forestall a recurrence of last week's slightly unorthodox win, Kallio has promised to have two referees in the ring this Tuesday night — one to watch the wrestlers in the ring and the other to watch the wrestlers outside the ropes. He did not say who the referees would be.

Before last Tuesday night's scramble, Hayamaka, now the world's light heavyweight wrestling champ, and McDonald, a former northwestern lumberjack, had been billed as "clean" wrestlers. Nothing of the sort was evidenced in the match, however, as they slugged, kicked, and committed general mayhem on the other pair.

Despite this, the Curtis brothers seemingly had the match sewed up, until suddenly it was over and they were the losers. The crowd objected strongly to the referee's decision but nothing could be done as he did not see anything wrong and cannot take the crowd's opinion into his judgment of the match.

Last week was the first Monroe fans had seen of the ex-lumberjack in about six years, and most of them had no recollection of him at all. This made no difference to their quick judgment of him, however, and he was booed from almost all hands.

McDonald, a large, burly wrestler, seemed to know his way around the ring as well as any of the others and did most of the dirty work on the other pair. His partner, who made such a good impression on the crowd during his first appearance here, showed little of the spark that makes champions and had only occasional flashes of wrestling skill.

The Curtis brothers put on their usual good performances, to the applause of a highly partial crowd, and had the other pair in trouble most of the way, only getting in serious straits when the lumberjack used his fists.

The tag team match, which will be the main event, will have a 90-minute time limit with two falls to win. There will also be two ten-minute time limit semi-final bouts between opponents from the different tag teams.

Dick Wakefield Will Try One More Fling With Major League Baseball

1941 Bonus Failure To Rejoin Cleveland Club

By F. T. MacFeely

St. Augustine, Fla., Jan. 12. —(AP)— Dick Wakefield plans one more fling at major league baseball before he gives up hope.

Hank Greenberg, Cleveland Indians' general manager, has promised Wakefield he'll get that chance.

"He was the only person in baseball who offered me that opportunity," Wakefield said. "I certainly appreciate it."

Wakefield never became the big major league star the Detroit Tigers expected when they paid him a $50,000 plus bonus in 1941. He has consistently refused to play minor league ball — except for the 1950 season with Oakland in the Pacific Coast League.

He still says it has to be the majors or nothing.

In preparation for the tryout at the Indians' camp in Tucson, Ariz., Wakefield is getting in shape and at the tsame time serving as an instructor in New ork ankee Pitcher Ed Lopat's baseball school here.

Wakefield was serious and matter - of fact as he talked about his baseball past and future. He looked in good trim.

"This is th elast time I'll try to play if I don't make it this year," he said. "Each year you get a year older and it gets that much tougher. I'm 30 now."

While Wakefield thinks he can make the grade with Cleveland, he realizes it will be plenty tough.

"Cleveland has a wonderful group of outfielders — nine of them and only a couple young ones," he said. "It will be hard to beat out veterans who have been playing regularly and who have the added incentive of being a little older and working that much harder."

Baseball has been Wakefield's whole life since Detroit signed him out of the University of Michigan.

"It has given me everything I've got," he said. "I don't know what I'd do without it."

Last summer, when he wasn't active as a player, Wakefield went to the games as a spectator — traveling all over the American league and then watching the World Series. In the fall he saw the big football games.

Assumed Name Used By Player

Tempe, Ariz., Jan. 12. —(AP)—The Phoenix Gazette said today an All-Border Conference tackle at Arizona State College at Tempe had been playing all year under an assumed name.

The paper identified the player as "Edward Andrew" Matesic, registerd at the school as a freshman. His real name is Joseph Matesic, who played on the University of Indiana squad in the 1950 season, the Gazette said.

Dr. Grady Gammage, A. S. C. president, confirmed that one of the school's football players had been found to be registered under the name of "another person," and had left the institution.

Dr. Gammage, who presented the information in a written statement, did not identify the player.

Matesic, a sensation as a freshman here this season, left several days ago for his home in Rankin, Pa. Acquaintances said he planned to enter military service.

The Gazette said that "Edward Andrew" Matesic, a brother of Joseph, lives in Phoenix, Arix., and has been a full - time employe of an industrial concern there for the past two years.

Arizona State College officials began a quiet investigation several weeks ago of unconfirmed reports that one of their football players was not using his proper name.

Dr. Gammage said the investigation is continuing and "appropriate action will be taken."

West Monroe's Ed Head Named Mobile Skipper

Mobile, Ala., Jan. 12.—(AP)—Ed Head, former Brooklyn Dodger pitcher, will manage the 1952 Mobile Bears of the Southern Association.

The announcement was made tonight by John Toomey, president of the newly re-organized Mobile baseball club.

Head, of West Monroe, La., succeeds Paul Chervinko, who piloted the Bears the past three years. Chervinko was released after the 1951 season.

Head comes here from Lancaster, Pa., where he managed that city's entry in the Interstate League the past two seasons. Lancaster finished seventh in 1950 and fifth in 1951.

Head, 34, had to give up pitching in 1947 when his arm went bad suddenly. He gained fame in 1946 when he tossed a no-hit, no-run game against the Boston Braves.

Head finished the 1947 season with St. Paul, and began his managing career with a Canadian team, Three Rivers, in 1948.

WEATHER BALKS PLAY IN CROSBY GOLF SPECTACLE

Second Round Of Play Is Stricken From Card

Pebble Beach, Calif., Jan. 12. —(AP)—The second round of the scheduled 54-hole $10,000 Bing Crosby National Pro-Amateur Golf Tournament was called off today because of the unplayable condition of the rain drenched course.

Larry Crosby, tournament director and brother of the famed crooner who puts on the event annually with profits going to charity, made the announcement after inspecting the sodden Monterey Peninsula Country Club course.

Parts of the course were under water after an all - night rain. Showers continued this morning.

It was decided to cut the tournament to 36 holes. The second and last round will be played tomorrow over the championship Pebble Beach course.

Jimmy Demaret, Ojai, Calif., paced professionals yesterday with a first round score of 74, two over par for the Cypress Point course where the initial 18 holes were played.

Rain and high wind handicapped the first round field and it was the first time in this tournament here that par had not been bettered.

NATIONAL ALL-STARS WIN PRO BOWL, 30-13

20-POINT RALLY IN FINAL PERIOD CLINCHES GAME

19,400 Fans Brave Downpour Of Rain To See Tilt

By Bob Myers

Los Angeles, Jan. 12. —(AP)—Traveling 89 yards in a touchdown drive that featured the aerial brilliance of Quarterback Bob Waterfield and Right End Elroy Hirsch, the National Conference All Stars came from behind in the fourth quarter and rolled on today to defeat the American Conference stars, 30 - 13, in the second Pro Bowl game played in rain and mud.

The Nationals, gaining delicious revenge for a 28 - 27 setback in the first Pro Bowl game a year ago, turned two fumbles into two more touchdowns in the final period to humiliate their rivals.

But it was that long haul, begun in a downpour late in the third period that sent Coach Joe Stydahar's Nationals from behind a 13 - 10 deficit and on to victory.

Waterfield hit Hirsch, his All - Pro teammate of the Los Angeles Rams for gains of 17 and 9, and then unleashed a 21 - yard throw to the enemy two yard line. Here, Fullback John Dottley of the Chicago Bears barged through the middle of the big American line for the winning points.

Veteran Sammy Baugh of the Washington Redskins, sent into the muddy struggle in the closing minutes to replace Otto Graham of Cleveland, was the victim of two bobbles with the soaked ball. Twice he fumbled and twice the winners tallied.

Giant Leo Nomellini of the San Francisco 49ers fielded the first one when Baugh tired to hand off to his fullback, Ed Price, and rumbled 20 yards to sew up the contest.

Don Paul recovered the other bobble on the six, and three playes later, Doak Walker of Detroit lofted a throw to the leaping Hirsch in the end zone for the final touchdown, just as the gun sounded.

Until the game broke open in the final quarter, the 19,400 courageous souls who braved the elements saw one of the tightest contests of a long grid season. Rain this morning and during the game kept an expected 15,000 or so more timorous fans away from The Coliseum.

The Americans, coached by Paul Brown of Cleveland, scored first when Graham connected with his brownie teammate, Dub Jones, on a 44 - yard scoring pass.

Waterfield, given an opportunity through a 31 - yard run by Ram Fullback Dan Towler, put the Nationals on the board with a 30 - yard field goal in the first quarter.

Curtis Boys Given Rematch With Hayamaka, M'Donald

LOUISIANA TECH STARTERS against the cagemen of Loyola University at Ruston Monday night include these Bulldog stars. Left to right: Joe Mott of Oak Ridge, senior guard, 6 feet; Jerry Lovett of Middletown, Ind., senior forward, 6 feet; Robert Bertrand of Meaux, senior forward, 6 feet; Bill Bailey of Athens, freshman guard, 6 feet 2 inches, and Crawford Vines of Pisgah, sophomore center, 6 feet 4 inches. The game, starting at 7:30 p. m. Monday, will be a Gulf States conference engagement.

LOYOLA VISITING TECH TOMORROW

Bulldog Quint Expects Wolves To Be Tough

Ruston, Jan. 12. (Special) — For their third conference clash, Louisiana Tech's basketball squad will be host Monday night to the Loyola University Wolfpack at 7:30 o'clock in Tech Stadium.

Coach Cecil Crowley's charges lost a close one, 62-60, Thursday to Louisiana College at Pineville, their first loss of the season, and there is little hope of bouncing back into the win column with an easy game Monday.

Loyola has been described as having a team capable of beating any squad in the Gulf States Conference, particularly after their 51-50 trouncing of Mississippi Southern. The feeling around the loop is that the Southerners boast the best team in the G. S. C. this season.

Sparking Loyola's bid for basketball fame are a couple of tall fellows, Tom Ketchum, a 6 ft. 7 inch center, and Gus Reynoir, 6 ft five inch forward, with able assists from Bobby Conrad and Monte Caballero, guards, and Bobby Hanberg, forward.

This quintet of lettermen from last year also includes four on the regular starting team of the past season.

It all adds up to a rugged aggregation the Bulldogs will meet here. Against this competition, however, Tech's starting line - up will include a group that has a bit of offensive power in its own right.

Starting at forwards will be Jerry Lovett, who gathered in 29 points against Louisiana College, and Robert Bertrand. At guards will be Joe Mott and Bill Bailey, with Crawford Vines at center.

12 Schools Ready For Arcadia Meet

Arcadia, La., Jan. 12.—(Special)—Twelve schools have entered teams to date in Arcadia's Invitational Tournament to be held at the new Arcadia gymnasium January 18 and 19. The schools entering teams are as follows:

Gibsland, Bryceland, Bienville, Saline, Simsboro, Athens, Hico, Dubach, Bernice, Oak Grove (Converse, La.) Dubberly, Junction City, and Arcadia's two teams will be in the meet, of course.

The tournament managers say that they have room for several more teams to enter and that those school officials interested should communicate at once with Coach Ben Whitman or the principal of the school, E. R. Hester, Arcadia.

Most of the above schools are entering both boys and girls teams.

Early next week a schedule of games to be played in the tournament will be prepared and mailed out to all the schools participating.

Travelers' Hal Simpson 'Most Valuable Player'

New Orleans, Jan. 12.—(AP)—Little Rock Outfielder Hal Simpson wasn't among the Southern Association's leading batters in 1951; he wasn't the leading fielder in the league; but Prince Hal was the most valuable player to his team with a big margin to spare.

Simpson was named the most valuable yesterday by Southern President Charlie Hurth after a poll conducted by Bob Phillips, secretary of the S. A. Baseball Writers Association.

Simpson hit .311 and batted in 126 runs. He played the full 154 game schedule which Little Rock followed to the Southern pennant.

Simpson received 65 of a possible 80 points. Jim Piersall of Birmingham was second with 28. Walt Moryn of Mobile was third with 10.

London, Jan. 12. —(AP)— Frank Royle's Nickel Coin, the mare which won last year's Grand National Steeplechase on a diet of duck eggs and Irish beer, finished last today in its first race of the season.

Nickel Coin jumped well for two miles and then dropped behind in the three-mile Troytown Stakes at Lingfield Park which was won by Coup D'Epee at odds of 10 to 3.

GUY, LAIRD WILL LEAD CROWVILLE

Eleven-Game Grid Schedule On Tap For Bulldogs

Crowville, Jan. 12.—(Special)—Marion Guy and Billy Joe Laird have been elected co-captains of the Crowville High School Bulldogs during the 1952 gridiron season.

Both boys are 160-pound juniors and three-year lettermen. Guy plays fullback and Laird holds down an end position. Guy led the Bulldog scorers with 11 touchdowns during the last season, while Laird was on the receiving end of five touchdown passes.

Guy has confined his athletic ability to football, but Laird is a three sports letterman. He is a basketball guard and a pitcher in baseball, having three no-hit games to his credit and a share in two other no-hit games, besides his football ability.

Eleven other lettermen are due to return to the Bulldog squad for the 1952 season. They are: End Jarrell Busby Tackles William Busby and George Franklin; Centers Larry O'Brien and Joe Parker; Guards Jimmy Lanier and Rogers Keys; and Backs Lewis Ray Sikes, Dennis Ray Franklin, Lloyd Cox, and Fay Riser.

The Bulldogs face a rugged 11-game schedule next season. Additions are Winnsboro, Delhi and Gilbert; while LaSalle of Olla and Block of Jonesville have been dropped.

Principal F. P. Talbert announced the Bulldog schedule as follows:

Sept. 12—Clarks, here.
Sept. 19—Sicily Island, there.
Sept. 26—Newellton, there.
Oct. 3—Tallulah, there.
Oct. 10—Start, here.

Crimmins Mapping Plans For Indiana

Bloomington, Ind., Jan. 12.—(AP)—Bernie Crimmins, new head football coach at Indiana University, told reporters today he's going to teach the Hoosiers "my way of thumping."

Cummins, who has coached at Notre Dame since 1946 under Coach Frank Leahy, said he will use only the T-formation and variations of it.

He said he will keep Ed Whereatt, freshman coach, on his staff. Other talk at Crimmins' press luncheon indicated a probable addition to the staff may be Bob Maddox, now line coach at Missouri. He and Crimmins were friends at Notre Dame.

Another I. U. assistant who probably will be retained is Bob White, another of Crimmins' student-day friends, who later played football for Indiana.

Whereatt joined the Indiana staff in 1948 along with Clyde Smith, who steps out of the head coaching job April 1. Both Whereatt and Smith came from Wisconsin Teachers Colleges.

Monroe Colored High Cagers Trounce Delhi

Monroe Colored High School's basketball teams—girl's and boy's—Friday night defeated Delhi's colored high school teams, making a virutal rout of the boys' game while barely edging past in the girls.'

The boys' basketball team held Delhi to 12 points, while racking up a total of 48 for themselves in their third straight victory.

The girls' game was the most thrilling of the night as the Monroe team came from behind in the last minutes of the game to beat Delhi, 53 to 51.

KALLIO WILL USE 2 REFEREES FOR RELAY SCRAMBLE

Tag Match Headlines Mat Card Here Tuesday

Jack and George Curtis, beaten by a foul blow in last week's tag team wrestling bout at Gus Kallio's Arena, returned Tuesday night to take on the same pair, Sugi Hayamaka and "Sockeye" McDonald, in a revenge match.

Jack Curtis had last week's scramble sewed up in the deciding fall with an unbreakable leg hold on Hayamaka, but came to grief when his over - anxious brother leaped into the ring to forestall an attack on Jack from McDonald, who was outside the ropes.

The referee turned his back to put George out of the ring and the burly McDonald poled big Jack behind the ear with a ham-like right hand. Jack fell to the mat in a semi - unconscious condition and Hayamaka made the pin. Jack Robbins, the referee, turned around just in time to count Curtis out.

To forestall a recurrence of last week's slightly unorthodox win, Kallio has promised to have two referees in the ring this Tuesday night — one to watch the wrestlers in the ring and the other to watch the wrestlers outside the ropes. He did not say who the referees would be.

Before last Tuesday night's scramble, Hayamaka, now the world's light heavyweight wrestling champ, and McDonald, a former northwestern lumberjack, had been billed as "clean" wrestlers. Nothing of the sort was evidenced in the match, however, as they slugged, kicked, and committed general mayhem on the other pair. other pair.

Despite this, the Curtis brothers seemingly had the match sewed up, until suddenly it was over and they were the losers. The crowd objected strongly to the referee's decision but nothing could be done as he did not see anything wrong and cannot take the crowd's opinion into his judgment of the match.

Last week was the first Monroe fans had seen of the ex-lumberjack in about six years, and most of them had no recollection of him at all. This made no difference to their quick judgment of him, however, and he was booed from almost all hands.

McDonald, a large, burly wrestler, seemed to know his way around the ring as well as any of the others and did most of the dirty work on the other pair. His partner, who made such a good impression on the crowd during his first appearance here, showed little of the spark that makes champions and had only occasional flashes of wrestling skill.

The Curtis brothers put on their usual good performances, to the applause of a highly partial crowd, and had the other pair in trouble most of the way, only getting in serious straits when the lumberjack used his fists.

The tag team match, which will be the main event, will have a 90-minute time limit with two falls to win. There will also be two ten-minute time limit semi-final bouts between opponents from the different tag teams.

WINNSBORO BILLS TOURNEY FEB. 1-2

High School Girls And Boys To Participate

Winnsboro, January 12.—(Special)—Winnsboro High School, after a ten-year intermission in basketball tournaments, sponsorship, has scheduled one for February 1 and 2, announced Coach Orville Elkin and Coach Carrice Russell this week.

The tournament has been approved by the Louisiana High School Athletic Association and competent officials have been secured. First and second place trophies will be awarded in both girls and boys divisions, and an all-tournament team will be selected by the officials.

"If necessary to accommodate all teams, the tournament will be started on Thursday, January 31," said Coach Elkin.

The deadline for entering the tournament will be January 12. The following teams have already entered:

Girls division — Winnsboro, Ogden, Waterproof, Crowville, Eros, Central, Fort Necessity, Holly Ridge, Sicily Island, and Harrisonburg.

Boys division — Winnsboro, Ogden, Waterproof, Crowville, Eros, Central, St. Joseph, Lake Providence, Fort Necessity, Holly Ridge, Harrisonburg and Baskin.

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 12. —(AP)— Clarkson College of Technology, which did not win a game in 1951, announced tonight it was suspending varsity football for the 1952 season. Clarkson is the 37th school to drop football the last two years.

Dick Wakefield Will Try One More Fling With Major League Baseball

1941 Bonus Failure To Rejoin Cleveland Club

By F. T. MacFeely

St. Augustine, Fla., Jan. 12. —(AP)— Dick Wakefield plans one more fling at major league baseball before he gives up hope.

Hank Greenberg, Cleveland Indians' general manager, has promised Wakefield he'll get that chance.

"He was the only person in baseball who offered me that opportunity," Wakefield said. "I certainly appreciate it."

Wakefield never became the big major league star the Detroit Tigers expected when they paid him a $50,000 plus bonus in 1941. He has consistently refused to play minor league ball — except for the 1950 season with Oakland in the Pacific Coast League.

He still says it has to be the majors or nothing.

In preparation for the tryout at the Indians' camp in Tucson, Ariz., Wakefield is getting in shape and at the tsame time serving as an instructor in New ork ankee Pitcher Ed Lopat's baseball school here.

Wakefield was serious and matter - of fact as he talked about his baseball past and future. He looked in good trim.

"This is th elast time I'll try to play if I don't make it this year," he said. "Each year you get a year older and it gets that much tougher. I'm 30 now."

While Wakefield thinks he can make the grade with Cleveland, he realizes it will be plenty tough.

"Cleveland has a wonderful group of outfielders — nine of them and only a couple young ones," he said. "It will be hard to beat out veterans who have been playing regularly and who have the added incentive of being a little older and working that much harder."

Baseball has been Wakefield's whole life since Detroit signed him out of the University of Michigan.

"It has given me everything I've got," he said. "I don't know what I'd do without it."

Last summer, when he wasn't active as a player, Wakefield went to the games as a spectator — traveling all over the American league and then watching the World Series. In the fall he saw the big football games.

Assumed Name Used By Player

Tempe, Ariz., Jan. 12. —(AP)—The Phoenix Gazette said today an All-Border Conference tackle at Arizona State College at Tempe had been playing all year under an assumed name.

The paper identified the player as "Edward Andrew" Matesic, registerd at the school as a freshman. His real name is Joseph Matesic, who played on the University of Indiana squad in the 1950 season, the Gazette said.

Dr. Grady Gammage, A. S. C. president, confirmed that one of the school's football players had been found to be registered under the name of "another person," and had left the institution.

Dr. Gammage, who presented the information in a written statement, did not identify the player.

Matesic, a sensation as a freshman here this season, left several days ago for his home in Rankin, Pa. Acquaintances said he planned to enter military service.

The Gazette said that "Edward Andrew" Matesic, a brother of Joseph, lives in Phoenix, Arix., and has been a full - time employe of an industrial concern there for the past two years.

Arizona State College officials began a quiet investigation several weeks ago of unconfirmed reports that one of their football players was not using his proper name.

Dr. Gammage said the investigation is continuing and "appropriate action will be taken."

West Monroe's Ed Head Named Mobile Skipper

Mobile, Ala., Jan. 12.—(AP)—Ed Head, former Brooklyn Dodger pitcher, will manage the 1952 Mobile Bears of the Southern Association.

The announcement was made tonight by John Toomey, president of the newly re-organized Mobile baseball club.

Head, of West Monroe, La., succeeds Paul Chervinko, who piloted the Bears the past three years. Chervinko was released after the 1951 season.

Head comes here from Lancaster, Pa., where he managed that city's entry in the Interstate League the past two seasons. Lancaster finished seventh in 1950 and fifth in 1951.

Head, 34, had to give up pitching in 1947 when his arm went bad suddenly. He gained fame in 1946 when he tossed a no-hit, no-run game against the Boston Braves.

Head finished the 1947 season with St. Paul, and began his managing career with a Canadian team, Three Rivers, in 1948.

WEATHER BALKS PLAY IN CROSBY GOLF SPECTACLE

Second Round Of Play Is Stricken From Card

Pebble Beach, Calif., Jan. 12. —(AP)—The second round of the scheduled 54-hole $10,000 Bing Crosby National Pro-Amateur Golf Tournament was called off today because of the unplayable condition of the rain drenched course.

Larry Crosby, tournament director and brother of the famed crooner who puts on the event annually with profits going to charity, made the announcement after inspecting the sodden Monterey Peninsula Country Club course.

Parts of the course were under water after an all - night rain. Showers continued this morning.

It was decided to cut the tournament to 36 holes. The second and last round will be played tomorrow over the championship Pebble Beach course.

Jimmy Demaret, Ojai, Calif., paced professionals yesterday with a first round score of 74, two over par for the Cypress Point course where the initial 18 holes were played.

Rain and high wind handicapped the first round field and it was the first time in this tournament here that par had not been bettered.

Hand Dictates Way To Play a Suit

By Oswald Jacoby

As I have pointed out once or twice in this column, the right way to play a particular suit very often depends on the nature of the entire hand. The point is illustrated in today's hand.

West opened the six of spades, East put up the queen, and South thought carefully before making his play. If he considered the spade suit all by itself, the best course was to win with the king. Later on, perhaps, his jack - nine would produce a second spade trick.

Because of the nature of the entire hand, however, South played the nine of spades at the first trick. This play limited him to one spade trick.

North	East	South	West
1 ♣	Pass	2 N.T.	Pass
3 N.T.	Pass	Pass	Pass

Opening lead—♠ 6

East returned a spade, whereupon West took the ace of spades and cleared the suit by leading a third round. Now, however, South could take the club finesse in safety. Whenever East won the king of clubs he could not return a spade.

East actually refused the first club trick, hoping South would commit some imbecility on the theory that the finesse was successful. Declarer avoided the trap by taking the ace and king of diamonds before trying the club finesse again.

Now East had to take his king. He returned a heart, but South went up with the heart ace to cash the queen of diamonds and run the rest of the clubs.

It is easy to see that South would have landed in the soup if he had won the first spade trick. East would have won a club trick and returned a spade, whereupon West would have taken four spade tricks.

If the ace - queen of clubs had been in the South hand, declarer would have won the first spade trick. South would be safe against West if he kept the jack-nine of spades but the point of the hand was that he was not safe against East with that holding.

CARD SENSE

Q—The bidding has been:

West	North	East	South
1 Heart	Double	Pass	?

You, South, hold: Spades J-10-8-7 - -4 -2. Heart 5, Diamonds 3-2, Clubs K-Q-6-2. What do you do?

A—Bid four spades. Your partner should have at least fair support for spades when he doubles one heart. It is almost impossible to construct a hand with which he would have a reasonable takeout double and which will not give you a sound play for four spades.

This jump indicates that your high - card strength is rather limited, since otherwise you would begin with a jump to only two spades.

Today's Question

The bidding is the same as in the question just answered. You, South, hold: Spades K-10-8-7, Heart 5, Diamonds Q-J-3-2, Clubs K-Q-6-2. What do you do?

FAREWELL FOR J. TREADWELLS

Supt. Of Mo. Pacific Accorded Party; Goes To Promotion In Ark.

A farewell Booster party was given in honor of Superintendent and Mrs. J. W. Treadwell Wednesday night, January 2, on the eve of Mr. Treadwell's departure to take over his new duties as superintendent of the Arkansas Division at Little Rock.

Booster Club Secretary P. P. DeRossett, who was in charge of the Guest Book, reported that 400 guests called during the evening.

Mrs. R. H. Dollar, general chairman of the affair, presented Mrs. Treadwell with a beautiful orchid corsage from members of the Booster Club.

M. E. Pickett, acting as Master of Ceremonies, expressed his regret on the Treadwells' departure from our midst, and greeted the incoming superintendent, Gerald M. Holzmann on behalf of the employees.

Mrs. P. A. Poag played several piano selections, and Chief Booster Melvin D. Harkins from Alexandria rendered several vocal selections which were all well received.

Mr. Treadwell was presented with a set of Hartman luggage, and Mrs. Treadwell with a set of American Tourister luggage from employees of the Louisiana — Little Rock Divisions by Trainmaster R. H. Dollar, who said in part: "On behalf of all employees on the Louisiana—Little Rock Divisions, I present you with this token of our sincere appreciation and deep gratification for the wonderful supervisor you have been to us for the past nine years. It is with deepest regret that we lose you, but you will always be in our hearts, and we hope that on your new territory they will be as happy to have you as we have been. You will never have anything but our kindest thoughts and best wishes - and to you, Mrs. Treadwell, we owe a great deal of Mr. Treadwell's success, due to your very pleasing personality, and we certainly hope you also will be happy in your new home."

Mr. Treadwell expressed his deep regrets in leaving Monroe and his sincere good wishes to all employees in the future.

Mr. Pickett then introduced Mr. Holzmann, who replaced Mr. Treadwell as superintendent at Monroe effective January 1. Mr. Holzmann stated that he had a man - sized job cut out for him in replacing Mr. Treadwell, and asked for the cooperation of all to enable the job to be done as we all want it done.

Garland Shell, accompanied by Mrs. Poag, rendered several vocal numbers, including "Lucky Ole Sun" and "Ole Man River."

Mrs. Dollar had on her committee, Mrs. A. J. Speer, Jr., Mrs. L. M. Posey, Mrs. J. F. Serrett, Mrs. C. H. McAmis, Mrs. M. E. Pickett, Mrs. J. G. Keller, and Mrs. F. V. Reitzell. Others extending courtesies were: Mrs. Barney Roe, Mrs. Ralph Speer, Mrs. C. W. Dodgen, Mrs. C. E. Copeland, Mrs. M. R. Hausherr, Mrs. O. R. Bridges, and Mrs. Dorothy Lou McAmis. After the entertainment and presentation proceedings were finished, there was an informal coffee hour, at which these members of the Missouri Pacific Women's Club of Monroe served coffee, sandwiches, and cake.

Boosters attended from as far away as Pine Bluff, Ferriday, and Alexandria. It was a gala affair and the Missouri Pacific Women's Club of Monroe was highly complimented on the success of a job well done.

SEALS FIGHT OVER FEMALES

Los Angeles —(AP)— Alaska's fur seals may not know it, but their private lives are being made public in a study by a University of California zoology professor.

Dr. George A. Bartholomew, Jr., who spent several months on an island north of the Aleutian group, reports that the seals have a harem arrangement with a dominant bull keeping anywhere from 2 to 50 females—and their pups. The harem is maintained by fighting off the challenge of other bulls.

Each summer the bull must start all over again and line up a new harem because during the other seasons the seals live on the high seas—females coming as far south as Southern California, Dr. Bartholomew said. When bulls get interested in fighting over females they will sometimes go without food or drink for six to eight weeks.

SPARKS GIVES PLATFORM PLAN

Eight Salient Points Are Outlined As Objective If Elected

James D. 'Jim' Sparks, independent candidate for state senator from Jackson and Ouachita parishes, Saturday formally announced his program. The eight-point platform contains the basic principles on which Sparks will work if elected to the post.

The candidate has lived in Ouachita parish all of his life except the time spent in the armed forces. He was graduated from Ouachita Parish High School in 1927 and obtained his law degree from Washington and Lee University. Later he attended the law school at Louisiana State University and was admitted to the state bar in 1933. Since that time he has practiced his profession in Monroe.

In 1942 Sparks volunteered for service with the United States navy and was assigned to a torpedo squadron based aboard the aircraft carrier U. S. S. Belleau Wood. He was later transferred to the aircraft carrier U. S. S. Yorktown. He saw service overseas in the Pacific theater for several years. Just before the end of the war he was rotated back to the states and was stationed in Florida where he was in charge of a large gunnery school. At the close of the war he returned to Monroe and resumed his practice of law and is now actively engaged in the practice thereof. When discharged from active duty with the naval forces, Sparks was a lieutenant commander, a rank which he still holds with the United States naval reserve.

Sparks is married to the former Miss Lillie Thompson and is the father of two children. He is a member of Grace Episcopal Church and has worked closely with the Red Cross, Community Chest, Chamber of Commerce and other civic organizations.

Offering himself as a candidate for the first time, Sparks is pledged to advancing the interests of the people of Jackson and Ouachita parishes.

Sparks' platform is as follows:

"1. I am an independent candidate. I want and will appreciate the support and vote of every voter regardless of political factions. I will work with the next governor regardless of whom the people see fit to choose.

"2. I believe that a senator should be independent and that the interests of all of the people of his district and the welfare of the state should determine his vote upon any bill introduced in the senate.

"3. I am against any increase in taxes. I believe the taxes are too high and should be reduced wherever possible. I am in favor of a fair taxation policy.

"4. I am in favor of an old age pension. I believe that the old age and welfare fund should be administered fairly and impartially, and that only those genuinely entitled to its benefits should be on the rolls.

"5. I am a lifelong resident of the territory comprising the thirtieth senatorial district and will work for the needs and desires of this area.

"6. I have always been in favor of our present educational system and will use my best efforts to improve that system wherever possible. I am in favor of adequate appropriations for educational purposes because I believe that the future welfare of this country depends upon a trained and educated citizenship. I am in favor of adequate appropriations for Northeast Louisiana State College.

"7. I am in favor of improving our road system, both with reference to main thoroughfares and farm-to-market roads.

I am in favor of a real civil service system fairly and impartially administered. I believe that the people should vote upon this subject and that civil service should be constitutionally protected."

When Nat To Make A Canasta

By Oswald Jacoby
Written for NEA Service

When you have made your first canasta, don't be in a hurry to use up a wild card in the attempt to make a second canasta.

That wild card may be more useful to you in melding out or in freezing the pack. As long as you keep a deuce or a joker in your hand, you can choose your tactics; once you have melded it, your play is forced.

Suppose, for example, that both sides have melded canastas and have melded fairly freely. The opponents have a canasta of aces, and you have a canasta of kings. Your side also has a meld of five queens and a joker.

At this time there are about a dozen cards left in the stock pile, and each player has seven or eight cards in his hand. You draw from the stock and then hold:

A-A J-J 9 3-2

You haven't seen any nines or jacks, so it would be dangerous to discard one of those cards. You can't discard an ace, because that would give the pack away at once. (You are following the official rules, of course, so the opponent at your left can pick up a card that matches his closed canasta.)

Should you meld the deuce to complete the canasta of queens? You will then have one safe discard—the black three.

The answer is that you should not meld that deuce. Just discard the black three and await developments.

If your next draw is an ace or a jack you can meld out, provided you keep the deuce in your hand. You may be able to use the deuce to take the pack at your next turn, if an opponent throws a nine.

If your next draw is a safe discard, you can throw it and maintain your position. That would have been possible of course, even if you had melded the deuce. But if your next draw is an unsafe discard, you can use your deuce to freeze the pack.

Then your aces will be safe discards, and you can probably last until the end. You will give up the canasta of queens, to be sure, but the ability to play safe may save you two or three thousand points.

Hand Dictates Way To Play a Suit

By Oswald Jacoby

As I have pointed out once or twice in this column, the right way to play a particular suit very often depends on the nature of the entire hand. The point is illustrated in today's hand.

West opened the six of spades, East put up the queen, and South thought carefully before making his play. If he considered the spade suit all by itself, the best course was to win with the king. Later on, perhaps, his jack - nine would produce a second spade trick.

Because of the nature of the entire hand, however, South played the nine of spades at the first trick. This play limited him to one spade trick.

North-South vul.

North	East	South	West
1 ♣	Pass	2 N. T.	Pass
3 N. T.	Pass	Pass	Pass

Opening lead—♠ 6

East returned a spade, whereupon West took the ace of spades and cleared the suit by leading a third round. Now, however, South could take the club finesse in safety. Whenever East won the king of clubs he could not return a spade.

East actually refused the first club trick, hoping South would commit some imbecility on the theory that the finesse was successful. Declarer avoided the trap by taking the ace and king of diamonds before trying the club finesse again.

Now East had to take his king. He returned a heart, but South went up with the heart ace to cash the queen of diamonds and run the rest of the clubs.

It is easy to see that South would have landed in the soup if he had won the first spade trick. East would have won a club trick and returned a spade, whereupon West would have taken four spade tricks.

If the ace - queen of clubs had been in the South hand, declarer would have won the first spade trick. South would be safe against West if he kept the jack-nine of spades but the point of the hand was that he was not safe against East with that holding.

CARD SENSE

Q—The bidding has been:

West	North	East	South
1 Heart	Double	Pass	?

You, South, hold: Spades J-10-8-ware. 7 - -4 -2, Heart 5, Diamonds 3-2, Clubs K-Q-6-2. What do you do?

A—Bid four spades. Your partner should have at least fair support for spades when he doubles one heart. It is almost impossible to construct a hand with which he would have a reasonable takeout double and which will not give you a sound play for four spades.

This jump indicates that your high - card strength is rather limited, since otherwise you would begin with a jump to only two spades.

Today's Question

The bidding is the same as in the question just answered. You, South, hold: Spades K-10-8-7, Heart 5, Diamonds Q-J-3-2, Clubs K-Q-6-2. What do you do?

FAREWELL FOR J. TREADWELLS

Supt. Of Mo. Pacific Accorded Party; Goes To Promotion In Ark.

A farewell Booster party was given in honor of Superintendent and Mrs. J. W. Treadwell Wednesday night, January 2, on the eve of Mr. Treadwell's departure to take over his new duties as superintendent of the Arkansas Division at Little Rock.

Booster Club Secretary P. P. DeRossett, who was in charge of the Guest Book, reported that 400 guests called during the evening.

Mrs. R. H. Dollar, general chairman of the affair, presented Mrs. Treadwell with a beautiful orchid corsage from members of the Booster Club.

M. E. Pickett, acting as Master of Ceremonies, expressed his regret on the Treadwells' departure from our midst, and greeted the incoming superintendent, Gerald M. Holzmann on behalf of the employees.

Mrs. P. A. Poag played several piano selections, and Chief Booster Melvin D. Harkins from Alexandria rendered several vocal selections which were all well received.

Mr. Treadwell was presented with a set of Hartman luggage, and Mrs. Treadwell with a set of American Tourister luggage from employees of the Louisiana — Little Rock Divisions by Trainmaster R. H. Dollar, who said in part: "On behalf of all employees on the Louisiana—Little Rock Divisions, I present you with this token of our sincere appreciation and deep gratification for the wonderful supervisor you have been to us for the past nine years. It is with deepest regret that we lose you, but you will always be in our hearts, and we hope that on your new territory they will be as happy to have you as we have been. You will never have anything but our kindest thoughts and best wishes - and to you, Mrs. Treadwell, we owe a great deal of Mr. Treadwell's success, due to your very pleasing personality, and we certainly hope you also will be happy in your new home."

Mr. Treadwell expressed his deep regrets in leaving Monroe and his sincere good wishes to all employees in the future.

Mr. Pickett then introduced Mr. Holzmann, who replaced Mr. Treadwell as superintendent at Monroe effective January 1. Mr. Holzmann stated that he had a man - sized job cut out for him in replacing Mr. Treadwell, and asked for the cooperation of all to enable the job to be done as we all want it done.

Garland Shell, accompanied by Mrs. Poag, rendered several vocal numbers, including "Lucky Ole Sun" and "Ole Man River."

Mrs. Dollar had on her committee, Mrs. A. J. Speer, Jr., Mrs. L. M. Posey, Mrs. J. F. Serrett, Mrs. C. H. McAmis, Mrs. M. E. Pickett, Mrs. J. G. Keller, and Mrs. F. V. Reitzell. Others extending courtesies were: Mrs. Barney Roe, Mrs. Ralph Speer, Mrs. C. W. Dodgen, Mrs. C. E. Copeland, Mrs. M. R. Hausherr, Mrs. O. R. Bridges, and Mrs. Dorothy Lou McAmis. After the entertainment and presentation proceedings were finished, there was an informal coffee hour, at which these members of the Missouri Pacific Women's Club of Monroe served coffee, sandwiches, and cake.

Boosters attended from as far away as Pine Bluff, Ferriday, and Alexandria. It was a gala affair and the Missouri Pacific Women's Club of Monroe was highly complimented on the success of a job well done.

a minimum of $30 a year. Kennon added that if he is elected, persons making less than $5,000 a year would be exempt from state income taxes.

Spaht spoke in Amite and Kentwood Saturday and said that the major criticism of him by other candidates is that he is supported by Gov. Earl Long and the state administration.

"However," he said, "the worst critics are those who have been part of the present administration. Every single one of them has tried to get administration support but the governor had good and specific reason for not endorsing them."

Spaht said that the working people of Louisiana can depend on a fair treatment from his administration.

"I've never known them to ask for anything more than a square deal and they know I'll give them that."

McLemore in a statement in the New Orleans Times - Picayune tonight, said:

"Louisiana citizens will let the Trumanites and the corrupt politicians know once and for all next Tuesday how they feel about waste, graft and corruption in our federal and state governments.

"I believe with all my heart that an overwhelming number of the voters are with me in the fight to restore good government to our state. I am counting on the people whom I have met during this campaign to go to the polls and show the Trumanites, the Longites, and the gamblers that this citizens revolt of ours is a might crusade which they cannot stop by threats, rumors, lies, and rotten money."

Lt. Gov. William Dodd told a Galliano, La., audience that campaign capers by some candidates "places the gubernatorial race in an unfavorable light."

He said that his bid for the governorship has been on the basis of talking issues, qualifications and experience and not on the basis of personalities and manufactured political venom.

JES' RAMBLIN'

Blewster, Mrs. Harry Hebert.

January 18—R. H. Woods, Bobby May, Walter Guy Causey, Mrs. Aline Banister.

January 19—Mrs. C. E. Thornhill, Terry Lane Noland, Edwin Edelen, Mrs. Harry Tisdale.

Jan. 21—Mrs. Vivian McCallum.

In the primary to be held Tuesday, there is deep interest in the election of men for the police jury here and the candidates are more numerous than ever, the political "bug" seemingly having bitten many citizens. Even now on the eve of the election many are not just sure who is running so we will give the list for the convenience of voters. It is thus:

Ward 1—F. G. Studdard, Jeff Spence, Rickard L. Venable.

Ward 2—W. J. Vinson.

Ward 3—John Yarbrough, M. E. DuPont, Wilds Ross, C. S. Causey, T. D. Tillman, Lawrence B. Pettit, Mitchell W. Montgomery, W. G. Worley, John T. Logan, R. R. Eppinette, S. B. Hunt, A. M. Rizzo, Cecil Hill, H. Austin Miller, V. W. Cummings. (Vote for three).

Ward 4—C. A. Kincaid, Lincoln Telano, O. A. Barnes, Will F. Hostler.

Ward 5—Tom E. Hicks, Prentice Avant, B. A. Gentry, G. F. Swayze, Luther Reed, Sr., T. O. Dowdy, R. H. Chatham, Jack Russell, Joe E. Johnson, George P. Harrell, Dallas R. Mims, G. A. Hefley, Herman Wink, Ray Purcell, Sr., A. J. Lester, Fred Reagan, Moss Bayless, Ollie C. Carter, Robert L. Rhodes. (Vote for three).

Yes, there is a Santa Claus and also there is a puma, jaguar, youthful tiger or some other wild and exceedingly ferocious animal that is disrupting sleep in Shreveport!

That wild animal has devoured small pigs in several big swallows and killed chickens better than any weasel could ever do and the uproar that marked each and every death alarmed the whole countryside. After two weeks of desperate hunting by police, state officers and guardsmen, the Shreveport Journal Friday came out with a big statement on page one that the whole thing was a publicity stunt and that there was no wild animal loose.

But Saturday morning's Times comes out with a page one story that tells that the presence of a real honest to goodness puma is indeed active in the hours of night. It is said to be in the Lakeside park area where a trained hunting dog was clawed to pieces. The animal responsible for the slaughter was definitely "diagnosed" as a puma by H. B. Wright, curator of the Louisiana State Exhibit museum.

Looks like Shreveport is in for some more lively hunting.

Mr. Rubin urged each "old timer" to pay $1 for registration as soon as possible to S. C. Nettles, Sid Moore, Robert Cowden, Morris Haas, Jr., John Bailey or to him. It is imperative that registration be made at once so that the committee may anticipate the attendance and make necessary plans, it was said.

The coming meeting assumes additional importance, Rubin pointed out, in view of the effort to stimulate activity in the local post since the state convention of the American Legion will be held in Monroe sometime during July.

The candidate further promised to double the money which cities and towns are receiving at the present time from the state government.

Henry C. "Hap" Sevier, candidate for attorney general, lashed out at Gov. Long, stating that he couldn't find any man in the state to accept his bid for governor, accompanied by himself as a candidate for Lt. Gov. "He finally picked a man who no one in the state had ever heard of before," said Sevier.

"Carlos Spaht would only be a stooge in the governor's chair," asserted Sevier. Knocking at Hale Boggs, Sevier stated that he was Harry Truman's candidate in the race and further that Dudley LeBlanc, "the medicine man," couldn't administer the state government, nor could James McLemore, Alexandria cattleman.

Sevier urged the assembled crowd to elect men to state offices who knew how to run the government. "We are a ticket of experienced candidates."

Woodrow Overton, former state representative from east Feliciana parish, took the stand in favor of the Dodd ticket stating that he had gone to school with Bill Dodd and knew him to be an upstanding man, whose main reason in seeking the governor's chair was to serve the people.

Garey, Sevier, and Overton also spoke in Rayville, Delhi, Epps, Pioneer, Oak Grove, Chatham, and Jonesboro.

FRED T. KING JR.

CANDIDATE KING GIVES PLATFORM

Promises To Work For Expansion Of Northeast College Here

Fred T. King, Jr., native of Ouachita parish, and a life-long resident of West Monroe, who is seeking the post of state representative, formally announces in the News-Star—World his platform of candidacy.

King, who is well-known throughout his native parish is a veteran of World War II. He served fourteen months in the south Pacific with the naval air detachment. He is a graduate of Ouachita Parish High School and is currently engaged in the study of law at Northeastern Louisiana State College.

In entering the race for state representative, King stated "I am thoroughly capable and qualified to handle this important post because twenty seven years of residence and an earnest interest in the people of Ouachita parish, plus several years in public relations work have aroused my interest in the needs of the people."

King is basing his platform upon the following eight points that he considers vital to the people:

1—Closer unity and more understanding between labor and business. . . . A fair deal for all.

2—Bigger and better four year college for Monroe and northeast Louisiana, working toward a university level.

3—Favor old age pension and subsidy for the aged and needy.

4—Stabilized economy in government procedure with a view of lowering taxes.

5—Fair industrial tax to encourage new industries for Ouachita parish.

6—More state assistance for better drainage and better roads.

7—Repeal of two cents gasoline tax and three cents cigarette tax.

8—Encourage the growth of agriculture and allied interest in the Ouachita valley.

A member of the Trinity Baptist Church of West Monroe, King resides with his wife, the former Cathy McCain and their young daughter, Kendra Kay at 414 Smith St., West Monroe.

REDS, ALLIES IN TRUCE DISPUTE

Negotiators Wrangling Over Rebuilding Of Red Airfields

Munsan, Korea, Sunday, Jan. 13. —(AP)—Allied and Communist negotiators appeared willing Saturday to yield slightly on the critical issue of rebuilding North Korean airfields—a major block in the truce talks.

New sessions were begun at Panmunjom today at 11 a.m., (9 p.m., EST, Saturday).

The question of building and repairing airfields in Red Korea is the last remaining issue before the subcommittee considering supervision of an armistice.

Freedom of choice in repatriation is a major issue in the other subcommittee considering exchange of prisoners of war.

In this United Nations command advance camp, the feeling grew that both sides might give a little on their deadlocked positions regarding airfields.

The Reds already have shown some signs of modifying their stand. On Dec. 2, their chief delegate, North Korean General Nam Il, said emphatically the North Koreans would rebuild military airfields during the armistice.

Since then, the Communist chief sub-delegate, Chinese Maj. Gen. Hsieh Fang, has toned that down by saying maybe the Communists would rebuild their airfields and maybe not. It is their business, he said.

(The Peiping radio, in a broadcast heard by the Associated Press in Tokyo, said the Communist delegates were proposing "that no reinforcements of combat aircraft be brought into Korea from the outside."

(The broadcast added that the Red delegates were seeking the "same assurance" from the Allies.)

The Allied sub-delegate, Air Force Maj. Gen. Howard M. Turner, indicated Saturday a clear statement from the Reds on the issue might make way for successfully terminating the truce talks.

Newsmen felt a statement in the conference tent that the Communists would not rehabilitate military airfields would be acceptable to the United Nations command.

Feeling was strong that when such a statement was put in the conference record it would not have to be incorporated in the armistice agreement. And this would give both sides a face-saving way out.

The Allies insist that military airfields on both sides be left as they are during an armistice.

After Saturday's meeting, Turner pointedly omitted his usual comment of the last two weeks that "no progress" was made in the discussions.

TWO KILLED

hemorrhage, Dr. French said.

The young child died as the result of a fractured skull and crushed chest, according to the coroner.

The extent of the Laster family's injuries were still undertermined last night, but all were listed as "critical."

Investigating officers said that Laster was driving a 1950 Chevrolet south on the Country Club Road and Mrs. Dean going east on the Loop Road about noon when they collided at the intersection. She was driving a 1946 Packard sedan. Both of the automobiles were demolished.

Also hospitalized in the West Monroe wreck besides Anderson and Carson were M. L. Womack, J. Whitman, and Theo Shizely of Hodge, who suffered lacerations and bruises. Womack was released from the St. Francis Sanitarium last night and taken to a hospital in Hodge. The attending physician said Shizely was still in the hospital lastnight, but he planned to release him today.

Womack was reported to have been driving a 1946 Plymouth sedan south on the Jonesboro Road. The automobile turned over several times when it failed to make a sharp curve shortly after 5:15 a.m.

State police said the accident occurred on the Jonesboro Road approximately 100 feet west of the West Monroe city limits. Troopers said Womack was apparently travelling at a fast rate of speed.

The officers also said that charges of operating a vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquors, property damage and personal injury will be filed against Womack.

The automobile which he was driving was reported to have belonged to G. A. Anderson of Hodge. It was demolished in the accident.

Funeral services for Mrs. Dean will be held today at 3 p.m. at the Peter's Funeral Home chapel with the Rev. H. L. Samson, pastor of the Park Avenue Baptist Church, officiating. Interment will follow in the Riverview cemetery.

She is survived by her husband Joseph H. Dean, with the army in Austria, father, Luther Reed, Sr., one brother, Luther Reed, Jr., Atlanta, Ga.; two nieces, Lola Ann Reed and Susan Day Reed; and grandmother, Mrs. Ella Reed, Monroe.

Pallbearers will be Gervis Coates, George Bubb, Stanley Burton, George Thompson, Gerald Crow, and Joe Gimler.

Funeral arrangements for the Laster child were incomplete, but will be under the direction of the Kilpatrick Funeral Home of Farmerville.

Ambulances from Hall and Mulhearn Funeral Homes took the injured to the St. Francis Sanitarium.

Nine British Consulates In Iran Closed

Tehran, Iran., Jan. 12. —(AP)— Iran today ordered all nine British consulates and vice - consulates in Iran closed by Jan. 21, and jailed an Iranian citizen who has been acting correspondent of the British news agency Reuters.

Correspondent Ghegham Megerdichian was arrested on orders from the justice ministry. The secretary to the Tehran prosecutor said Megerdichian was charged with false reporting and threatening the sovereignty of the country. The secretary said the case is being investigaged further.

Megerdichian has reported Reuters here since Correspondent Leopold Herman, a European, was expelled by Iran last month.

(In London, Reuters said Megerdichian had been hired originally as a part - time translater but had been sending out news recently pending the arrival of another Reuters staff man in Tehran.)

A British embassy spokesman said all efforts to make contact with Megerdichian were unavailing.

Recently he had been under attack by government spokesmen who charged him with false reporting and being an agent for the Anglo-Iranian Oil Co. (A. I. O. C.), whose properties in Iran have been nationalized. Megerdichian denied the accusations.

Four foreign correspondents, three British and one American, have been expelled by Premier Mohammed Mossadegh' government in the past six months.

The demand that the British close their consulates was made in a note from the foreign ministry to Sir Francis Shepherd, British ambassador. It said:

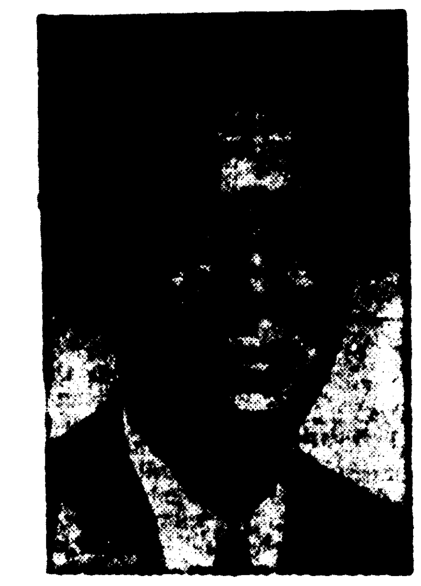
"The Iranian government can no longer tolerate the unpleasant manner of interference of British government officials in the domestic affairs of Iran."

AMERICAN AUTOS IN EXHIBIT

Brussels —(AP)— More than 80 makes of cars will occupy 184 displays at the Brussels Automobile Show opening here in January. Twenty-six British, 20 American, 14 German and 12 French makes of cars will be on display.

Motorscooter and cycle displays will rise from 96 last year to 120. Automobile accessories will require 218 displays.

A. E. MONTGOMERY ASKS RE-ELECTION TO POLICE JURY WARD 10



MONTGOMERY'S PAST RECORD MERITS Your Continued Support.

He has been elected president of the Police Jury of Ouachita parish for the past six years without opposition.

ACCOMPLISHMENTS ●

During the past few years, 83 miles of major drainage canals and several miles of lateral canals have been constructed. 80 miles of road has been blacktopped. All of this has been done without any additional taxes imposed on property owners.

If re-elected, I pledge myself to carry on this needed improvement and I am opposed to calling any election to vote additional taxes on the citizens of Ouachita parish. "In my opinion, by good management, we can operate efficiently on the monies collected from our present assessment, and from the funds we receive from the gasoline tax."

I am deeply appreciative of the co-operation of my fellow members of the police jury—officials of the state, the cities of Monroe and West Monroe, and the citizens of Ouachita parish. "Without this help, important projects undertaken by the jury, could not have been accomplished."

I particularly ask, that if I am honored by re-election as a member of the police jury, that I be given [illegible] and counsel as to matters concerning the needs of the people of my ward and parish. Three members of the jury are to be elected from Ward 10, and I [illegible] solicit your support, and ask that I be one of [illegible] "I am a native Louisianian, and have [illegible] parish for the past 51 years. a minimum of $20 a year. Kennon added that if he is elected, persons making less than $5,000 a year would be exempt from state income taxes.

Spaht spoke in Amite and Kentwood Saturday and said that the major criticism of him by other candidates is that he is supported by Gov. Earl Long and the state administration.

"However," he said, "the worst critics are those who have been part of the present administration. Every single one of them has tried to get administration support but the governor had good and specific reason for not endorsing them."

Spaht said that the working people of Louisiana can depend on a fair treatment from his administration.

"I've never known them to ask for anything more than a square deal and they know I'll give them that."

McLemore in a statement in the New Orleans Times - Picayune tonight, said:

"Louisiana citizens will let the Trumanites and the corrupt politicians know once and for all next Tuesday how they feel about waste, graft and corruption in our federal and state governments.

"I believe with all my heart that an overwhelming number of the voters are with me in the fight to restore good government to our state. I am counting on the people whom I have met during this campaign to go to the polls and show the Trumanites, the Longites, and the gamblers that this citizens revolt of ours is a might crusade which they cannot stop by threats, rumors, lies, and rotten money."

Lt. Gov. William Dodd told a Galliano, La., audience that campaign capers by some candidates "places the gubernatorial race in an unfavorable light."

He said that his bid for the governorsnip has been on the basis of talking issues, qualifications and experience and not on the basis of personalities and manufactured political venom.

REDS, ALLIES IN TRUCE DISPUTE

Negotiators Wrangling Over Rebuilding Of Red Airfields

Munsan, Korea, Sunday, Jan. 13.—(AP)—Allied and Communist negotiators appeared willing Saturday to yield slightly on the critical issue of rebuilding North Korean airfields—a major block in the truce talks.

New sessions were begun at Panmunjom today at 11 a.m., (9 p.m., EST, Saturday).

The question of building and repairing airfields in Red Korea is the last remaining issue before the subcommittee considering supervision of an armistice.

Freedom of choice in repatriation is a major issue in the other subcommittee considering exchange of prisoners of war.

In this United Nations command advance camp, the feeling grew that both sides might give a little on their deadlocked positions regarding airfields.

The Reds already have shown some signs of modifying their stand. On Dec. 2, their chief delegate, North Korean General Nam Il, said emphatically the North Koreans would rebuild military airfields during the armistice.

Since then, the Communist chief sub-delegate, Chinese Maj. Gen. Hsieh Fang, has toned that down by saying maybe the Communists would rebuild their airfields and maybe not. It is their business, he said.

(The Peiping radio, in a broadcast heard by the Associated Press in Tokyo, said the Communist delegates were proposing "that no reinforcements of combat aircraft be brought into Korea from the outside."

(The broadcast added that the Red delegates were seeking the "same assurance" from the Allies.)

The Allied sub-delegate, Air Force Maj. Gen. Howard M. Turner, indicated Saturday a clear statement from the Reds on the issue might make way for successfully terminating the truce talks.

Newsmen felt a statement in the conference tent that the Communists would not rehabilitate military airfields would be acceptable to the United Nations command.

Feeling was strong that when such a statement was put in the conference record it would not have to be incorporated in the armistice agreement. And this would give both sides a face-saving way out.

The Allies insist that military airfields on both sides be left as they are during an armistice.

After Saturday's meeting, Turner pointedly omitted his usual comment of the last two weeks that "no progress" was made in the discussions.

hemorrhage, Dr. French said.

The young child died as the result of a fractured skull and crushed chest, according to the coroner.

The extent of the Laster family's injuries were still undertermined last night, but all were listed as "critical."

Investigating officers said that Laster was driving a 1950 Chevrolet south on the Country Club Road and Mrs. Dean going east on the Loop Road about noon when they collided at the intersection. She was driving a 1946 Packard sedan. Both of the automobiles were demolished.

Also hospitalized in the West Monroe wreck besides Anderson and Carson were M. L. Womack, 31, Whitman, and Theo Shizely of Hodge, who suffered lacerations and bruises. Womack was released from the St. Francis Sanitarium last night and taken to a hospital in Hodge. The attending physician said Shizely was still in the hospital lastnight, but he planned to release him today.

Womack was reported to have been driving a 1946 Plymouth sedan south on the Jonesboro Road. The automobile turned over several times when it failed to make a sharp curve shortly after 5:15 a.m.

State police said the accident occurred on the Jonesboro Road approximately 100 feet west of the West Monroe city limits. Troopers said Womack was apparently travelling at a fast rate of speed.

The officers also said that charges of operating a vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquors, property damage and personal injury will be filed against Womack.

The automobile which he was driving was reported to have belonged to G. A. Anderson of Hodge. It was demolished in the accident.

Funeral services for Mrs. Dean will be held today at 3 p.m. at the Peter's Funeral Home chapel with the Rev. H. L. Samson, pastor of the Park Avenue Baptist Church, officiating. Interment will follow in the Riverview cemetery.

She is survived by her husband, Joseph H. Dean, with the army in Austria, father, Luther Reed, Sr., one brother, Luther Reed, Jr., Atlanta, Ga.; two nieces, Lola Ann Reed and Susan Day Reed; and grandmother, Mrs. Ella Reed, Monroe.

Pallbearers will be Gervis Coates, George Bubb, Stanley Burton, George Thompson, Gerald Crow, and Joe Gimler.

Funeral arrangements for the Laster child were incomplete, but will be under the direction of the Kilpatrick Funeral Home of Farmerville.

Ambulances from Hall and Mulhearn Funeral Homes took the injured to the St. Francis Sanitarium.

Nine British Consulates In Iran Closed

Tehran, Iran., Jan. 12. —(AP)— Iran today ordered all nine British consulates and vice - consulates in Iran closed by Jan. 21, and jailed an Iranian citizen who has been acting correspondent of the British news agency Reuters.

Correspondent Ghegham Megerdichian was arrested on orders from the justice ministry. The secretary to the Tehran prosecutor said Megerdichian was charged with false reporting and threatening the sovereignty of the country. The secretary said the case is being investigaged further.

Megerdichian has reported Reuters here since Correspondent Leopold Herman, a European, was expelled by Iran last month.

(In London, Reuters said Megerdichian had been hired originally as a part - time translator but had been sending out news recently pending the arrival of another Reuters staff man in Tehran.)

A British embassy spokesman said all efforts to make contact with Megerdichian were unavailing.

Recently he had been under attack by government spokesmen who charged him with false reporting and being an agent for the Anglo-Iranian Oil Co. (A. I. O. C.), whose properties in Iran have been nationalized. Megerdichian denied the accusations.

Four foreign correspondents, three British and one American, have been expelled by Premier Mohammed Mossadegh' government in the past six months.

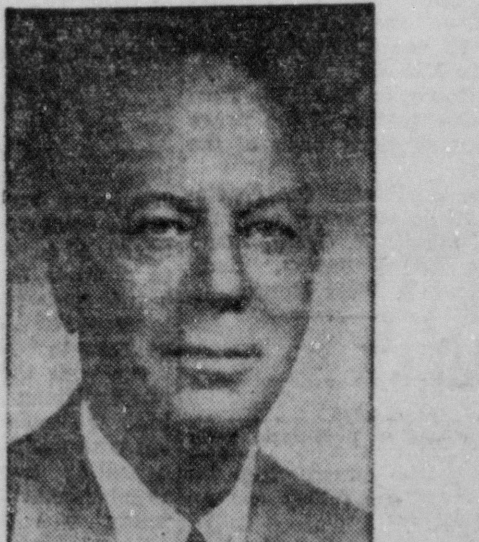
The demand that the British close their consulates was made in a note from the foreign ministry to Sir Francis Shepherd, British ambassador. It said:

"The Iranian government can no longer tolerate the unpleasant manner of interference of British government officials in the domestic affairs of Iran."

AMERICAN AUTOS IN EXHIBIT

Brussels —(AP)— More than 80 makes of cars will occupy 184 displays at the Brussels Automobile Show opening here in January. Twenty-six British, 20 American, 14 German and 12 French makes of cars will be on display.

Motorscooter and cycle displays will rise from 96 last year to 120. Automobile accessories will require 218 displays.



A. E. MONTGOMERY
ASKS RE-ELECTION TO POLICE JURY
WARD 10

MONTGOMERY'S
PAST RECORD
Support.

He has been elected president of the Police Jury of Ouachita parish for the past six years without opposition.

ACCOMPLISHMENTS

During the past few years, 83 miles of major drainage canals and several miles of lateral canals have been constructed. 80 miles of road has been blacktopped. All of this has been done without any additional taxes imposed on property owners.

If re-elected, I pledge myself to carry on this needed improvement and I am opposed to calling any election to vote additional taxes on the citizens of Ouachita parish. "In my opinion, by good management, we can operate efficiently on the monies collected from our present assessment, and from the funds we receive from the gasoline tax."

I am deeply appreciative of the co-operation of my fellow members of the police jury—officials of the state, the cities of Monroe and West Monroe, and the citizens of Ouachita parish. "Without this help, important projects under way could not have been accomplished."

I particularly ask, that if I am honored by re-election as a member of the police jury, that I be given suggestions and counsel as to matters concerning the needs of the people of my ward and parish. Three members of the jury are to be elected from Ward 10, and I earnestly solicit your support, and ask that I be one of them.

"I am a native Louisianaian, and have lived in Ouachita parish for the past 51 years. A veteran of World War I myself and have a son now on active duty with the Marine Corps in Korea.

Truman's projected blueprint will be reduced to nearer 10 billions, by the administration's count, if congress approves his tax reforms and the nation's economy continues to expand.

Briefly, here are some major points in the "loophole" program which Mr. Truman has proposed unsuccessfully in the past, and may plump harder for this year:

1—Oil producers are permitted now to deduct 27½ per cent of their gross income for the drain on their resources. The administration wants to cut that to 15 per cent to raise up to 500 million dollars more annually.

2—Profits from sale of property, stocks and bonds, are taxed now at an effective rate of 26 per cent. The administration wants the rate raised to 37½ per cent, to produce another 400 millions in revenue.

3—The administration has proposed that taxes be withheld at the source on income from dividends and interests, adding about 350 million dollars.

4—The administration wants a stiffer program for taxing life insurance companies.

5—Most of the income from state and local securities is now exempt from federal taxes. The administration has proposed that income from afuture issues be taxed.

6—Estate and gift taxes. The administration has contended that more money should be raised in this field by removing alleged inequities and increasing rates.

er for the meeting will be Robert J. Bayer, editor of the publication, Traffic World, as well as Dean of the College of Advanced Traffic in Chicago, and feature writer for the Dallas News. Bayer is one of the most well-versed men in transportation in the world. A colorful personality, his address will be entitled, "Men and Transportation In the Future."

Among the distinguished guests at the meeting will be W. N. Deramus, president of the Kansas City Southern Railroad, from Kansas City; W. G. Vollmer, president of the Texas & Pacific Railroad, from Dallas, H. E. Stringer, assistant to the chairman, National Association of Shippers Advisory Boards, from Washington, D. C.; F. A. Leffingwell, secretary of the Southwest Industrial Traffic League and member of the executive committee of the Southwest Shippers advisory board; F. M. Wilson, assistant to the chairman, Association of Western Railroads; from Chicago; Lewis Pilcher, executive vice-chairman of the freight claims section, Association of American Railroads, from Chicago and J. J. Kelley, manager of the military transport section for the Association of American Railroads from Washington, D. C.

In addition to the business meetings at Hotel Frances, the visitors will be entertained at the annual dinner - dance of the Traffic and Transportation Club of Monroe-West Monroe on the roof garden of Hotel Frances at 7 p. m. January 23, and at the main luncheon on the roof garden of the Virginia Hotel at noon January 24, sponsored by the Rotary Club of Monroe and the Traffic Club. Both these affairs will be by reservation. Tickets will go on sale at the respective hotels this coming week.

The Southwest Shippers advisory board is an organization designed to promote through cooperation a better understanding of the problems of transportation of mutual concern to both shippers and carriers with the ultimate objective of developing and maintaining the highest standard of service consistent with business requirements and operating possibilities. The last regular meeting of the advisory board was held in September, 1951, at the Hotel Adolphus in Dallas. The Monroe sessions mark the eighty-ninth regular meeting.

Plans are now in progress to make this meeting the board's most successful, Easterling said.

PEREZ

since "token votes" presumably also would be cast for the other eight candidates. Against this, the revelation that McLemore, who has been a "political purity" campaigner, has become a political companion of Perez is understood to be causing many of his supporters all over the state to swing to other candidates.

McLemore, in his public statement, made through the Associated Press, did not specifically use the word "accept" in relation to the Perez support, but he made no motion toward rejection of the vote or repudiation of support from Perez. Perez, in his statements, did not specifically and personally endorse McLemore. He said that his Plaquemines people wanted McLemore and that "Judge Perez always goes along with his people." He detailed the split in St. Bernard, which is under his jurisdiction as prosecuting attorney and usually has gone along with him politically.

McLemore's public statement said that Plaquemine's support for him would be due to his interest in state's right 1-1 a subject also of interest to Perez he explained actually every candidate in the race except one has endorsed state's rights. [illegible] Judge Kennon [illegible] Grace have at- [illegible] dates except one take the same stand as Boggs and McLemore on this issue.

McLemore, White, Perez and Miss Grace seemed to have their wires crossed in the series of statements hurriedly issued by each as news of the Perez-McLemore arrangement became known. White, in Shreveport, issued a statement that "James McLemore absolutely rejects the support of Leander Perez." As the White statement was made in Shreveport, McLemore and Perez were issuing statements in New Orleans in effect confirming the Perez-Plaquemines support for McLemore. After these were published, White said no more.

In his statement, however, White said Miss Grace wanted to be on the McLemore ticket as candidate for lieutenant - governor but had been turned down. Miss Grace promptly shot back that she had never considered being on the McLemore ticket and wouldn't have been on it if asked.

Perez, who was making statements all through the day, said that Miss Grace had released him and the Plaquemines-St. Bernard political leaders from support for her. Miss Grace promptly said that she had seen Perez only occasionally and casually during the campaign and had never discussed anything but good government with him.

The Times-Picayune today said White had telephoned the following statement to it:

"W. O. White, Shreveport, campaign manager for James McLemore, candidate for governor, is quoted in a statement that McLemore absolutely refuses the support of Leander Perez and always has said 'no' to offers of Perez support, and that McLemore has not made any deals with anybody.

"I called White personally over the telephone and he refused to discuss the statement and I plainly told him he was an insulting S. O. B." I am sure Mr. McLemore knew nothing of the statement by White and there is not a word of truth in the White statement.

"I attribute the White statement possible to his lack of intelligence and the fact that he does not know me personally.

"I want my friends through the state to know that I resent White's statement but do not hold it against McLemore."

Meanwhile, Fred Dent, husband of Miss Grace, said in Baton Rouge that McLemore had telephoned Miss Grace apologizing for White's statements concerning her.

After all of this, indications at McLemore headquarters here seem to be that McLemore would say no more because he already had contradicted his campaign manager and White could say no more because he already had contradicted his candidate. That left it all with McLemore having the Perez support in Plaquemines and partial support from the gambling area of St. Bernard with the candidate in effect accepting Perez on the grounds that both were state's righters.

But there was no question as to their political companionship in next Tuesday's voting.

SOVIET PROPOSES

stuff." They said the provision that inspectors shall not interfere in the domestic affairs of the states would nullify the inspection machinery.

U. S. Ambassador Ernest A. Gross told the political committee the United States would consider the proposal. He suggested the place to discuss it was in the U. N.'s new 12 - nation disarmament commission.

Vishinsky made clear to reporters after the committee adjourned until Monday that he wants the U. N. assembly to proclaim now—at this session — an unconditional ban on atomic bombs. He said, however, that such a ban could not take legal effect under his plan until the control system was declared effective.

"If the Americans wish to continue the production of atomic bombs until the ban is effective they could do so," Vishinsky said, "but they could not legally do it as soon as the control is effective."

Tied up with his plan is the old Russian recommendation, often rejected by the west, for a one-third reduction in the armed forces of the big five powers — the United States, Britain, France, Russia and China.

Vishinsky's proposals on atomic energy in brief were:

1 — The assembly would proclaim an unconditional prohibition of atomic weapons and the establishment of control.

2 — The prohibition and the control would take effect at exactly the same time. Until the control became effective, the prohibition would have only the standing of a recommendation from the assembly.

3—The assembly would recommend that, one month after the decision for the prohibition of atomic bombs and a one-third reduction in armed forces of the big five powers, all countries should submit complete official information on their armaments and armed forces, "including data on atomic weapons and military bases in foreign territories."

4—The assembly would recommend the establishment, within the framework of the security council, of the international organ to supervise the prohibition of atomic weapons and the reduction of armed forces and to verify the data submitted.

COTTON

New York

New York, Jan. 12. —(P)— Trading in cotton futures was quiet today. While price trends were easier, movements were narrow. Hedging and liquidation centered in May and July contracts with this selling absorbed by spot houses on the scale down. The market seemed to await fresh developments, particularly from Washington regarding prices supports on the new crop.

Futures closed 25 cents to $1.15 a bale lower than the previous close.

New Orleans

New Orleans, Jan. 12. —(P)— Cotton futures declined here today under week-end-long liquidation and hedge selling. Closing prices were barely steady 65 cents to 85 cents a bale lower.

Trading was quiet in the short Saturday session. Continued unfavorable textile reports caused some of the easiness. Contracts were absorbed by trade buying and short covering. Middling 15-16 inch spot cotton decline 75 cents a bale to 42.30 cents a pound. Local spot sales amounted to 1,151 bales.

the Twin Cities, has made lasting effects on the citizenry of the communities. He will be awarded a certificate and key, and his name will be entered in national competition for the outstanding young man of the United States.

Past awards have been made to R. C. White, Jr., who served as state representative and who is now a prisoner of war held by the Chinese Communists in Korea; Fred Fudickar, Jr., presently district attorney for the fourth judicial district and well-known as an outstanding public offical; and Bailey Grant, sheriff of Ouachita parish, who last year went on to receive the award as outstanding young man of the state of Louisiana for 1950, and who is now being considered for the national award as one of the ten outstanding young men of the United States.

The judges of this award are governed by the rules set up by the National Junior Chamber of Commerce, and competition for the award is conducted according to the forms and data of the national organization.

Charlton Lyons, the evening's guest speaker, has created the reputation of being an entertaining and informative after dinner speaker. He is a senior partner of Lyons, Prentiss and McCord, drilling contractors and oil operators in Shreveport.

Master of ceremonies will be Lloyd E. Lenard, immediate past president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

KMLB has secured a hook-up with six major radio stations in leading cities throughout the state and will carry broadcasts from each throughout the evening, beginning at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday.

The leading radio stations in New Orleans, Baton Rouge, Alexandria, Lafayette, Lake Charles and Shreveport will provide KMLB with on the spot broadcasts on election returns. Beside the local reports broadcast from the Morning World, KMLB will have a mobile unit which will carry broadcasts of interviews of the candidates from their headquarters in New Orleans over station WDSU in New Orleans.

Returns from the other cities will be carried at various intervals.

KMLB and KLIC will carry the latest and most complete election returns as they are compiled throughout the state and will carry local and northeast Louisiana returns compiled by the World and News-Star.

TRUMAN

the administration shouldn't stick its neck out needlessly on behalf of another tax boost since chances of enactment are so dim.

Key congress members of both parties have said that barring all-out war there will be no general tax hike this year.

This reported decision by Mr. Truman would mean abandonment of his repeatedly proclaimed goal by pay-as-we-go financing of the mounting defense effort.

Responsible officials said the president's budget message, due to go to congress Jan. 21, will outline a whopping spending program of about 85 billion dollars for the fiscal year starting next July 1.

Present tax laws are estimated to bring in about 70 billion dollars during the year. That would indicate a deficit of about 15 billions, an unprecedented red ink entry except in all-out war years.

The final deficit figure in Mr. Truman's projected blueprint will be reduced to nearer 10 billions, by the administration's count, if congress approves his tax reforms and the nation's economy continues to expand.

Briefly, here are some major points in the "loophole" program which Mr. Truman has proposed unsuccessfully in the past, and may plump harder for this year:

1—Oil producers are permitted now to deduct 27½ per cent of their gross income for the drain on their resources. The administration wants to cut that to 15 per cent to raise up to 500 million dollars more annually.

2—Profits from sale of property, stocks and bonds, are taxed now at an effective rate of 26 per cent. The administration wants the rate raised to 37½ per cent, to produce another 400 millions in revenue.

3—The administration has proposed that taxes be withheld at the source on income from dividends and interests, adding about 350 million dollars.

4—The administration wants a stiffer program for taxing life insurance companies.

5—Most of the income from state and local securities is now exempt from federal taxes. The administration has proposed that income from afuture issues be taxed.

6—Estate and gift taxes. The administration has contended that more money should be raised in this field by removing alleged inequities and increasing rates.

SOUTHWEST

er for the meeting will be Robert J. Bayer, editor of the publication, Traffic World, as well as Dean of the College of Advanced Traffic in Chicago, and feature writer for the Dallas News. Bayer is one of the most well-versed men in transportation in the world. A colorful personality, his address will be entitled, "Men and Transportation In the Future."

Among the distinguished guests at the meeting will be W. N. Deramus, president of the Kansas City Southern Railroad, from Kansas City; W. G. Vollmer, president of the Texas & Pacific Railroad, from Dallas, H. E. Stringer, assistant to the chairman, National Association of Shippers Advisory Boards, from Washington, D. C.; F. A. Leffingwell, secretary of the Southwest Industrial Traffic League and member of the executive committee of the Southwest Shippers advisory board; F. M. Wilson, assistant to the chairman, Association of Western Railroads; from Chicago; Lewis Pilcher, executive vice-chairman of the freight claims section, Association of American Railroads, from Chicago and J. J. Kelley, manager of the military transport section for the Association of American Railroads from Washington, D. C.

In addition to the business meetings at Hotel Frances, the visitors will be entertained at the annual dinner - dance of the Traffic and Transportation Club of Monroe-West Monroe on the roof garden of Hotel Frances at 7 p. m. January 23, and at the main luncheon on the roof garden of the Virginia Hotel at noon January 24, sponsored by the Rotary Club of Monroe and the Traffic Club. Both these affairs will be by reservation. Tickets will go on sale at the respective hotels this coming week.

The Southwest Shippers advisory board is an organization designed to promote through cooperation a better understanding of the problems of transportation of mutual concern to both shippers and carriers with the ultimate objective of developing and maintaining the highest standard of service consistent with business requirements and operating possibilities. The last regular meeting of the advisory board was held in September, 1951, at the Hotel Adolphus in Dallas. The Monroe sessions mark the eighty-ninth regular meeting.

Plans are now in progress to make this meeting the board's most successful, Easterling said.

since "token votes" presumably also would be cast for the other eight candidates. Against this, the revelation that McLemore, who has been a "political purity" campaigner, has become a political companion of Perez is understood to be causing many of his supporters all over the state to swing to other candidates.

McLemore, in his public statement, made through the Associated Press, did not specifically use the word "accept" in relation to the Perez support, but he made no motion toward rejection of the vote or repudiation of support from Perez. Perez, in his statements, did not specifically and personally endorse McLemore. He said that his Plaquemines people wanted McLemore and that "Judge Perez always goes along with his people." He detailed the split in St. Bernard, which is under his jurisdiction as prosecuting attorney and usually has gone along with him politically.

McLemore's public statement said that Plaquemine's support for him would be due to his interest in state's right 1-1 a subject also of interest to Perez he explained actually every candidate in the race except one has endorsed state's rights. Hale Boggs, Judge Kennon and Lucille May Grace have attacked Truman and pledged opposition to his re-election—this being another point on which McLemore said Perez people naturally would approve his candidacy. The third point made by McLemore was the tidelands issue. Hale Boggs introduced a bill in congress to protect Louisiana's tidelands rights from the Truman grab and all gubernatorial candidates except one take the same stand as Boggs and McLemore on this issue.

McLemore, White, Perez and Miss Grace seemed to have their wires crossed in the series of statements hurriedly issued by each as news of the Perez-McLemore arrangement became known. White, in Shreveport, issued a statement that "James McLemore absolutely rejects ths support of Leander Perez." As the White statement was made in Shreveport, McLemore and Perez were issuing statements in New Orleans in effect confirming the Perez-Plaquemines support for McLemore. After these were published, White said no more.

In his statement, however, White said Miss Grace wanted to be on the McLemore ticket as candidate for lieutenant - governor but had been turned down. Miss Grace promptly shot back that she had never considered being on the McLemore ticket and wouldn't have been on it if asked.

Perez, who was making statements all through the day, said that Miss Grace had released him and the Plaquemines-St. Bernard political leaders from support for her. Miss Grace promptly said that she had seen Perez only occasionally and casually during the campaign and had never discussed anything but good government with him.

The Times-Picayune today said White had telephoned the following statement to it:

"W. O. White, Shreveport, campaign manager for James McLemore, candidate for governor, is quoted in a statement that McLemore absolutely refuses the support of Leander Perez and always has said 'no' to offers of Perez support, and that McLemore has not made any deals with anybody.

"I called White personally over the telephone and he refused to discuss the statement and I plainly told him he was an insulting S. O. B." I am sure Mr. McLemore knew nothing of the statement by White and there is not a word of truth in the White statement.

"I attribute the White statement possible to his lack of intelligence and the fact that he does not know me personally.

"I want my friends through the state to know that I resent White's statement but do not hold it against McLemore."

Meanwhile, Fred Dent, husband of Miss Grace, said in Baton Rouge that McLemore had telephoned Miss Grace apologizing for White's statements concerning her.

After all of this, indications at McLemore headquarters here seem to be that McLemore would say no more because he already had contradicted his campaign manager and White could say no more because he already had contradicted his candidate. That left it all with McLemore having the Perez support in Plaquemines and partial support from the gambling area of St. Bernard with the candidate in effect accepting Perez on the grounds that both were state's righters.

But there was no question as to their political companionship in next Tuesday's voting.

SOVIET PROPOSES

stuff." They said the provision that inspectors shall not interfere in the domestic affairs of the states would nullify the inspection machinery.

U. S. Ambassador Ernest A. Gross told the political committee the United States would consider the proposal. He suggested the place to discuss it was in the U. N.'s new 12 - nation disarmament commission.

Vishinsky made clear to reporters after the committee adjourned until Monday that he wants the U. N. assembly to proclaim now—at this session — an unconditional ban on atomic bombs. He said, however, that such a ban could not take legal effect under his plan until the control system was declared effective.

"If the Americans wish to continue the production of atomic bombs until the ban is effective they could do so," Vishinsky said, "but they could not legally do it as soon as the control is effective."

Tied up with his plan is the old Russian recommendation, often rejected by the west, for a one-third reduction in the armed forces of the big five powers — the United States, Britain, France, Russia and China.

Vishinsky's proposals on atomic energy in brief were:

1 — The assembly would proclaim an unconditional prohibition of atomic weapons and the establishment of control.

2 — The prohibition and the control would take effect at exactly the same time. Until the control became effective, the prohibition would have only the standing of a recommendation from the assembly.

3—The assembly would recommend that, one month after the decision for the prohibition of atomic bombs and a one-third reduction in armed forces of the big five powers, all countries should submit complete official information on their armaments and armed forces, "including data on atomic weapons and military bases in foreign territories."

4—The assembly would recommend the establishment, within the framework of the security council, of the international organ to supervise the prohibition of atomic weapons and the reduction of armed forces and to verify the data submitted.

STEWARDESS CHORES DON'T DISCOURAGE

New York —(AP)— Reporting it had 20,000 applications last year from girls who wanted to be stewardesses, American Airlines notes that the average stewardess walks 133 miles up and down airplane aisles during a year, handles 386 children and pours 5,833 cups of coffee.

COTTON

New York

New York, Jan. 12. —(AP)— Trading in cotton futures was quiet today. While price trends were easier, movements were narrow. Hedging and liquidation centered in May and July contracts with this selling absorbed by spot houses on the scale down. The market seemed to await fresh developments, particularly from Washington regarding prices supports on the new crop.

Futures closed 25 cents to $1.15 a bale lower than the previous close.

New Orleans

New Orleans, Jan. 12. —(AP)— Cotton futures declined here today under week-end-long liquidation and hedge selling. Closing prices were barely steady 65 cents to 85 cents a bale lower.

Trading was quiet in the short Saturday session. Continued unfavorable textile reports caused some of the easiness. Contracts were absorbed by trade buying and short covering. Middling 15-16 inch spot cotton decline 75 cents a bale to 42.30 cents a pound. Local spot sales amounted to 1.151 bales.

AVERAGE COTTON

New Orleans, Jan. 12.—(AP)— The average price of middling 15-16-inch spot cotton at 10 designated southern spot markets today was 75 cents a bale lower at 42.25 cents a pound; previous day 42.40; week ago 42.48; month ago 41.63; year ago 44.28; average for the past 30 market days was 42.10; middling ⅞-inch average 41.23; sales at the 10 markets today totaled 45,850 bales.

AWARD SLATED

the Twin Cities, has made lasting effects on the citizenry of the communities. He will be awarded a certificate and key, and his name will be entered in national competition for the outstanding young man of the United States.

Past awards have been made to R. C. White, Jr., who served as state representative and who is now a prisoner of war held by the Chinese Communists in Korea; Fred Fudickar, Jr., presently district attorney for the fourth judicial district and well-known as an outstanding public offical; and Bailey Grant, sheriff of Ouachita parish, who last year went on to receive the award as outstanding young man of the state of Louisiana for 1950, and who is now being considered for the national award as one of the ten outstanding young men of the United States.

The judges of this award are governed by the rules set up by the National Junior Chamber of Commerce, and competition for the award is conducted according to the forms and data of the national organization.

Charlton Lyons, the evening's guest speaker, has created the reputation of being an entertaining and informative after dinner speaker. He is a senior partner of Lyons, Prentiss and McCord, drilling contractors and oil operators in Shreveport.

Master of ceremonies will be Lloyd E. Lenard, immediate past president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Perez Drops Support For Gubernatorial Candidate

By The Associated Press

Leander Perez, south Louisiana political power, says he is abandoning the gubernatorial candidacy of Lucille May Grace. He says the people of his home parish of Plaquemines will support James McLemore, of Alexandria.

Without formal endorsement of McLemore, Perez said yesterday:

"I'd say that Judge Perez usually goes with the people of his parish."

W. O. White, McLemore's state campaign chairman, immediately issued a statement in Shreveport saying:

"James McLemore absolutely refuses the support of Leander Perez. He has always said, 'no,' to offers of Perez's support. The answer is still, 'no'."

Later McLemore issued a statement in New Orleans saying:

"If any support is given my candidacy from Plaquemines and St. Bernard parishes, it is simply because I am the only major candidate who has repeatedly advocated states rights, a fight against Trumanism and a battle to restore our tidelands interests—matters in which Judge Perez is interested as a states rights leader himself.

"I repeat that I have made no deals, no commitments to any individual, any groups, or any firms.

"My only commitment is to give all of the people of Louisiana honest, efficient and economic state government."

Perez, who was Miss Grace's chief counsel in her efforts to oust rival Candidate Rep. Hale Boggs from the race, said, "Miss Grace has released us."

The New Orleans Item quoted Miss Grace as saying:

"No persons or group has ever been committed to me, for commitments imply reciprocal obligations and I have steadfastly refused to make any promises or to assume any obligations. Several months ago Judge Perez gratuitously stated he would support me in my campaign but on the few occasions when I have seen him, I have always refused to discuss anything with him other than good government."

In an interview at New Orleans, Perez said:

"At our Plaquemines parish-wide caucus last Saturday, the prevailing sentiment—almost unanimously—was in favor of McLemore."

He said that at a later meeting with St. Bernard parish leaders it "developed that sentiment there was divided between McLemore and (former Judge Carlos) Spaht and they would be the two leading candidates in the second primary."

Perez said there was no formal vote taken at either meeting.

When Perez was asked how he stood, he said:

"I'd say that Judge Perez usually goes with the people of his parish."

Then he added:

"Our people have turned to McLemore because they have confidence that he will oppose Trumanism and socialism uncompromisingly and that he will do all within his power as governor to see that Truman does not get the electoral votes from Louisiana for reelection to the presidency."

With only three days left before the voters express their choice, other candidates were also busy over the state seeking votes.

Cliff Liles of Lake Charles, issued a statement saying:

"I have just talked to about 50 of my leaders all over the state and have all the confidence in the world that I will be in the second primary, and I think personally that I will be the high candidate."

He said that he had "no hard feelings against anyone, and win or lose, I shall do as I have in the past—I shall do everything to make a greater Louisiana and help bring factories, small and large, to our great state."

Liles said he is "running on a platform to legalize gambling, which would bring revenue of over $400,000,000 a year to the state treasury of Louisiana and do away with practically all taxes.

"We would be able to raise the old age pension to $100 for one person and $150 for man and wife, raise the school teachers' pay, and the firemen and bus drivers' pay, and enable the state to give the colleges and schools at least $20,000,000 more a year, which they need badly."

His statement continued with, "I hope the people will understand my platform and plan to legalize gambling. It isn't my intention to see any law of any kind violated. That is why I want to legalize gambling and cut taxes and bring millions of tourists to our great state and billions of dollars to the working people and the business people, both small and large."

Rep. Hale Boggs spoke at Lake Charles, saying that Louisiana's "best assurance for removing the Earl Long influence in our state is by the election of Hale Boggs and the Boggs ticket."

He said that "hatchet men" have tried "to stop our Louisiana first movement but they can't stop it. . . . They didn't even slow it down."

Boggs said, "we have conducted a constructive campaign—the kind I told you in July we would make. I have had to fight slanderers, hatchet men and haters to make this race and when I am your governor I will be fighting during the next four years for you, the people. I will be fighting to place Louisiana first and to keep it first. Just as we kept our pledge to conduct a constructive and positive campaign, so we will keep our pledge to work for a better Louisiana for all of our people."

William E. Temple of New Orleans, executive director of the Louisiana citizens action committee, issued a statement saying that the committee endorsed Lieut. Gov. William Dodd for governor and endorsed the entire Dodd ticket.

Speaking in Baton Rouge, Dodd said that Gov. Earl K. Long "has been relatively successful in winning elections for himself, but has been less successful in winning elections for candidates he has sponsored."

The governor is backing the candidacy of former Judge Spaht.

MARION DUPONT NOW CANDIDATE

Former Railroad Man Is Active In All Civic Affairs

"I am an independent candidate and am not affiliated with any political party," announced Marion E. Dupont, 59, Thursday, who is participating in the race for police juror of ward 3.

Now a retired railroad man, Mr. DuPont was born in Livingston parish near Dunham Springs, La., and has resided in ward 3 for the past 25 years.

Mr. DuPont has acquired a wide and varied knowledge of building, having spent 41 years constructing railroads, highways and bridges.

More specifically, he was employed a number of years by the La. Dept. of highways on roads and bridge maintenance and construction; built railroad and highway bridges for La. ordinance plant at Minden; constructed railroad yards and roads at Selman Field, and worked as maintenance foreman there for five years during World War II.

A veteran of World War I, having served one year in France as sergeant of Co. B, 40th engineers, 1918-19; he is also affiliated with such organizations as the L. B. Faulk American Legion Post, of which he has been a member for 25 years; is a charter member of Post 1809, Veterans of Foreign Wars, for which he served as senior vice-commander the first two years of organization.

Further, he served in the capacity of scout master for American Legion troop 20, for four years; was chairman of troop committee two years; district chairman of sea scouts two years; and served as vice-chairman of the American Legion emergency truck under Dr. H. E. Carney, originator of the truck, until the time of Dr. Carney's accidental death.

With regards to religious affiliations, he is a member of the First Methodist Church, and a member of the men's Sunday School class.

He and his wife, the former Jeanne Carsenat, of Perrigeaux, France, maintain a residence at 810 Alabama street. They have four children, Marion L., Watson J., Mrs. Helen Robinson, Mrs. Suzanne Frost, all of whom he educated in local city and parish schools. He also has five grandchildren, including three grandsons and two granddaughters.

Mr. DuPont further expressed himself saying "I sincerely solicit and appreciate your support, and if elected, I will work in peace and harmony with the rest of the jury selected by the people, for the people."

ETHIOPIA HAS SCRAP IRON

Addis Ababa, Ethiopia.—(AP)—Ethiopia could provide thousands of tons of scrap iron for American blast furnaces. Transportation is one of the difficulties in getting it out of the country.

Piles of rusting scrap litter many places in Addis Ababa and other areas in the country — debris from the 1941 fighting between the Italians and British.

U. S. PENNIES SCARCE

New York, —(AP)— There was a scarcity of pennies in the United States in 1951 despite a double shift in operations by the Bureau of the Mint to meet demand. This caused rationing of pennies, as well as nickels and quarters, by the Federal Reserve Bank of New York.

In contrast, Great Britain's Royal Mint was trying to get rid of some of their oversize pennies by buying up and retiring one million dollars worth. There are about two billion British pennies outstanding.

U. S. PENNIES SCARCE

New York, —(AP)— There was a scarcity of pennies in the United States in 1951 despite a double shift in operations by the Bureau of the Mint to meet demand. This caused rationing of pennies, as well as nickels and quarters, by the Federal Reserve Bank of New York.

In contrast, Great Britain's Royal Mint was trying to get rid of some of their oversize pennies by buying up and retiring one million dollars worth. There are about two billion British pennies outstanding.

Miss Ellinor Jeanne Pettiss Weds John Norsworthy

Christ Episcopal Church In Bastrop Is Setting For Impressive Ceremony

The Christ Episcopal Church in Bastrop was the setting for the candlelight ceremony December 16 when Miss Ellinor Jeanne Pettiss became the bride of John Lane Norsworthy.

Miss Pettis is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Bines Pettiss, Jr., of Bastrop and Mr. Norsworthy is the son of Mr. Samuel Norsworthy of Collinston and Mrs. Elma Hinton of Monroe.

The Rev. Frank S. Persons, rector, performed the double-ring ceremony before the altar banked with silvered Christmas trees, smilax, and red roses. Ivory cathedral tapers in wrought iron candelabra illuminated the altar, and single tapers were placed in each window, above which was draped smilax and other greenery tied with red satin ribbon.

Lovely bouquets of Christmas greenery tied with red satin marked the aisle leading to the altar.

Mrs. Hadley Leavell, organist, played a medley of traditional nuptial music during the lighting of the candles, and accompanied Mrs. Frank Surguine, of Dallas, Tex., who sang "O Perfect Love" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in her gown of the palest ice-blue satin, fashioned with a fitted bodice, ending in points in the front and back and fastened in the front with tiny self-covered buttons. The gown terminated in a full skirt and court train. The long fitted sleeves ended in lily points, and a delicate lace collar in the identical shade of ice-blue formed the neckline. Her finger-tip veil of matching tulle was caught to her Juliet cap of lace with tiny blue flowers. She carried a bouquet of white tube roses and white purple-throated orchids bound with ice-blue ribbon in a wedding-ring arrangement.

The maid of honor, Miss Ann Buatt, of Dallas, Tex., wore a floor-length gown, fashioned of deep sky-blue satin, and carried deep red roses tied with red velvet bows. She wore a half-hat of matching red velvet. The bridesmaids, Miss Bettye Beasley; Miss Emery Liles, Miss Dorothy Ann Norsworthy, of Collinston, Mrs. Williams Porch of Kansas City, Mo., Mrs. Janie Hanks, Mrs. Duke Shackelford of Jones, and Miss Shelby Meek of Monroe wore dresses identical to that of the maid of honor, and they, too, wore the red velvet half-hats and carried deep red roses tied with matching red velvet bows.

Mr. Sam Norsworthy served his son as best man. The groomsmen were Johnnie Swanson, Leo Fisher, Bob Hogg, Bob Horton, Billy Douglas, all students of Louisiana Tech at Ruston, Vernon White and Duke Shackelford of Jones.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at the Morehouse Country Club, where the bride and groom received with their parents and members of the bridal party. A lovely arrangement of deep red roses on the mantle reflected in the mirror outlined with silvered greenery and red berries formed a background for the receiving line.

The bride's table, laid with an ornate cutwork cloth, was centered with red roses, silver baubles and greenery, and ivory tapers burning in antique silver five-branched candelabra cast a soft glow over the handsome crystal punch bowls at either end of the table. Mrs. George T. Madison and Mrs. N. P. Liles presided over the punch bowl.

The wedding cake, on a table covered with a cutwork cloth, was a three-tiered confection embossed with roses and lilies of the valley and encircled with white maline and greenery. It was surmounted with a miniature bouquet of red roses. After the bride and groom had cut the first slice, Mrs. W. C. Beasley, aunt of the bride, served the cake to the guests.

Little Miss Judy Jones of Natchez, Miss., charming in pale blue net formal, presided at the bride's book.

Tea girls were Miss Carolyn Corley, Miss Martha Ann Ludlum, Miss Pat Waldrop, Mrs. Todd Spear, Mrs. Williams Crowe, Miss Beverly Tolar, Miss Sara Jane Wadsworth, Mrs. Louis Brodnax, and Mrs. Robert Williams.

The bride's mother wore a winter-pink creation with a corsage of pink carnations. Her small head-hugging hat was of sequins in a deeper shade of pink.

Mrs. Hinton chose to wear a gown of American beauty red with a matching sequin hat and corsage of white carnations. Mrs. John Norsworthy, the bridegroom's grandmother, was attired in light green formal. Her corsage was of pink carnations.

Immediately following the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Norsworthy departed for Dallas, Tex. The bride wore a suit of brown and beige wool for traveling. Her accessories were of winter white, and her corsage was the orchid from her bouquet.

Mrs. Norsworthy was graduated from Bastrop High School and from La. Tech. She has recently been employed by the Bastrop National Bank.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Bastrop High School and will receive his degree at La. Tech in January.

Business And Professional Women Have Dinner Meeting

Members To Attend Program Meeting At Y. W. C. A. Tuesday, January 22

Immediately following dinner Tuesday, January 8, President Louise Massey introduced the guest, Mrs. Mary Jean Lea. Interesting reports from the legislative and public affairs committee by their respective chairman, Miss Maibel Hood and Mrs. Pauline Welch revealed considerable data. A bill has been passed in Oklahoma permitting women to now serve on the jury in that state. In Arkansas, due to the untiring efforts of women's organizations a stock law has been passed prohibiting stock from roaming at large on the highways.

The great need for property re-assessment in Louisiana was also cited. The present haphazard system prevents many large industries from selecting Louisiana for their plants or headquarters.

Chairman Welch earnestly urged every member of the Business & Professional Women's Club to go to the polls and vote on Tuesday next. In addition to being every good citizen's responsibility, our club will receive from the National Federation a special citation if 100 per cent of the members cast their votes.

Mrs. Eloise Bailey, chairman of Education and Vocation Committee, announced that her committee along with other B & PW members will give assistance to the parish civil defense officials in compiling a special file. This will comprise names of all women in Ouachita parish and any skills they posses that would be needed at a time of national emergency.

As part of their contribution to the beautification of Bernstein Park, the B & PW Club is giving two new picnic tables. Later on they will assist further in this project.

Miss Maibel Hood cordially invited all members to be present at the program meeting at the Y. W. C. A. on Tuesday, January 22, at 7:30 p. m.

In attendance were: Miss Alice Baur, Mrs. Edna Vaughan, Miss Ola Buee, Mrs. Evelyn Chilton, Mrs. Christine Coleman, Mrs. Ruth Cooley, Mrs. Ruth Crump, Mrs. Faye Heard, Mrs. Eloise Bailey, Miss Maibel Hood, Mrs. Joy Hays, Mrs. Addie Lee Juneman, Mrs. Louise Massey, Mrs. Gladys Miles, Mrs. Mae Medes, Miss Mamie Ober, Miss Mary O'Kelly, Mrs. Ouida Oxford, Mrs. Ellen Rothmel, Mrs. Bessie Skinner, Mrs. Laura Slater, Miss Norma Stewart, Miss Mattea Sealia, Miss Lulu Swinson, Miss Alma Terry, Miss Ruth Thomas, Mrs. Helen Trichel, Miss Hazel Wakefield, Mrs. Pauline Welch, Mrs. Emma Lou Perkins, Mrs. Billie Harrell and Mrs. Mary Jean Lea.

News From The Public Library

New books are the life blood of a library and one grows in proportion to the number of additions that are made to its book collection. During the year 1951 there were 2900 new books added to the collection of the Ouachita Parish Public Library. Of this number 1790 were adult books and 1110 were juvenile books. During the same period 601 books were removed from the collection. 185 of this number were lost and 417 were worn out.

Since this is the time of year when the librarian is busy with the annual reports which go to the Louisiana State Library in Baton Rouge and to the office of Education in Washington, she thought that the people of Ouachita Parish might be interested in some of the facts concerning the Ouachita Parish Public Library. In the year of 1951 there were 252,725 books loaned by the four branches of the Ouachita Parish Public Library. Of this number 105,692 were read by adults and 147,033 by children. This is an average of 3.4 books for each inhabitant of Ouachita Parish and an average of 12.67 books for each of the 19,941 registered borrowers of the library. If there is any question in your mind about the growth of the library, figures for 1946 make a startling comparison. In that year 82,165 books were read by the people of Ouachita parish. Of this number 56,947 were read by adults and 25,191 by children. The averages for that year were 1.30 books for each inhabitant of the parish and 7.13 books for each registered borrower. In 1946 the average cost of circulating a book was .11 while in 1951 the average cost was .12. Thus we have improved our service with a very slight increase in average cost of circulation.

However, you would probably like to know about some of the new books which have been acquired by the library. Just this week we have added a number of interesting titles. Mystery addicts will be glad to know that Mary Roberts Rinehart has a new book. It is called "The Swimming Pool." It follows her usual story of a society background and unexplained murders. It is fascinating to read and it is nice to know that Mrs. Rinehart is one writer who has not lost her magic touch. This story is just as exciting and believable as ones that were printed years ago. Another new mystery story is "The Three Widows" by Bernice Carey, while the "Intriguer" by Maude Parker will appeal to those who love a story of mystery and intrigue.

In the field of more serious novels there are also several appealing new titles. "Other Lives to Live" by Herbert Lyons has for its setting a city resembling Mobile, Alabama. It is the story of a middle-aged woman, who dared to fall in love and how her children resented it. All during the years of her widowhood she had lived only for her family and they could not understand how she wanted to live a life of her own. This is a thoughtful novel and one that has a definite message. "Intrigue in Baltimore" by Janet Payne Whitney is a story of Baltimore during the Civil war period. All those who like a historical novel will want to read this one. "The Mountains of Allah" by Paul Chavchavadze is an adventure story with an unusual setting. It is concerned with the adventures of Zoe, a young Parisian widow, who secured a position in the household of a Russian family in Tiflis in the year [illegible]. During a fray between the Russians and the Turks, the women and children of the household are carried off by the Turks as hostages, and the captivity provides adventure, perils and an introduction to the barbarity of the captors and the beauty of the Caucasus Mountains.

Science fiction stories are very popular with High School boys and men. A new title of this kind is "Bullard of the Space Patrol by Malcolm Jameson. It will have a large audience.

There are many other new books available at the Ouachita Parish Public Library and its branches. Come in and use its resources.

Miss Opaline Pauline Thrasher Is Bride Of James Warren Donnell

Miss Opaline Pauline Thrasher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ruel Irving Thrasher, of Transylvania, La., became the bride of James Warren Donnell, Lieutenant, U. S. A. F., in a candlelight ceremony at the Transylvania Baptist Church Sunday, Dec. 23, at two in the afternoon. Rev. S. W. Tullos, local pastor, officiated.

Large floor baskets of white gladioli flanked the altar, fronting a background of magnolia leaves. For the candlelight ceremony there were wide branched candelabra.

Mrs. Herman Schwartz, Lake Providence, played a program of prenuptial music and accompanied Miss LaVerne Davis of Newellton, who sang "I Love You Truly" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a suit of navy wool, with white accessories. She carried a white Bible topped with stephanotis centered with an orchid.

The bride's only attendant, her sister-in-law, Mrs. Ira Thrasher, Jennings, La., wore a suit of beige wool, with matching accessories.

Mrs. Thrasher, mother of the bride, and Mrs. Donnell, mother of the groom, wore suits of navy blue with shoulder corsages of pink carnations.

The Urania Home Demonstration Club Installs Officers

The Urania Home Demonstration Club met Monday in the social room of the First Baptist church, for their monthly program.

Mrs. Ellis Babcock and Mrs. Gene Buckley were the hostesses.

Under the direction of Mrs. Maxine Reeves, Home Demonstration Agent of Jena, the installation of officers was held. As each officer lighted a candle, Mrs. Reeves compared the flower - like candles of various colors to a flower garden, as she explained the duties.

New officers are as following:

President, Mrs. H. K. Ray; Vice-president, Mrs. Quincy Cornwell; Secretary, Mrs. Lillian Holloway; Reporter, Mrs. J. H. Gliden; Council member, Mrs. C. E. Tannehill; Alt. Council Member, Mrs. Herbert May; Nutrition Leader, Mrs. Harry Nichols; Garden, Mrs. O. F. Matthews; Poultry, Mrs. C. D. Jones; Clothing, Mrs. W. C. Procter; Food Preservation, Miss Arrettia Cox; Citizenship, Mrs. J. H. Glidden. Mrs. Reeves closed the ceremony with a prayer.

The business meeting was called to order by the new president, Mrs. Ray. Roll call was answered by naming a gift received at Christmas. The minutes were read by Mrs. Herbert May. It was voted to start the meetings promptly at 2:00 p.m. and close at 4:00.

Mrs. Reeves gave a talk on shortcuts in sewing and demonstrated the use of the tracing wheel and paper. The making of covered buttons and buckles was discussed. The hostesses, assisted by Mrs. John Fletcher served delicious refreshments. Attending other than the above mentioned were; Mrs. Jim Carter, Mrs. Pinkie Leach, Mrs. C. S. Bartley, Mrs. C. O. Stegall, Mrs. Claud Chapman, Mrs. C. M. Newsom and Mrs. Ernest Stevens.

When driver safety tests were offered in New York recently, 12,000 persons took the tests.

Man Broke at 47 Now Worth Fortune

January 13, Out of work in 1952 — Earning $13,000 in a year, four years later, as a salesman for a million-dollar Texas company. That's the success story told by C. C. Hamlin, who celebrated his 57th birthday. "As I look back," Hamlin states, "I could have hardly believed ten years ago that I could possibly make $110,000 in the ten years to come. Believe me, this wonderful new home and my two new cars seem like a dream. I must give the whole credit where it's due — to the organization that gave me this once-in-a-lifetime opportunity."

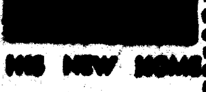
HAMLIN'S LUCKY AD

Hamlin, when asked how he got started, pulled a small advertisement from his wallet, saying: "This is my lucky ad. I carry it to show to any other middle aged man who gets discouraged because he thinks his big earning days are over."



HIS NEW HOME

Hamlin added: "I wish I could have millions of copies of this ad made and send them to every man over 47. I want to shout the praises of the company that made this wonderful [illegible] for me . . . and can do the same for them. I want to tell each one of them to write or wire the [illegible] of my Company [illegible]."

Man Broke at 47 Now Worth Fortune

January 13, Out of work in 1952 — Earning $13,000 in a year, four years later, as a salesman for a million-dollar Texas company. That's the success story told by C. C. Hamlin, who celebrated his 57th birthday. "As I look back," Hamlin states, "I could have hardly believed ten years ago that I could possibly make $110,000 in the ten years to come. Believe me, this wonderful new home and my two new cars seem like a dream. I must give the whole credit where it's due — to the organization that gave me this once-in-a-lifetime opportunity."

RICH OPPORTUNITY FOR MEN OVER 45!
Healthful occupation. No investment needed. 150 of our top men made $400 to $3,000 in one month—many just beginners. Write PRESIDENT, P. O. Box 711, Fort Worth 1, Texas.

HAMLIN'S LUCKY AD

Hamlin, when asked how he got started, pulled a small advertisement from his wallet, saying: "This is my lucky ad. I carry it to show to any other middle aged man who gets discouraged because he thinks his big earning days are over."

HIS NEW HOME

Hamlin added: "I wish I could have millions of copies of this ad made and send them to every man over 45. I want to shout tthe praises of the company that made this wonderful success possible for me . . . and can do the same for them. I want to tell each one of them to write or wire the President of my Company right now for a chance to do the same thing."

Miss Aulsine Coates Bride Of Edward Frances DeLoach, Jr.

Double-Ring Ceremony Solemnized At Brownville Methodist Church In West Monroe

The Brownville Methodist Church in West Monroe was the scene of a candlelight ceremony at 5:00 p. m. Thursday, Dec. 27, when Aulsine Coates, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Aulsie Coates, became the bride of Edward DeLoach, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward DeLoach, Sr. of West Monroe.

The Rev. T. A. Brown, pastor, officiated in the impressive double-ring ceremony before the altar which was beautifully banked with fern trees and white gladiolias. Candelabra holding slender white candles were used among the arrangements of flowers.

Miss Geraldine Weir, at the piano rendered a program of nuptial music and accompanied Miss Betty Spurlock who sang "Because" and, "The Lords Prayer". The traditional wedding marches marked the beginning and the end of the services.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in her wedding gown of ballerina length of brocaded satin, with finger tip veil, which fell from a small crown of Irish lace. She wore white satin slippers. She carried a bouquet made of white lily of the valley and orchids centered with a gold rose. For something old she carried a hankerchief that belonged to her great - great grandmother, Mrs. Dutch Myers, of Columbia, La. She wore a blue garter, made and presented to her by her sister, Mary Sue Coates.

Miss Mattie Lorene Coates was maid - of - honor, and Miss Mary Sue Coates was bridesmaid. They are sisters of the bride. The maid of honor and bridesmaid wore ballerina length blue and pink dresses made of faille with matching headdress.

Mr. Harry Busch of Columbia, La., cousin of the groom, served as best man. Usher was Mr. Gene Stapp, of West Monroe.

Mrs. Coates, mother of the bride wore a dress of blue crepe with white and black accessories and a corsage of white carnation. Mrs. DeLoach, mother of the groom, wore a light blue suit with matching accessories. She also wore a corsage of carnations.

Immediately following the wedding a reception was held in the home of the bride's parents.

The bride's table was covered with a lace tablecloth. The tiered wedding confection topped with a miniature bride and groom was placed at the end of the table and was presided over by the bride's grandmother Mrs. J. B. Thompson of Columbia, La. On opposite end was punch bowl surrounded by evergreens and holly berries, presided over by Miss Charlene Stapp, of West Monroe, a friend of the bride. Miss Muriel Kilpatrick presided over the bride's book. Assisting in extending courtesies were: Yvonne Fisher and Mary Virginia Works of West Monroe. Christmas arrangements were used through the reception rooms.

Mrs. DeLoach is a graduate of Ouachita Parish High School and attended North Louisiana State College in Monroe, La. The bridegroom is also a graduate of Ouachita Parish High School. At the present he is attending U. S. Naval School of radar in San Francisco, Calif.

For going away the bride chose a wine gabardine suit with black accessories. The couple left immediately for a short honeymoon trip. At present they are making their home in San Francisco, Calif.

Out - of - town guests attending were: Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Thompson, and Mrs. Harry Busch, Sr. of Columbia, La. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Thompson and sons Jerry and Jimmy and daughter Beverly of Lake Charles, La.; Mrs. A. P. Miss Joan Evelyn Thomas Bride Of Ronald LeBlanc

Bridal Couple Exchange Vows Of Impressive Ceremony At First Baptist Church Of Port Arthur, Tex.

The First Baptist Church of Port Arthur, Tex., decorated in simplicity was the setting for one of the loveliest and most impressive weddings December 22 at one-thirty o'clock, uniting in marriage Miss Joan Evelyn Thomas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Barrilleaux of Port Arthur and Ronald LeBlanc, son of Mrs. C. W. Duty and Mr. R. LeBlanc, of Port Arthur, by the Rev. John W. Wright, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Port Arthur.

The baptistery and choir loft were artistically decorated with arrangements of silver leaves and chrysanthemums. The altar having large baskets on stands of gladiola and chrysanthemums making a lovely setting for the wedding scene.

While usher groomsmen, C. J. Barrilleaux and Wison Barrilleaux, were seating the guests, soft music was played by Mrs. Dodson. Mrs. Starrock sang "I Love You Truly" and "Because".

Last to take their seats before the entrance of the bridal party, were the mothers of the bride and bridegroom, Mrs. Barrilleaux and Mrs. Duty. Mrs. Duty was becomingly dressed in a black gabardine suit, complimented by a black hat and black accessories and she wore an orchid colored orchid.

For her daughters wedding Mrs. Barrilleaux was wearing a navy wool crepe suit with white blouse, navy hat with white feather. Her other accessories were navy and she chose an orchid corsage of soft pink hue.

To the strains of the bridal chorus the bridal party approached the altar, where they were awaited by the bridegroom and his best man, Gerrald Barrilleaux. Entering was the maid of honor, Mrs. Lorene Wagner. Her suit was plum with navy blue accessories and a soft colored corsage.

Miss Thomas entered the church with her stepfather who gave her in marriage. She was radiant in her suit of blond wool crepe, rose hat with navy accessories. Around her neck was a three strand pearl necklace, a gift of the bridegroom. Beneath her white Bible covered with white lace and velvet tubing was her round bouquet of white daisies. The music rang out loud again as the wedding party left the church.

Reception

Following the ceremony there was a large reception, at which Mr. and Mrs. Barrilleaux, parents of the bride, were host at their home. The receiving room was beautifully decorated with large baskets on stands, of white gladiola and chrysanthemums. Christmas colors were the theme of the dining room.

The bride's table covered with imported lace cloth was centered with crystal candelabras with tall white candles, a three-tiered wedding cake with miniature bride and groom being at one end of the table and a large crystal punch bowl at the other. The cake and the punch bowl was surrounded with holly and bright red berries.

Presiding at the punch bowl was Miss LaVerne Bradley. At the cake, Mrs. Paul LaCoon. Serving were Mrs. Leo Bradley, Mrs. Carl Myers and Mrs. John Barrilleaux.

Out-of-town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. T. K. Bradley, grandparents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Bradley, Miss LaVerne Bradley of Sondheimer, La., and Mrs. Olive English, Waco, Tex.

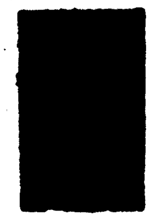
A HAPPY NOTE OR TWO

by J. Paul Hewitt



"I've always wanted to play the piano, but somehow I never got around to it. Now, I'm afraid it's a little too late to begin trying to learn." Could those words be yours? Our answer is: It's NEVER too late. All you need is the desire to play and the follow-through to practice along with a suitable instrument. It's important, too, to have the proper instruction. New piano teach methods make it amazingly simple to learn recognizable pieces in a very short time.

Convenient term payments on fine new or reconditioned used pianos are so low that you scarcely miss the monthly payments. You're welcome, at any time to look over our selection.

Now, at the beginning of this new year, it's a good time to get started with your ambitions to play the piano. Whether you're 8 or 80 . . . whether you're a house-wife or a business man, the pleasure of creating music belongs to YOU. The cost is small, and the rewards for being able to play to your own satisfaction are immeasurable.

A fine CABLE piano will fit right into your modern home. It gives you finest tone and touch, as well as smart styling and quality construction. When you see and try it you'll choose a CABLE. We'll be glad to help you at HEWITT, INC., 216 Grammont. Phone: 2-1491.

Dear Mr. Hicks:

It was indeed a pleasure for me to meet with you yesterday in West Monroe and discuss with you the various projects in Louisiana on which you are cooperating with the Federal Government. I want to again repeat the statement which I made to you yesterday that I am highly pleased with the high order of cooperation you have shown us over the past years in initiating and completing the many flood control and drainage projects we are undertaking in your area; and further, after completion of those projects, your maintenance efforts have been well prosecuted, insuring their continued effectiveness

It has indeed been a great pleasure working with you and I look forward to your continued good services in this year that we have just begun.

With best personal wishes, I remain

Sincerely yours,

Delta Rho Delta Members Entertained At Holiday Party

Lovely Informal Event Is Held At Home Of Mr. And Mrs. Woodrow Fields

Holiday spirit prevailed at the informal party honoring members of Delta Rho Delta sorority at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Fields.

Receiving the guests was Miss Mary Rita Smith, lovely daughter of the Fields.

The living room was exquisitely decorated with Christmas greenery, pinecones, clusters of brightly colored balls and poinsettias. The mantel held an artistic arrangement of silvered reindeer and sleighs massed with silvered evergreens.

In the dining room, the polilshed table held a mammoth centerpiece of silvered flowers and leaves, further carrying out the Christmas motif.

Delightful conversation filled the evening after which the members were invited in the dining room for coffee. The table held beautiful open hors d'ouvres and dainty decorated Christmas fruit cakes. Enjoying this event were the following: Miss Lillie Glenn, Mrs. Paul Adams, Miss Marjorie Ewing Miss Freeda Mickel, Mrs. D. C. Miss Beverly Jane Tolar Weds Charles Ester Blackwell, Jr.

Mer Rouge Methodist Church Is Setting For Impressive Wedding Ceremony

A wedding characterized by simplicity and beauty, was solemnized in the Mer Rouge Methodist Church, Friday, December 21, at five in the evening, when Miss Beverly Jane Tolar, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Finis Aldon Tolar, became the bride of Mr. Charles Ester Blackwell, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Blackwell, Sr. of Bastrop.

In a setting of soft candlelight, the double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. D. T. Williams, of Sterlington. Rev. Clyde Shaw reverently assisted in performing the ceremony.

The church was beautifully decorated with smilax, entwined about candelabra placed in each stained-glass window. Arrangements of specimen pink gladiolas and carnations were placed on the altar table, which was covered with white satin. Ivory cathedral tapers, placed in wrought iron seven-branched candelabra, lent perfect illumination and provided a lovely setting for the pledging of the nuptial vows.

Mrs. Roy C. Windsor, organist, played a medly of traditional nuptial music during the lighting of the candles by Mr. Bob Nolan and Mr. Fred Moss. She also accompanied Misses Mary Leslie Clark, Floy and Merlyn Knight, who beautifully rendered, "I Love You Truly." During the ceremony, Mrs. Clare M. Clark, in her usual impressive manner sang "The Lord's Prayer," as the couple knelt.

Attention was centered upon the bridal party as the familiar chords of the traditional "Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin were heard. First, the ushers, Mr. Charles Bounds of Bastrop, Mr. Bob Nolan, and Mr. Fred Moss, all close friends of the bride and groom, marched down the aisle. They were followed by the bridesmaids, Miss Virginia Laing of Monroe, cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Bob Nolan, who were dressed respectively in lovely pastel floor-length gowns of blue and pink nylon net. Miss Gay McAdams, the maid-of-honor, was attired in pastel blue. The gowns were bouffant in effect, with the strapless bodice and matching stoles. On their heads were worn Juliet caps of matching net. Each carried American beauty gladiolas and carnations, tied with matching satin ribbons. Miss Diane Graves, who was precious in a gown of pink nylon net, served as flower girl, and dropped flower petals before the bride.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was radiant in her gown of blush-pink duchess satin, fashioned with a fitted bodice, ending in a point in the front, and fastened down the back with tiny self-covered buttons. The yoke of sheer marquisette, was outlined in Chantilly lace, forming a sweetheart neckline. The delicate lace collar was enhanced by a pin of coral and gold, belonging to the bride's great-grandmother, and has been in the family for over a hundred years. The long, fitted sleeves ended in lily points over her hands. The gown terminated in a full skirt and court train. Her finger-tip veil of matching illusion was caught to a tiara of lace with a lace crown, and attached at either side were orange blossoms. She carried a cascading bouquet of rose - pink roses, resting on English ivy, tied with matching satin ribbons and maline.

Mr. Charles Blackwell, Sr., served his son as best man.

Reception

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held at the church annex, where the bride and groom received with their parents and members of the bridal party. Candlelight was again used as the only means of illumination. Southern smilax graced each window. The bride's table, overlaid with a handsome linen cloth, was centered with a floral arrangement of specimen white carnations, interspersed with greenery. Ivory tapers burning in silver three-branch candelabra, lent their beauty over the lovely crystal punch bowl, presided over by Mrs. Jessye Graves. At the opposite end of the table, the wedding cake; a three-tiered confection, embossed with pink roses, was encircled with miniature roses and greenery. Adorning the top was a miniature bride and groom under a heart-shaped arch of maline.

Mrs. H. B. Andrews, a close friend of the bride, presided over the bride's book.

The tea girls, lovely in floor-length pastel models, passed individual cakes embossed with a delicate pink rosebud, and mints among the guests. Serving in this courtesy were Miss Carolyn McDaniel, Miss Ada Virginia Tolar, of Rayville, Miss Frances Washam, of Rayville, Miss Vivian Angela King, Miss Bettye Ross Graves, Miss Barbara Ann Risher, and Miss Jo Ann Blackwell, of Bastrop.

Others assisting in the courtesies were Mrs. Earl Andrews, Mrs. John R. McIlwain, Mrs. G. A. Hume, Mrs. William T. Blackwell, Mrs. Ross Graves, Mrs. Hugh Tucker, Mrs. Jack Moore, and Mrs. Audrey McDermott.

For her daughter's wedding, the bride's mother was charming in a gown of sky-blue lace, with a corsage of pink roses.

Mrs. Blackwell, mother of the bridegroom, chose to wear a gown of dusty rose satin, with a corsage of white roses.

Immediately following the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Blackwell left for a short wedding trip. For traveling, the bride wore an ensemble of midget checked wool, with black purse, gloves, and shoes, and a hat and fingertip coat of winter white. Her corsage was of pink roses and ivy.

Mrs. Blackwell is a graduate of Mer Rouge High School and at the present time is attending Louisiana Tech in Ruston. She is affiliated with Alpha Chi Omega sorority.

The bridegroom is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Blackwell, Sr., and a graduate of Bastrop High School, class of 1948. He was a charter member of Delta Sigma fraternity in Bastrop. He was employed in Bastrop until joining the United States navy in October of 1950. At the present, his ship is in Newport, R. I., but will soon return to the Caribbean for further training.

Mrs. Blackwell will continue her studies at Louisiana Tech, and Mr. Blackwell will report back to Newport to resume his duties.

Out-of-town guests include: Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Wilson, of Savannah, Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Washam, Miss Francis Washam, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Tolar and Miss Ada Virginia Tolar of Rayville; Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Laing and Mr. Vaso Tefas of Monroe; Sergeant Charles W. Anderson of Camp LeJuene, S. C.; Sgt. and Mrs. Ray Carter of Weaver, S. D.; Mrs. Lonnie B. Blackwell, Mrs. Buford Blackwell, Mrs. Pearl Blackwell, Mrs. Cora Turner, Mr. Thurman Turner, Mrs. Katie Pickett, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Spillars, Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Tallman, Miss Annie Louise Tallman, Miss Jackie Wroten, Miss Ann Hurst, Miss Mary Nell Ludlum, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Pettiss, Miss Ava Dean Terry, Mrs. Bob Borders, Mr. Leon Pratt, and Mrs. J. D. Jones, all of Bastrop; Miss Ann Boyd, and Miss Elizabeth Triope of Collinston.

Welcome Branch Book Club Meets With Mrs. A. R. Doughty

Mrs. DeWitt Henry Speaks On 'Citizenship Responsibility' At January Meeting

Mrs. DeWitt Henry delighted members of the Welcome Branch Book Club with an inspirational talk on "Citizenship Responsibility in the 20th Century," on Wednesday when Mrs. A. R. Doughty graciously entertained the club.

In part, Mrs. Henry said: "Think of my responsibility to the state of the nation on this State of the Nation day. One out of three qualified vote in a mayor's race; one out of 19 vote for parish official; less than 50 per cent voted in the last presidential election. In England 82 per cent voted in the election when Mr. Churchill was elected.

It is a thrilling scene to see the flag go by. Then ask the person to translate the love of his country into deeds. How different is the attitude and response.

Our country is faced with the problem of leadership. The eyes of our nation. An awakening citizen. The "Mr. or Mrs. Average Citizen" are responsibile for the condition of our nation. An awakenink citizenry will bring an end to profiteering. Letters may be written to a forum for publication, giving approval or disapproval. Letters may be written to our congressmen who would like to know how we feel toward legislation. The real test of citizenship is the citizen's enthusiasm, and making our government serve the people. History is being written about the choice we make today. We the ordinary citizens decide."

Guests and members attending were: Mrs. DeWitt Henry, Mrs. Lillian Steele, Mrs. F. E. Black, Mrs. Henson Coon, Mrs. J. N. Coon, Mrs. R. H. Dollar, Mrs. A. R. Doughty, Mrs. V. S. Garnett, Mrs. A. S. Miss Ann Lacey Becomes Bride Of John Loy Fluitt

Bridal Couple Exchange Vows Of Impressive Candlelight Service In Memorial Methodist Church

Among the lovely holiday season nuptials was the wedding of Miss Ann Lacey and Mr. John Loy Fluitt which was celebrated on Thursday, December 27, at 7:30 o'clock in the evening at the Memorial Methodist Church of this city. The officiating clergyman in the double-ring ceremony was the Rev. Ralph Cain, pastor. He was assisted in the service by Mr. William Welch, schoolmate of the bridegroom, who read the closing prayer.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Fred Ernst Lacey and the late Mr. Lacey, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Courtland Breckenridge Fluitt.

Greenery, gladiola and candles were used attractively in the decorations of the church. On the altar were tall white seven-branched candelabra entwined with glistening ivy and holding burning tapers. Their light created a pretty effect on the wine-colored drapery which served as a background for a large white cross.

An attractive contrast to the greenery were floor standards holding artistic arrangements of white gladioli. Southern smilax covered the chancel rail and sprays of ivy marked the pews. The beautiful setting was enhanced by ivy on the walls and candles that shone in the windows.

Mrs. Harvey Nelson, organist, played several of the bride's favorite numbers while the guests were being seated. She also accompanied Mrs. Henry Williams, who sang "I Love Thee."

A pretty ceremony was the lighting of the candles by Miss Carolyn Bagwell, who was becomingly gowned in rich green velvet with vari-colored carnations in her hair.

The bride's maid of honor was her cousin Miss Virginia Young, of Bastrop, who was wearing a lovely pink gabardine suit with a small matching hat. She carried white gardenias and blue cornflowers.

Serving the bridegroom as best man was Sam Shepard, a former schoolmate.

Three other schoolmates of the groom who ushered at his wedding were Leon Hunt and Vernon Sanders, both of Monroe, and Jarrell Matkins, of Sterlington.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Naval Cadet Fred Ernst Lacey, Jr., a student at the University of Mississippi. She wore a suit of poudre blue with matching nylon blouse, and a heart-shaped hat of pink felt with inserts of small blossoms in the same hue. The beautiful color theme was developed in the pink feathered carnations which she carried.

Mrs. Lacey chose for her daughter's wedding a royal blue crepe gown with black accessories and a corsage of white carnations. Mrs. Fluitt, the bridegroom's mother, was gowned in navy velvet with which she wore coral accessories and a corsage of matching glamellias.

Immediately following the wedding, a reception was held in the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Aimee Cook in West Monroe, with Mrs. Fred Cook and Mrs. G. L. Morgan also serving as hostesses.

Arrangements of gladioli, roses and fern were used effectively throughout the reception suite.

The bride's table overlaid with a hand embroidered linen cloth, held the beautiful three-tiered wedding cake embossed in flowers and surmounted with an arch of blossoms. At the other end of the table, punch was served by Mrs. Fred Weaver, who was wearing a blue sheer and pink carnation corsage, and Mrs. Roy Banister, who chose black sheer and yellow carnations. Over the table soft lights flickered from a three-branched candelabra that was adorned with white gardenias and matching satin ribbon. These floral arrangements were repeated with artistic effect.

Silver trays holding individual cakes were passed among the guests by Miss Frances Shepard, Miss Betty Roach, Miss Pat Riggs and Miss Myrle Kilpatrick. Miss Shepard was wearing blue velvet. Miss Roach chose black velvet, Miss Riggs was wearing a blue taffeta frock and Miss Kilpatrick was in pink taffeta. All wore corsages of gladioli.

Mrs. G. L. Morgan, who was attired in black sheer, presided at the bride's book.

Following their wedding trip to Houston, Tex., and the gulf coast, the couple are now residing at 301 Columbia avenue in Monroe.

Both the bride and groom are students at Northeast Louisiana State. The former is president of the Wesley Foundation and holds membership in Gamma Zeta, social sorority. The latter is a member of the Provost Corps, organization of the Military Police at Northeast, and he is affiliated with the Social Science Club. An advanced military student, he plans to make the army a career.

Out-of-town guests who attended the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. Jack Chishum and daughters, Margie and Beth of Bastrop, Mr. and Mrs. William Young and sons, Billy and Tommy of Bastrop, Mrs. Roy and Henry Banister of Lancaster, Tex., Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Fluitt of Columbia, Mr. Sam Fluitt of Columbia, Mr. and Mrs. E. Stivers of Houston, Tex., Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Malin and son Randall of Columbia, Mr. Allen Perkins of Vinton, Mr. and Mrs. David Fisher of Columbia, and Mrs. Sam Walker, also of Columbia.

Miss Beverly Jane Tolar Weds Charles Ester Blackwell, Jr.

Mer Rouge Methodist Church Is Setting For Impressive Wedding Ceremony

A wedding characterized by simplicity and beauty, was solemnized in the Mer Rouge Methodist Church, Friday, December 21, at five in the evening, when Miss Beverly Jane Tolar, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Finis Aldon Tolar, became the bride of Mr. Charles Ester Blackwell, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Blackwell, Sr. of Bastrop.

In a setting of soft candlelight, the double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. D. T. Williams, of Sterlington. Rev. Clyde Shaw reverently assisted in performing the ceremony.

The church was beautifully decorated with smilax, entwined about candelabra placed in each stained-glass window. Arrangements of specimen pink gladiolas and carnations were placed on the altar table, which was covered with white satin. Ivory cathedral tapers, placed in wrought iron seven-branched candelabra, lent perfect illumination and provided a lovely setting for the pledging of the nuptial vows.

Mrs. Roy C. Windsor, organist, played a medly of traditional nuptial music during the lighting of the candles by Mr. Bob Nolan and Mr. Fred Moss. She also accompanied Misses Mary Leslie Clark, Floy and Merlyn Knight, who beautifully rendered, "I Love You Truly." During the ceremony, Mrs. Clare M. Clark, in her usual impressive manner sang "The Lord's Prayer," as the couple knelt.

Attention was centered upon the bridal party as the familiar chords of the traditional "Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin were heard. First, the ushers, Mr. Charles Bounds of Bastrop, Mr. Bob Nolan, and Mr. Fred Moss, all close friends of the bride and groom, marched down the aisle. They were followed by the bridesmaids, Miss Virginia Laing of Monroe, cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Bob Nolan, who were dressed respectively in lovely pastel floor-length gowns of blue and pink nylon net. Miss Gay McAdams, the maid-of-honor, was attired in pastel blue. The gowns were bouffant in effect, with the strapless bodice and matching stoles. On their heads were worn Juliet caps of matching net. Each carried American beauty gladiolas and carnations, tied with matching satin ribbons. Miss Diane Graves, who was precious in a gown of pink nylon net, served as flower girl, and dropped flower petals before the bride.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was radiant in her gown of blush-pink duchess satin, fashioned with a fitted bodice, ending in a point in the front, and fastened down the back with tiny self-covered buttons. The yoke of sheer marquisette, was outlined in Chantilly lace, forming a sweetheart neckline. The delicate lace collar was enhanced by a pin of coral and gold, belonging to the bride's great-grandmother, and has been in the family for over a hundred years. The long, fitted sleeves ended in lily points over her hands. The gown terminated in a full skirt and court train. Her finger-tip veil of matching illusion was caught to a tiara of lace with a lace crown, and attached at either side were orange blossoms. She carried a cascading bouquet of rose-pink roses, resting on English ivy, tied with matching satin ribbons and maline.

Mr. Charles Blackwell, Sr., served his son as best man.

Reception

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held at the church annex, where the bride and groom received with their parents and members of the bridal party. Candlelight was again used as the only means of illumination. Southern smilax graced each window. The bride's table, overlaid with a hndsome linen cloth, was centered with a floral arrangement of specimen white carnations, interspersed with greenery. Ivory tapers burning in silver three-branch candelabra, lent their beauty over the lovely crystal punch bowl, presided over by Mrs. Jessye Graves. At the opposite end of the table, the wedding cake; a three-tiered confection, embossed with pink roses, was encircled with miniature roses and greenery. Adorning the top was a miniature bride and groom under a heart-shaped arch of maline.

Mrs. H. B. Andrews, a close friend of the bride, presided over the bride's book.

The tea girls, lovely in floor-length pastel models, passed individual cakes embossed with a delicate pink rosebud, and mints among the guests. Serving in this courtesy were Miss Carolyn McDaniel, Miss Ada Virginia Tolar, of Rayville, Miss Frances Washam, of Rayville, Miss Vivian Angela King, Miss Bettye Ross Graves, Miss Barbara Ann Risher, and Miss Jo Ann Blackwell, of Bastrop.

Others assisting in the courtesies were Mrs. Earl Andrews, Mrs. John R. McIlwain, Mrs. G. A. Hume, Mrs. William T. Blackwell, Mrs. Ross Graves, Mrs. Hugh Tucker, Mrs. Jack Moore, and Mrs. Audrey McDermott.

For her daughter's wedding, the bride's mother was charming in a gown of sky-blue lace, with a corsage of pink roses.

Mrs. Blackwell, mother of the bridegroom, chose to wear a gown of dusty rose satin, with a corsage of white roses.

Immediately following the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Blackwell left for a short wedding trip. For traveling, the bride wore an ensemble of midget checked wool, with black purse, gloves, and shoes, and a hat and fingertip coat of winter white. Her corsage was of pink roses and ivy.

Mrs. Blackwell is a graduate of Mer Rouge High School and at the present time is attending Louisiana Tech in Ruston. She is affiliated with Alpha Chi Omega sorority.

The bridegroom is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Blackwell, Sr., and a graduate of Bastrop High School, class of 1948. He was a charter member of Delta Sigma fraternity in Bastrop. He was employed in Bastrop until joining the United States navy in October of 1950. At the present, his ship is in Newport, R. I., but will soon return to the Caribbean for further training.

Mrs. Blackwell will continue her studies at Louisiana Tech, and Mr. Blackwell will report back to Newport to resume his duties.

Out-of-town guests include: Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Wilson, of Savannah, Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Washam, Miss Francis Washam, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Tolar and Miss Ada Virginia Tolar of Rayville; Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Laing and Mr. Vaso Tefas of Monroe; Sergeant Charles W. Anderson of Camp LeJuene, S. C.; Sgt. and Mrs. Ray Carter of Weaver, S. D.; Mrs. Lonnie B. Welcome Branch Book Club Meets With Mrs. A. R. Doughty

Mrs. DeWitt Henry Speaks On 'Citizenship Responsibility' At January Meeting

Mrs. DeWitt Henry delighted members of the Welcome Branch Book Club with an inspirational talk on "Citizenship Responsibility in the 20th Century," on Wednesday when Mrs. A. R. Doughty graciously entertained the club.

In part, Mrs. Henry said: "Think of my responsibility to the state of the nation on this State of the Nation day. One out of three qualified vote in a mayor's race; one out of 19 vote for parish official; less than 50 per cent voted in the last presidential election. In England 82 per cent voted in the election when Mr. Churchill was elected.

It is a thrilling scene to see the flag go by. Then ask the person to translate the love of his country into deeds. How different is the attitude and response.

Miss Ann Lacey Becomes Bride Of John Loy Fluitt

Bridal Couple Exchange Vows Of Impressive Candlelight Service In Memorial Methodist Church

Among the lovely holiday season nuptials was the wedding of Miss Ann Lacey and Mr. John Loy Fluitt which was celebrated on Thursday, December 27, at 7:30 o'clock in the evening at the Memorial Methodist Church of this city. The officiating clergyman in the double-ring ceremony was the Rev. Ralph Cain, pastor. He was assisted in the service by Mr. William Welch, schoolmate of the bridegroom, who read the closing prayer.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Fred Ernst Lacey and the late Mr. Lacey, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Courtland Breckenridge Fluitt.

Greenery, gladiola and candles were used attractively in the decorations of the church. On the altar were tall white seven-branched candelabra entwined with glistening ivy and holding burning tapers. Their light created a pretty effect on the wine-colored drapery which served as a background for a large white cross.

An attractive contrast to the greenery were floor standards holding artistic arrangements of white gladioli. Southern smilax covered the chancel rail and sprays of ivy marked the pews. The beautiful setting was enhanced by ivy on the walls and candles that shone in the windows.

Mrs. Harvey Nelson, organist, played several of the bride's favorite numbers while the guests were being seated. She also accompanied Mrs. Henry Williams, who sang "I Love Thee."

A pretty ceremony was the lighting of the candles by Miss Carolyn Bagwell, who was becomingly gowned in rich green velvet with vari-colored carnations in her hair.

The bride's maid of honor was her cousin Miss Virginia Young, of Bastrop, who was wearing a lovely pink gabardine suit with a small matching hat. She carried white gardenias and blue cornflowers.

Serving the bridegroom as best man was Sam Shepard, a former schoolmate.

Three other schoolmates of the groom who ushered at his wedding were Leon Hunt and Vernon Sanders, both of Monroe, and Jarrell Matkins, of Sterlington.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Naval Cadet Fred Ernst Lacey, Jr., a student at the University of Mississippi. She wore a suit of poudre blue with matching nylon blouse, and a heart-shaped hat of pink felt with inserts of small blossoms in the same hue. The beautiful color theme was developed in the pink feathered carnations which she carried.

Mrs. Lacey chose for her daughter's wedding a royal blue crepe gown with black accessories and a corsage of white carnations. Mrs. Fluitt, the bridegroom's mother, was gowned in navy velvet with which she wore coral accessories and a corsage of matching glamellias.

Immediately following the wedding, a reception was held in the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Aimee Cook in West Monroe, with Mrs. Fred Cook and Mrs. G. L. Morgan also serving as hostesses.

Arrangements of gladioli, roses and fern were used effectively throughout the reception suite.

The bride's table overlaid with a hand embroidered linen cloth, held the beautiful three-tiered wedding cake embossed in flowers and surmounted with an arch of blossoms. At the other end of the table, punch was served by Mrs. Fred Weaver, who was wearing a blue sheer and pink carnation corsage, and Mrs. Roy Banister, who chose black sheer and yellow carnations. Over the table soft lights flickered from a three-branched candelabra that was adorned with white gardenias and matching satin ribbon. These floral arrangements were repeated with artistic effect.

Silver trays holding individual cakes were passed among the guests by Miss Frances Shepard, Miss Betty Roach, Miss Pat Riggs and Miss Myrle Kilpatrick. Miss Shepard was wearing blue velvet, Miss Roach chose black velvet, Miss Riggs was wearing a blue taffeta frock and Miss Kilpatrick was in pink taffeta. All wore corsages of gladioli.

Following their wedding trip to Houston, Tex., and the gulf coast, the couple are now residing at 301 Columbia avenue in Monroe.

Both the bride and groom are students at Northeast Louisiana State. The former is president of the Wesley Foundation and holds membership in Gamma Zeta, social sorority. The latter is a member of the Provost Corps, organization of the Military Police at Northeast, and he is affiliated with the Social Science Club. An advanced military student, he plans to make the army a career.

Out-of-town guests who attended the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. Jack Chishum and daughters, Margie and Beth of Bastrop, Mr. and Mrs. William Young and sons, Billy and Tommy of Bastrop, Mrs. Roy and Henry Banister of Lancaster, Tex., Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Fluitt of Columbia, Mr. Sam Fluitt of Columbia, Mr. and Mrs. E. Stivers of Houston, Tex., Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Malin and son Randall of Columbia, Mr. Allen Perkins of Vinton, Mr. and Mrs. David Fisher of Columbia, and Mrs. Sam Walker, also of Columbia.

YOUNG ARTISTS PERFORM AT MUSIC COTERIE MEETINGS

The A Sharp Music Coterie in the past few months have been having marvelous programs. On October 27 the monthly meeting was held in the home of the hostess Miss Emy-Lou Biedenharn, and Joan Applegate, age 10 years from Bolivia, South America, was the month's artist. She sang her native songs and talked to the members in German, English, and in her native tongue.

The November 10th meeting was held in the home of Miss Janet Cash and the co-hostesses were: Misses Marieanne Buce, Sammie Camp, and Jane Blanchard. The program was as follows:

"The Story of Opera"—Mrs A. M. Serex, Guest Artist.

Piano: "Prayer" from Hansel and Gretel by Humperdink—Jo Rhodes.

"Musetta's Waltz" from Tosca Puccini — Betty Spurlock.

Voice: "Musetta's Waltz" from La Boheme — Nell Golson.

Voice: "Visi D'Arte" from Tosca Puccini — Betty Spurlock.

The meeting of Dec. 8, was held in the home of Miss Carole Eady, the program was pertaining to the holiday season and was based on a MacDowell Festival and Christmas. It was as follows:

"MacDowell the Man"—Sammie Camp.

"To A Water Lily" by MacDowell—DeJuana McCormick.

"Scotch Poem" by MacDowell—Beverly Durden.

Edwin Pinkston And Gene Edmondson Celebrate Birthdays

Lake Providence, La., Dec. 10.—(Special) — Edwin Pinkston and Gene Edmondson celebrated their ninth birthdays with a joint party on last Saturday afternoon at the home of Edwin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Pinkston.

The guests and honorees enjoyed seeing home movies and playing cowboy.

Those sharing in the pleasures and enjoying the ice cream and large blue and white cake enscribed "Happy Birthday, Gene and Edwin," were: Pamela King, Vivian Cox, Joan Edwards, Claudia Terral, Mary Lou Grossman, Martha Russell, Roger Deal, Sam Max Ogletree, Gene Rodge, Elvis Surles, Philip Stafford, and Howard Moorman, Jr.

Mrs. Edmondson and Mrs. Albert Surles assisted Mrs. Pinkston in the serving and entertainig courtesies.

The Home Shift

Let's share our shrubs with new home owners. The Y. W. C. A. has a plant sharing day each fall, started by Mary Flournoy and Juanita Porter but we can continue to share during the year. Don Simmons is looking for a couple of mimosas for a friend. If you have small ones coming up in your yard call Don at 3-6962. Annette Bedgood wants some daisies, any type. Call her at 3-2017. Of course, these couples will be glad to call for the plants and do the digging if you wish. When transplating the trees be sure to wrap the roots entransit so they will not dry out. Prune any bruised roots before planting. Tying a plant, bare rooted, to the outside of a car is murder.

In about seven or eight weeks Mrs. Tull, 1613 Filhiol avenue will invite you, through this column, to visit her. Mrs. Tull has redecorated her entire house and many of her problems may be ones you're having, too. The house is quite small. The small living room has no wall space because of three windows and two doors. Mrs. Tull used a monochromatic color scheme, of gray green throughout the house. In the living room she emphasized the green, in bedroom and kitchen the gray is predominant. You have no idea how much larger the house looks, and how much less "cut up." The effect is lovely. Mrs. Tull and son did all the work. When they have finished the kitchen cornice and curtains and reupholstered the furniture, we'll invite you to see our project.

Found Fred M. Hill, (2907 DeSiard road) making barbecue sauce and I copied his receipe. As you know Fred is known all over Louisiana for his delicious barbecue. Many times he's cooked for several thousand and he always makes his own sauce. I've seen men standing over the pit dunking bread in the pot of sauce. It's that good. Here's his recipe so many of you have requested.

Barbecue Sauce For Pork And Hamburgers

1 pt. Wesson Oil.
8 medium sized onions chopped
4 cloves garlic (chopped).
1 bunch celery (chopped).
2 bell peppers (chopped)

Fry all of this very slowly until tender. Add:

1 T Mexican chili powder.
1 box paprika
4 T celery salt
2 cans tomato paste
2 bottles catsup
1 qt. vinegar
½ teaspoon red pepper.
Salt and pepper to taste.

Simmer for 4 hours. If the mixture gets too thick, add water. Cool. Add 1 large bottle Worchestershire sauce.

Thirty-eight started in the tailoring class Tuesday, plus ten to observe—we'll keep you informed. See you next Sunday in this same column.

Drew P.-T. A. Unit Has Program Meeting

Dr. Hugh Bradshaw led in prayer and Mrs. A. P. Burkett led the Drew P.-T. A. unit in singing "Silent Night" accompanied by Mrs. Ann Prichard at the piano when the unit met for their December meeting. The president, Mrs. Herbert H. Strozier, presided.

The minutes were read with Mrs. G. W. Welch, acting secretary. Mrs. Vivian Parker gave the treasurer's report.

A committtee was appointed to carry out the extensive landscape program, Mrs. Strozier, chairman, Mrs. Reynold Barnes, Mrs. J. E. Ware and Mrs. R. M. Drew.

Mrs. Ware, program chairman, introduced the guest speaker, Dr. Hugh Bradshaw, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of West Monroe, who spoke on the spiritual life and training of our children. Dr. Bradshaw stated: "Something must be done to stop the decay of spiritual life of the youth of our society or we are going to face a dreadful future. We must develop the four-fold life of the child, that is the social physical mental, and spiritual development of the child. Homes must not leave it to the school to develop their children's spiritual education."

The hospitality committee, Mrs. Ware and Mrs. David Smith, served doughnuts and hot coffee. They were assisted by Mrs. Byron Breard.

The next meeting will be held in the school cafeteria on January 17th.

Miss Mary Pat Ross Is Bride Of Edwin Ray Bryan

Bridal Couple Exchange Nuptial Vows At Beouf Prairie Methodist Church In Fort Necessity

Among the lovely weddings of the Christmas season was that of Miss Mary Pat Ross and Cpl. Edwin Ray Bryan who exchanged their nuptial vows in Beouf Prairie Methodist Church at Fort Necessity on Sunday, December 23 at 6:30 o'clock in the evening.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Charlie Ross of Winnsboro and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Clifford Bryan, also of that city.

The Rev. A. M. Coody officiated at the ceremony, attended by a concourse of relatives and friends of the couple as they stood beneath a white arch holding gleaming white tapers.

Unusual significance was associated with the service as the date marked the wedding anniversary of the bride's parents, and the church had been the scene of the marriage of her paternal grandparents.

Southern smilax banked the baptistry and tall white standards overflowing with fern and gladioli in shades graduating from delicate pink to deep orchid were placed at vantage points. The chancel rail was entwined with smilax, while attractive arrangements of fern, tied with glistening white satin ribbon, were placed at intervals to enhance the setting. Panels between the windows bore garlands of smilax, centered with bride's bows and white satin ribbons were repeated in the marking of reserved pews.

Mr. A. C. Trapp of Winnsboro rendered a series of the bride's musical favorites as a pre-nuptial concert. He also accompanied Miss Wilma Joyce White of Rayville, a college mate of the bride, who sang "Through The Years," "Always" and "Because." As the couple knelt at the priedieu, Miss White sang softly "The Lord's Prayer." The bridal chorus from Lohengrin and Mendelssohn's wedding march were used.

A colorful entrance was made by the junior attendants, who wore floor-length taffeta frocks of similar design. The bodices were accented by full ruffles which outlined the yokes and the skirts were full and long. In their hair were painted daisies in tones that matched their dresses. Carol Faye Bryan wearing pink, registered the guests, and Mary Virginia Ross, Glenda Sue Ross and Harriet Buie, wearing lilac, served at the reception.

While "Traumeri" was played, Imogene Bryan and Ruth Wooldridge lighted the candles. They were wearing dresses of mauve taffeta fashioned with bodices with ruffled necklines and puffed sleeves and the skirts were long and full. Orchid-hued corsages completed the pretty effect. Their candles were in holders of waffled orchid net with cascades of narrow satin streamers.

The bride was preceded by her maid of honor, Miss Gloria Nell Moore, and the bridesmaids, Miss Shirley Bryan, Miss Pauline Turner, Miss Annette Railey and Miss Virginia Brooks, all of Fort Necessity, Miss Billie Danley of Oak Grove and Miss Charlotte Holloway of Spencer. Miss Moore was gowned in rose lilac taffeta designed with fitted bodice which featured a soft fold that formed the sleeves. It was joined to a floor-length circular skirt of graceful lines. She wore white lace mits, a double strand of pearls and a corsage of white carnations.

The bridesmaids wore taffeta dresses in light and deep shades of lilac. The closely fitting bodices were trimmed with broad berthas and tiny buttons of the material, and the full skirts touched the floor. They also wore long white mitts and pearls a gift of the bride, and their corsages were of carnations which matched the hues of their gowns.

Serving as flower girls were Sherry Lynn Dial and Vikki Moore who wore long, full taffeta dresses. The invisible yokes of the bodices were encircled by full ruffles, and in their hair were clusters of small painted daisies.

Little Sally Broch, wearing a long pink net frock over matching taffeta, and James Coyt Bryan, Jr., carried the rings on a small white satin pillow, covered in handsome lace.

The exquisite bride entered with her father who gave her in marriage. She presented a picture of loveliness in her wedding gown of white slipper satin. The bodice was designed with a Queen Anne's collar and long tapering sleeves fastened with self covered buttons. Similar buttons ran the length of the waist, which was joined to a full skirt falling in graceful folds to form a modified train. The fingertip veil of illusion fell from a bonnet effect of shirred material edged in tiny pleats. For something old, she wore beautiful pearls, a gift of the groom, and a watch, which was presented by her parents. For something old, she wore her grandmother's ear rings. The traditional "something borrowed" was a handkerchief, which had been carried by a close friend on her wedding day. For Good luck she wore a penny in her shoe.

She carried an old fashioned bride's bouquet of lilies of the valley, centered with a specimen white orchid.

Coyt Bryan of Monroe served his brother as best man, and the groomsmen were: Royce Bryan, Harvey Guillot, Steve Moore, Sonny Ellerman and Bob Cheek, all of Winnsboro.

Immediately after the ceremony a reception was given in the recreation room of the church.

The bride's table, overlaid with a handsome handmade cloth, was centered with the wedding cake, a three-tiered confection embossed in yellow rosebuds and surmounted with bride and groom figurines. From the base, which was encircled with maidenhair fern and yellow gladioli, ran white satin ribbons which ended in fern and the same blossoms. Streamers running to two corners of the table were tied to holders from which tapers burned to cast a pretty glow. White bows, flowers and fern completed the dainty arrangement.

Brick cream was served with the cake by Mrs. Grace Brooks, Mrs. R. B. Mason and Mrs. L. F. Wooldridge.

Mrs. Ross, mother of the bride, wore a navy sheer with matching accessories and a white carnation corsage. Mrs. Bryan, the bridegroom's mother, was attired in a gray tailleur with green accessories and a similar corsage.

Following the reception, the bride changed her wedding gown for a navy velvet suit with which she used a pink hat and matching gloves. Her bag and shoes were navy, and she wore a white orchid from her bridal bouquet. The couple left on a motor trip for their honeymoon.

Corporal and Mrs. Bryan are graduates of Fort Necessity High School. Mrs. Bryan is completing her junior year at Northeast State and will enter Louisiana State University for her senior work. She holds membership in Les Marquises, Gamma Zeta, social sorority, the Home Economics Club and Gamma Omega, sorority of domitory girls.

The bridegroom is serving with the U. S. Air Force. Following training at Wichita Falls, Texas and Selma, Ala., he is being transferred to Rapid City, S. D.

All members of the wedding party were members of the two families or close friends of the couple. The church and reception room were decorated by a friend of the family, Mr. Ernest Foster.

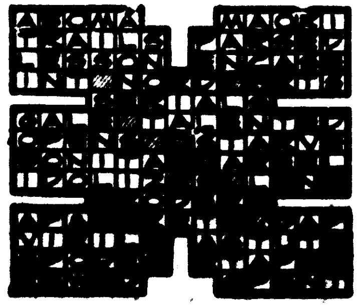
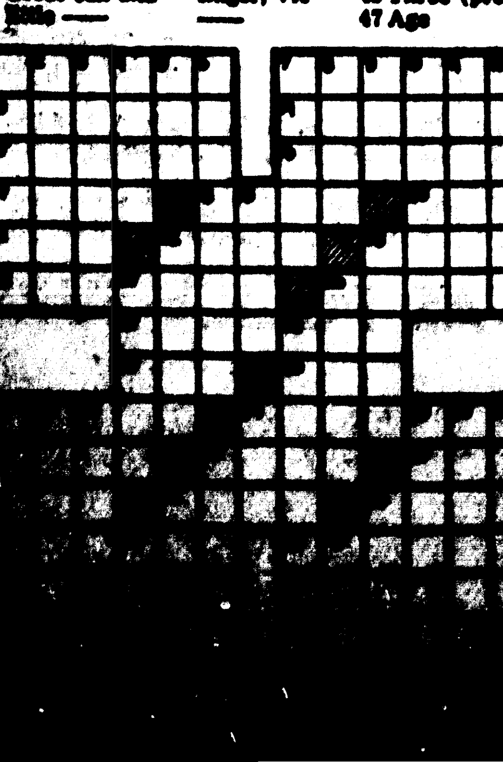
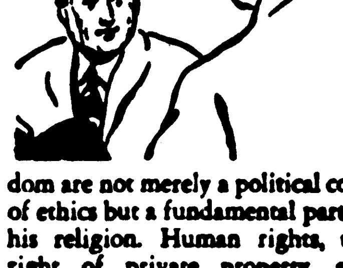
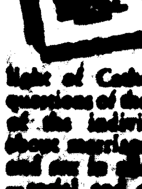
Answer to Previous Puzzle









"All Right...I'll Tell You WHY I AM A CATHOLIC"

You may have heard that your neighbor is a Catholic because his father was. Perhaps you believe that ignorance, superstition and fear keep him loyal to his Faith.

But your common sense should tell you that these are NOT the reasons...that there MUST be something deep and vital and certain about a Faith which can hold the devoted loyalty of nearly 400 millions of people of every race, color and tongue on earth.

Not every Catholic can explain the reasons for his deep conviction in a way that you would understand. For the grace of God that touches a man's soul...and the willingness to believe that moves his heart...are elements of faith which cannot be readily reduced to logic and reason, nor easily explained.

But there are practical and common-sense reasons why so many millions of people are Catholics. And they are such convincing reasons that a young Catholic lawyer, with all the analytical exactness of his profession, has been moved to publish them in a booklet explaining "Why I Am A Catholic."

The Catholic system of thought, he says, provides him with reasonable and consistent answers to the basic questions which trouble mankind. He finds it reasonable to believe, as the Church teaches, that man has a physical body and a rational soul... that man and his world were created by God... and that man lives primarily "to return to God by saving his soul through love of God and his neighbor."

With these principles to guide him, the Catholic finds it both logical and necessary to fulfill his obligations to other men... to obey the civil laws... and to labor for the improvement of society as well as personal gain. For him, the basic principles of democratic freedom are not merely a political code of ethics but a fundamental part of his religion. Human rights, the right of private property, and government with the consent of the people, are essentials of Catholic philosophy of life.

Communism, the lawyer says, is a deadly menace to the world because the solutions it offers to men's problems, though definite, are false and often hideous. Catholicism alone, he adds, offers answers equally as definite and forceful, and backed up by an equal unity and zeal.

"Catholicism," he continues, "gives me confidence and courage to face the present and the future ... the confidence of one who has a map upon which the path to a sound, secure and peaceful future is well outlined; the courage of one who knows that the guide has behind it the experience of 2,000 years, the viewpoint of the world itself, and the devotion of countless millions. I am a Catholic because it would be foolish not to be."

Farmerville Chapter O. E. S. Installs Officers

Mrs. Clara Lee Green was installed Worthy Matron of Farmerville Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, with a most impressive ceremony, at a regular meeting on Friday, December 28, at 7:30 p. m. She was escorted to her station through a candle-lit aisle made by twelve members of the Chapter, after they had formed a Christian Cross on either side of the altar. She was given an orchid and her husband, with appropriate words, presented her with a gavel from the chapter. "Star of the East" was sung by Mrs. Milford.

The following other officers were regularly installed: Vernon McCarley, Worthy Patron; Mrs. Lodusky Ham, Associate Matron; Horace Ludwig, Associate Patron; Mrs. Rosalie Meeks, secretary; Mrs. Lucille Stewart, treasurer; Mrs. Mattie Lou McCarley, conductress; Mrs. Floy Kemp, associate conductress; Mrs. Bessie Prichard, marshal; Mrs. Josephine Lee, Organist; Mrs. Catherine Ballard, Adah; Mrs. Willie Love, Esther; Mrs. Sadie Farrar, Martha; Mrs. Dorothy Whitehead, Electa; Mrs. Olive Milford, Warder; and Marion Love, Sentinel.

Mrs. Lola Odom and Mrs. Thelma Taylor are to be installed Chaplain and Ruth at a later date.

Mrs. Elaine Causey, of Ruston, served as installing officer for the ceremony; Mrs. Arrah Culver, of Monroe, Marshal; Mrs. Olive Edwards, Chaplain, and Mrs. Marilyn Hallman, organist.

The chapter gave Mrs. Fay Futch, the Junior Past Matron, a past matron's pin, which was presented with a lovely tribute by her son, Brantley. Frank Milford, past patron, was given a billfold with the Masonic emblem, by his son Tommy, who spoke words of appreciation from the chapter.

Mrs. Green graciously thanked the chapter for all its courtesies and recognized the guests. These were: Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hartman, Mrs. Monty Collier, of Monroe; Miss Ruby Nell Causey of Ruston; Mr. and Mrs. Ben Taylor, Mrs. Ira Black, Fred Green, Mrs. Minnie Taylor, John Brantley, Allen Futch, Brantley Futch and Tommy Milford.

After a closing prayer, delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses for the occasion.

Calhoun P.-T. A. To Meet Monday

The Calhoun P.-T. A. will hold their regular meeting in the cafeteria Monday, January 14.

The subject of the program will be "With one accord, parents and children, in time of world crisis."

Miss Gladys Gregg will speak on absenteeism and our school record.

The P.-T. A. study course will also start January 14 and continue through the week with speakers from La. Tech, Ruston, and Northeast Louisiana State College, Monroe.

CELEBRATE GOLDEN WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Tichell recently celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary at a family reunion held at their home on Lee avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Tichell have resided in Monroe since 1902.

Gray Ladies' Activities

The Gray Lady Service was organized at the Walter Reed Hospital, Washington, D. C. in 1918 under the guidance of Miss Mable T. Boardman and Mrs. Henry Rea. The term "Gray Ladies" was given by the soldiers of World War I because of the color of the uniforms.

Gray Ladies are volunteers selected because of their special qualifications to serve the sick and convalescent. Members of this service are required to take a short course of six hours training in order that they will better understand how to work with the aged. There are five homes for the aged in Monroe and the Gray Ladies Service will be centered on their needs.

What Gray Ladies Do: It is not possible to give a complete list of Gray Lady duties, however, the following services are some of the many things needed in our community.

Provide reading material such as magazines and church literature according to their faiths.

Write letters for the blind and bedridden persons.

Provide transportation to their doctors or to hospital when needed.

Make purchases of personal needs and clothing for blind and bedridden.

Read letters and church material to persons who are blind or cannot read.

Make social calls to all persons.

Carry ambulatory persons for short rides.

Bedside visiting.

Arranging and distributing gift flowers.

Planning entertainment for patient participation, group singing, movies, etc.

Teaching simple handicrafts.

Anyone interested call Mrs. J. G. Taliaferro, 8617, or Mrs. C. D. McAdams, 3-3886, Gray Lady Chairman and Co-Chairman.

The Logtown Home Demonstration Club Has December Party

The Logtown Home Demonstration Club held its Christmas meeting in the home of Mrs. W. J. Lowe. A beautifully decorated Christmas tree was the center decor.

A Christmas prayer was offered by Mrs. J. A. Shipp following the opening of the meeting by Mrs. John Filhoil. Christmas carols were then sung by the members.

A brief business session was then conducted. Mrs. L. G. Spencer gave an impressive report on the monthly council meeting. A gift of a chair was made by the club at this time to the Logtown school's teachers lounge. Mrs. Euna Spielman presented an interesting demonstration on color harmony in the home.

A moment of silent prayer was offered for the recovery of Mrs. Jewel McQuiller.

Each guest was presented with a gift from under the Christmas tree. Beautiful gifts were given to Mrs John Filhoil, president, and Mrs. W. J. Towe, vice-president.

Refreshments were served from the beautiful candle-lighted tea table. Mrs. Alma Stout poured coffee from the beautiful silver service.

Members and guests to enjoy this lovely meeting were: Mrs. John Filhoil, Mrs. W. A. Calloway, Mrs. J. A. Shipp, Mrs. Eugene Granberry, Mrs. Eunice Spielman, Mrs. Marvin Shipp, Mrs. Garland Shipp, Mrs. James Pendar, Mrs. L. G. Spencer, Mrs. T. L. Pendar, Mrs. J. W. Landrum and daughter, Mrs. Alma Stout, Mrs. T. L. Stout, Mrs. J. Y. Pipes and the hostess, Mrs. W. J. Luton and daughter Miss Bill Luton.

Miss Mary Pat Ross Is Bride Of Edwin Ray Bryan

Bridal Couple Exchange Nuptial Vows At Beouf Prairie Methodist Church In Fort Necessity

Among the lovely weddings of the Christmas season was that of Miss Mary Pat Ross and Cpl. Edwin Ray Bryan who exchanged their nuptial vows in Beouf Prairie Methodist Church at Fort Necessity on Sunday, December 23 at 6:30 o'clock in the evening.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Charlie Ross of Winnsboro and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Clifford Bryan, also of that city.

The Rev. A. M. Coody officiated at the ceremony, attended by a concourse of relatives and friends of the couple as they stood beneath a white arch holding gleaming white tapers.

Unusual significance was associated with the service as the date marked the wedding anniversary of the bride's parents, and the church had been the scene of the marriage of her paternal grandparents.

Southern smilax banked the baptistry and tall white standards overflowing with fern and gladioli in shades graduating from delicate pink to deep orchid were placed at vantage points. The chancel rail was entwined with smilax, while attractive arrangements of fern, tied with glistening white satin ribbon, were placed at intervals to enhance the setting. Panels between the windows bore garlands of smilax, centered with bride's bows and white satin ribbons were repeated in the marking of reserved pews.

Mrs. Ross, mother of the bride, wore a navy sheer with matching accessories and a white carnation corsage. Mrs. Bryan, the bridegroom's mother, was attired in a gray tailleur with green accessories and a similar corsage.

Following the reception, the bride changed her wedding gown for a navy velvet suit with which she used a pink hat and matching gloves. Her bag and shoes were navy, and she wore a white orchid from her bridal bouquet. The couple left on a motor trip for their honeymoon.

The Logtown Home Demonstration Club Has December Party

The Logtown Home Demonstration Club held its Christmas meeting in the home of Mrs. W. J. Lowe. A beautifully decorated Christmas tree was the center decor.

A Christmas prayer was offered by Mrs. J. A. Shipp following the opening of the meeting by Mrs. John Filhoil. Christmas carols were then sung by the members.

A brief business session was then conducted. Mrs. L. G. Spencer gave an impressive report on the monthly council meeting. A gift of a chair was made by the club at this time to the Logtown school's teachers lounge. Mrs. Euna Spielman presented an interesting demonstration on color harmony in the home.

A moment of silent prayer was offered for the recovery of Mrs. Jewel McQuiller.

Each guest was presented with a gift from under the Christmas tree. Beautiful gifts were given to Mrs. John Filhoil, president, and Mrs. W. J. Towe, vice-president.

Refreshments were served from the beautiful candle-lighted tea table. Mrs. Alma Stout poured coffee from the beautiful silver service.

Members and guests to enjoy this lovely meeting were: Mrs. John Filhoil, Mrs. W. A. Calloway, Mrs. J. A. Shipp, Mrs. Eugene Granberry, Mrs. Eunice Spielman, Mrs. Marvin Shipp, Mrs. Garland Shipp, Mrs. James Pendar, Mrs. L. G. Spencer, Mrs. T. L. Pendar, Mrs. J. W. Landrum and daughter, Mrs. Alma Stout, Mrs. T. L. Stout, Mrs. J. Y. Pipes and the hostess, Mrs. W. J. Luton and daughter Miss Bill Luton.

"All Right...I'll Tell You WHY I AM A CATHOLIC"

You may have heard that your neighbor is a Catholic because his father was. Perhaps you believe that ignorance, superstition and fear keep him loyal to his Faith.

But your common sense should tell you that these are NOT the reasons...that there MUST be something deep and vital and certain about a Faith which can hold the devoted loyalty of nearly 400 millions of people of every race, color and tongue on earth.

Not every Catholic can explain the reasons for his deep conviction in a way that you would understand. For the grace of God that touches a man's soul...and the willingness to believe that moves his heart...are elements of faith which cannot be readily reduced to logic and reason, nor easily explained.

But there are practical and common-sense reasons why so many millions of people are Catholics. And they are such convincing reasons that a young Catholic lawyer, with all the analytical exactness of his profession, has been moved to publish them in a booklet explaining "Why I Am A Catholic."

The Catholic system of thought, he says, provides him with reasonable and consistent answers to the basic questions which trouble mankind. He finds it reasonable to believe, as the Church teaches, that man has a physical body and a rational soul... that man and his world were created by God...and that man lives primarily "to return to God by saving his soul through love of God and his neighbor."

With these principles to guide him, the Catholic finds it both logical and necessary to fulfill his obligations to other men . . . to obey the civil laws...and to labor for the improvement of society as well as personal gain. For him, the basic principles of democratic freedom are not merely a political code of ethics but a fundamental part of his religion. Human rights, the right of private property, and government with the consent of the people, are essentials of Catholic philosophy of life.

Communism, the lawyer says, is a deadly menace to the world because the solutions it offers to men's problems, though definite, are false and often hideous. Catholicism alone, he adds, offers answers equally as definite and forceful, and backed up by an equal unity and zeal.

"Catholicism," he continues, "gives me confidence and courage to face the present and the future ...the confidence of one who has a map upon which the path to a sound, secure and peaceful future is well outlined; the courage of one who knows that the guide has behind it the experience of 2,000 years, the viewpoint of the world itself, and the devotion of countless millions. I am a Catholic because it would be foolish not to be."

IT'S TRUE – AND EVERYBODY KNOWS IT –

A New Broom Sweeps Clean

And It's Time For The People Of Franklin–Richland And Catahoula Parishes To Get A New Broom!

LET'S ELECT

William R. BOLES

STATE SENATOR– Franklin – Richland Catahoula Parishes

And Clean House Of Deadhead Politicans And Payroll Parisites – and give the government back to the people –

"Billy" Boles will never presume that he has the right to tell people whom to elect Governor, Representative, Police Juror, Sheriff, etc. It is your Constitutional Right to elect whomever you choose and if he is elected it will be his duty to work with, not against, these elected officials for the best interest of the people he represents. The only way to achieve the most advantages for this or any other district is through close cooperation with all of the officials of the parish and district.

WILLIAM R. BOLES

"Billy" Boles has conducted his campaign as an independent candidate and if elected, he will be obligated only to the people and not to any group of "dead-head" politicians. He will represent all the people of his district and never require that a person vote for him before he will help him. "Billy" Boles wants to be your senator and if you ever need his assistance, you can always find him in his office. It will not be necessary for you to get some "politician" to make an appointment for you.

Girl Scout News

It's been a long time since we've mentioned Troop 2 in this column, but we were sure that with their capable leaders, Mrs. Amos Hood, Mrs. Orea Atkins, and Mrs. Pankey, these enthusiastic girls were making progress in scouting. Sure 'nuf, we find they have been busy working on second class rank requirements and that now Linda Faye Atkins, Linda Bledsoe, Amy Hood, Linda McCormick, Wanda Mouton, Charlotte Pankey, Frances Phillips and Louise Lester are entitled to wear the second class badge on their uniform sleeve.

Carolyn Harris, Joyce Cosby, and Jimmie Lee Bamburg were invested at last week's meeting, and Delores Sartor was welcomed as a new member who is working on tenderfoot requirements and will be invested soon.

At last week's meeting the girls packed two big boxes with food and clothing for a needy family they had heard about. The troop elected Linda McCormick and Linda Faye Atkins as representatives to the girl-planning board. Seems Linda is the name the troop has the most of.

Highlight of the activities in second class seems to have been the one in homemaking when Troop 2 invited Troop 41 made up of girls their age at Crosley School, to be their guests. The hostess troop furnished entertainment which fulfilled the requirements in dramatics. They served simple refreshments to their guests and made the occasion an enjoyable one for both troops.

Now in spite of the winter weather the girls are looking ahead to progressive experiences in camping. First a cook-out and day hike, a troop camp in the spring, day camp in mid summer and many of them are planning on attending a Girl Scout established camp next summer. Sounds as if Troop 2 is having a varied program and carrying out activities in the real scout way.

Another troop of out of door lovers is Troop 35. Now that these girls have reached second class rank they are looking ahead to first class. The girls have chosen the out of doors as their major field. For the other badges the girls will work in the nature and health and safety fields. For their first badges they will work on backyard camper, first aid, and tree finder. They are building an outdoor kitchen in the yard of their leader Mrs. Dickerson. Mrs. Bryan is assistant leader of the troop.

A number of leaders tried their hands at pottery at the meeting Tuesday and several of them were so intrigued with it that they would like to share their fun with girls in their troops. Since girls are usually interested in hobbies of the grown-ups around them, we'll probably be hearing of numbers of young potters.

The girl planning board, made up of representatives from each intermediate troop, met yesterday to share in long-term planning for important spring and summer events — the Juliette Low offering and the Girl Scout 40th anniversary celebration in March being the first important dates to consider. Don't know what they did but will let you know.

Storing Nuts

"Pecans, peanuts and other nuts are high in fat" states Mrs. Mildred G. Swift. "If they are held for any length of time, the fat is apt to become rancid and the nuts a total loss."

The agent says unshelled nuts can be kept for a time in a cool, dry, dark place in a well-sealed container. Nut meats can also be stored for short periods of time if kept covered in the refrigerator. They can be kept for long periods only in vacuum-sealed cans or jars.

It takes about — 2 pounds unshelled walnuts to make 1 lb. of nut meats. 3 pounds unshelled pecans to make 1 lb. of nut meats. 4 lb. unshelled almonds to make 1 pound nut meats. 1 lb. of nut meats measures 3 to 3½ cups. Large pieces measure more, broken pieces measure less.

Van Heflin Makes New Start In Comedy Field In Film At The Joy

'Weed End With Father' Opens Engagement Today At Local Theater

Van Heflin, fresh from a series of outdoor action film roles, started his first comedy role in 12 years with his fingers crossed.

"I have never been hurt in an action part," Van admits, "but unless one is careful in an innocent comedy role you can wind up in a hospital bed, swathed in bandages and braces."

Heflin is now starring with Patricia Neal and Gigi Perreau in Universal - International's "Week End With Father," opening today at the Joy Theatre. In the new comedy film Heflin shares laugh situations with a couple of dogs and a gang of kids.

"When I started 'Week End With Father'," Van continues, "I was willing to settle for place or show. After all who can win with a gang of scene stealers which includes dogs and kids."

According to Heflin, action roles aren't half as dangerous as comedy parts. In a battle sequence for the recent Technicolor "Tomahawk," arrows flew all around the rugged actor, guns roared in his ears and Indians brushed their galloping horses past him in close-shave fashion. But, adds Van, it wasn't as dangerous as it sounds because great precaution is taken for the protection of the players in such hazardous scenes.

"But in a comedy it's different," he adds. "The players don't expect danger from comedy roles. They're looking for belly - laughs without worrying about belly - bruises. But believe me, those particular scenes aren't any bed of roses."

In "Week End With Father" Heflin participates with hilarious results in a father-and-son series of games staged at a summer camp. He rolls eggs with his nose, staggers around in a potato sack race and plays the business end of a human wheelbarrow.

"And believe it or not," he concludes, "I got more than my share of shock and bruises."

"Week End With Father" was directed by Douglas Sirk and produced by Ted Richmond. Virginia Field, Richard Denning and Jimmy Hunt head the supporting cast of the comedy.

AT THE THEATERS

TEM

Sunday through Wednesday — "Flame of Araby," with Maureen O'Hara, Jeff Chandler and Maxwell Reed.

Thursday through Saturday — "Slaughter Trail," with Brian Donlevy, Virginia Grey and Andy Devine.

DELTA

Sunday — "Painting the Clouds With Sunshine" with Dennis Morgan, Virginia Mayo and Gene Nelson.

Monday and Tuesday — "The Guy Who Came Back," with Paul Douglas and Joan Bennett, and "Experiment to Alcatraz" with John Howard and Joan Dixon.

Wednesday and Thursday—"Anne Of the Indies" with Jean Peters, Louis Jourdan and Debra Paget, and "Frontier Phantom" with Lash LaRue.

Friday and Saturday — "Red Stallion of the Rockies" with Author Franz and Jean Heather, and "Stage to Blue River" with Whip Wilson.

PARAMOUNT

Sunday and Monday — "The Magic Carpet" with Lucille Ball, John Agar, Patricia Medina, Raymond Burr and George Tobias.

Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday — "Streetcar Named Desire" with Vivien Leigh, Marlon Brando, Kim Hunter and Karl Malden.

Friday and Saturday — "Magic Face" with Luther Adler, Patricia Knight, William L. Shirer and Ilka Windish.

NOW AT THE JOY

Central Grammar P.-T. A. Study Group To Meet

The Central Grammar P.-T. A. study group will meet Thursday, January 17, at 2 p. m. in the school auditorium. Miss Eleona Brinsmade will speak on "The Visiting Teacher," questions and discussion to follow. Miss Brinsmade is very capable in this field and is a very interesting speaker. All Central Grammar P.-T. A. members are urged to attend.

Central Grammar P.-T. A. met in the school auditorium for the December meeting. Rev. Olin Harmon, pastor of the Emmanuel Baptist Chuch was guest speaker. His topic "School Need Parents Who Make More Positive Their Influence of Spiritual Forces on Personality Development," was very interesting. Mrs. Pearce and Mrs. Shurr's 5th grades entertained the group. Homemade cakes and coffee were served in the school cafeteria.

'Streetcar Named Desire' Coming To Paramount On Next Tuesday

Vivien Leigh, Marlon Brando Starred In Outstanding Drama

Richard Day, an Academy Award winner five times for his distinguished art direction, describes his settings for "A Streetcar Named Desire" as "dramatized realism."

With New Orleans and the picturesque French quarter as background for the taut emotional action of Tennessee Williams' celebrated stage success, the film will be shown on the Paramount Theatre screen starting Tuesday with Vivien Leigh and Marlon Brando. It is an Elia Kazan production, produced by Charles K. Feldman for Warner Bros. Kazan directed. Day spent some weeks in the Louisiana city absorbing atmosphere and acquiring material.

"My whole basis of design was to create backgrounds that work and prey on the character of Blanche DuBois, the central figure of the story, which Vivien Leigh protrays," Day continued. "These settings had to tear and eat away at Blanche's nerves and play their part in her final disintegration.

"When she comes to visit her sister, Stella and Stella's husband, played by Kim Hunter and Marlon Brando, the shock of what she sees in contrast to her neatness, her gentleness and her feeling for dwelling in the grandeur of the past had to be emphatically depicted.

"And so we have Stella and Stanley's place. One hundred and fifty years ago in the city that was, it was a mansion, with its beautiful doors, splendid old mantelpiece, and refined architectural detail. Today, it has degenerated to a slum, with stain and carelessness and disregard, the warp of time and the functional use of modern progress having taken their toll. Blanche's horror is immediately apparent and this flat continues to work on her emotions, even though she makes some effort to restore and clean it up.

COMING TO PARAMOUNT

Kim Hunter, shown above, is co-starred with Marlon Brando and Vivien Leigh in "Streetcar Named Desire," Tennessee William's stage success, which opens a three-day engagement at the Paramount Theatre Tuesday.

The American Association of Motor vehicle Administrators says about 35 per cent of the nation's driving public is below visual safety standards.

Van Heflin Makes New Start In Comedy Field In Film At The Joy

'Weed End With Father' Opens Engagement Today At Local Theater

Van Heflin, fresh from a series of outdoor action film roles, started his first comedy role in 12 years with his fingers crossed.

"I have never been hurt in an action part," Van admits, "but unless one is careful in an innocent comedy role you can wind up in a hospital bed, swathed in bandages and braces."

Heflin is now starring with Patricia Neal and Gigi Perreau in Universal - International's "Week End With Father," opening today at the Joy Theatre. In the new comedy film Heflin shares laugh situations with a couple of dogs and a gang of kids.

"When I started 'Week End With Father'," Van continues, "I was willing to settle for place or show. After all who can win with a gang of scene stealers which includes dogs and kids."

According to Heflin, action roles aren't half as dangerous as comedy parts. In a battle sequence for the recent Technicolor "Tomahawk," arrows flew all around the rugged actor, guns roared in his ears and Indians brushed their galloping horses past him in close-shave fashion. But, adds Van, it wasn't as dangerous as it sounds because great precaution is taken for the protection of the players in such hazardous scenes.

"But in a comedy it's different," he adds. "The players don't expect danger from comedy roles. They're looking for belly - laughs without worrying about belly - bruises. But believe me, those particular scenes aren't any bed of roses."

In "Week End With Father" Heflin participates with hilarious results in a father-and-son series of games staged at a summer camp. He rolls eggs with his nose, staggers around in a potato sack race and plays the business end of a human wheelbarrow.

"And believe it or not," he concludes, "I got more than my share of shock and bruises."

"Week End With Father" was directed by Douglas Sirk and produced by Ted Richmond. Virginia Field, Richard Denning and Jimmy Hunt head the supporting cast of the comedy.

NOW AT THE JOY

Central Grammar P.-T. A. Study Group To Meet

The Central Grammar P.-T. A. study group will meet Thursday, January 17, at 2 p. m. in the school auditorium. Miss Eleona Brinsmade will speak on "The Visiting Teacher," questions and discussion to follow. Miss Brinsmade is very capable in this field and is a very interesting speaker. All Central Grammar P.-T. A. members are urged to attend.

Central Grammar P.-T. A. met in the school auditorium for the December meeting. Rev. Olin Harmon, pastor of the Emmanuel Baptist Chuch was guest speaker. His topic "School Need Parents Who Make More Positive Their Influence of Spiritual Forces on Personality Development," was very interesting. Mrs. Pearce and Mrs. Shurr's 5th grades entertained the group. Homemade cakes and coffee were served in the school cafeteria.

'Streetcar Named Desire' Coming To Paramount On Next Tuesday

Vivien Leigh, Marlon Brando Starred In Outstanding Drama

Richard Day, an Academy Award winner five times for his distinguished art direction, describes his settings for "A Streetcar Named Desire" as "dramatized realism."

With New Orleans and the picturesque French quarter as background for the taut emotional action of Tennessee Williams' celebrated stage success, the film will be shown on the Paramount Theatre screen starting Tuesday with Vivien Leigh and Marlon Brando. It is an Elia Kazan production, produced by Charles K. Feldman for Warner Bros. Kazan directed. Day spent some weeks in the Louisiana city absorbing atmosphere and acquiring material.

"My whole basis of design was to create backgrounds that work and prey on the character of Blanche DuBois, the central figure of the story, which Vivien Leigh protrays," Day continued. "These settings had to tear and eat away at Blanche's nerves and play their part in her final disintegration.

"When she comes to visit her sister, Stella and Stella's husband, played by Kim Hunter and Marlon Brando, the shock of what she sees in contrast to her neatness, her gentleness and her feeling for dwelling in the grandeur of the past had to be emphatically depicted.

"And so we have Stella and Stanley's place. One hundred and fifty years ago in the city that was, it was a mansion, with its beautiful doors, splendid old mantelpiece, and refined architectural detail. Today, it has degenerated to a slum, with stain and carelessness and disregard, the warp of time and the functional use of modern progress having taken their toll. Blanche's horror is immediately apparent and this flat continues to work on her emotions, even though she makes some effort to restore and clean it up.

COMING TO PARAMOUNT

Kim Hunter, shown above, is co-starred with Marlon Brando and Vivien Leigh in "Streetcar Named Desire," Tennessee William's stage success, which opens a three-day engagement at the Paramount Theatre Tuesday.

The American Association of Motor vehicle Administrators says about 35 per cent of the nation's driving public is below visual safety standards.

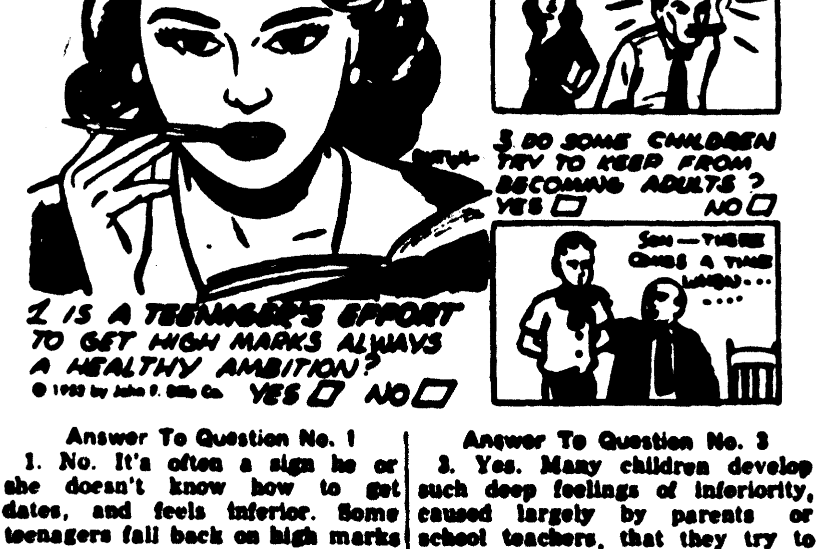
LET'S EXPLORE YOUR MIND

By ALBERT EDWARD WIGGAM, D. S.



2 DOES YOUR ANGER ABATE IN AN ARGUMENT IF THE OTHER PERSON HAS THE LAST WORD? YES ☐ NO ☐
3 DO SOME CHILDREN TRY TO KEEP FROM BECOMING ADULTS? YES ☐ NO ☐
SON—THERE COMES A TIME WHEN...
1 IS A TEENAGER'S EFFORT TO GET HIGH MARKS ALWAYS A HEALTHY AMBITION? YES ☐ NO ☐
© 1952 by John F. Dille Co.

Answer To Question No. 1

1. No. It's often a sign he or she doesn't know how to get dates, and feels inferior. Some teenagers fall back on high marks as a means of gaining superiority. Don't let me discourage them from healthy efforts to learn, but teachers, school counselors and parents should see to it that kids learn how to "belong" and have good times in groups with the opposite sex.

Answer To Question No. 2

2. No, not unless you let your anger abate intentionally, and with an understanding of the psychology of winning arguments. Otherwise you feel defeated and keep up boiling inside for hours — some people keep on for a lifetime. How to get this last word yourself, and yet keep the other fellow from feeling defeated is told in our booklet, "How To Win Your Arguments." Sent at cost, 15 cents (coin only) plus self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Answer To Question No. 3

3. Yes. Many children develop such deep feelings of inferiority, caused largely by parents or school teachers, that they try to appear stupid so they can avoid facing and solving the problems of life. Our booklet, "How To Be An Emotional Grownup" will help parents discover these tendencies — even in themselves! Sent at cost, 15 cents, (coin only) plus self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Conquer Your Fears

New 28 page booklet prepared by Dr. Wiggam from the research of Dr. David Mitchell, consulting Psychologist. Shows you how to analyze and end your fears. Send 15 cents in coin and a stamped (3c) self - addressed return envelope. This offer is made without profit and only as a service to readers. If you wish a copy address Dr. A. E. LET'S EXPLORE YOUR MIND

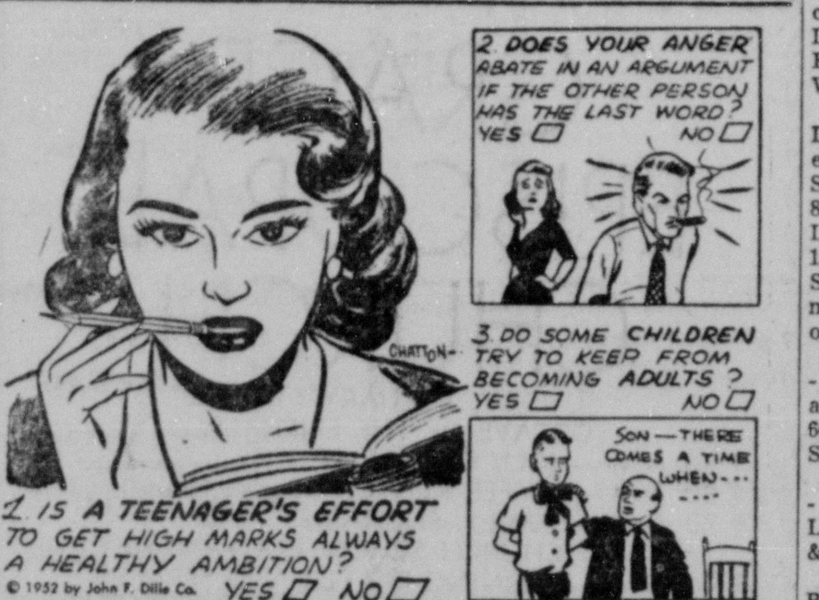
By ALBERT EDWARD WIGGAM, D. S.



1. IS A TEENAGER'S EFFORT TO GET HIGH MARKS ALWAYS A HEALTHY AMBITION? YES ☐ NO ☐
2. DOES YOUR ANGER ABATE IN AN ARGUMENT IF THE OTHER PERSON HAS THE LAST WORD? YES ☐ NO ☐
3. DO SOME CHILDREN TRY TO KEEP FROM BECOMING ADULTS? YES ☐ NO ☐
SON—THERE COMES A TIME WHEN.... ....
CHATTON

Answer To Question No. 1

1. No. It's often a sign he or she doesn't know how to get dates, and feels inferior. Some teenagers fall back on high marks as a means of gaining superiority. Don't let me discourage them from healthy efforts to learn, but teachers, school counselors and parents should see to it that kids learn how to "belong" and have good times in groups with the opposite sex.

Answer To Question No. 2

2. No, not unless you let your anger abate intentionally, and with an understanding of the psychology of winning arguments. Otherwise you feel defeated and keep on boiling inside for hours — some people keep on for a lifetime. How to get this last word yourself, and yet keep the other fellow from feeling defeated is told in our booklet, 'How To Win Your Arguments." Sent at cost, 15 cents (coin only) plus self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Answer To Question No. 3

3. Yes. Many children develop such deep feelings of inferiority, caused largely by parents or school teachers, that they try to appear stupid so they can avoid facing and solving the problems of life. Our booklet, "How To Be An Emotional Grownup" will help parents discover these tendencies — even in themselves! Sent at cost, 15 cents, (coin only) plus self-addressed, stamped envelope.

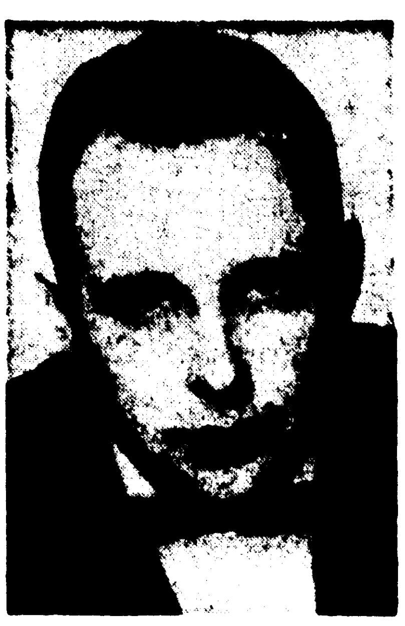
CENTRAL CHURCH HAVING REVIVAL

Rev. Sailhamer, LeTourneau Equipment Co., Chaplain, To Preach

Rev. Claude Sailhamer, plant chaplain at the LeTourneau Equipment Co. of Vicksburg, Miss., will be the evangelist in an eight-day revival which will begin at the Central Baptist Church on Sunday, January 13. Reverend Sailhamer is a Baptist minister, having served in the pastorate and has traveled over the nation. He is a powerful and consecrated speaker and has a message that is well worth hearing.



REV. SAILHAMER

Charles Littleton, who is the music director of the Central Baptist Church, will have charge of the music. He will be using both the young people's choir and the adult choir during the various nights of the meeting. Great gospel preaching will be supported by great gospel singing.

The general public is cordially invited to attend this brief series of meetings and to share in the blessings that will be received. Central Baptist Church is located at 3400 Lee Avenue in Monroe. A southside bus passes directly in front of the doors of the church.

Angelo Patri

Our Children

AMBITIOUS PARENTS

One of the most difficult problems a schoolteacher has to meet is the one in which the parent insists that he has one sort of child while the child plainly proclaims he is another sort entirely. The teacher wants to go along with the pupil he has, the parent wants him to create the dream child he insists upon having. The pupils is torn between the two forces, his parents' dream and his own nature.

Many a parent longs to fulfill his broken dream in the life of his child. It is rarely possible for anybody to live again in the life of another. Each of us is given his own chance at life, just that one, no more. Any attempt to be reincarnated in the form of one's child is doomed to failure, most painful failure, from the start.

Usually such an ambition calls for a star performance on the child's side. Never mind if he has no talent of the kind. Never mind that he indicates skill, talent, high ability in another direction. He must stop being himself and be the dream creature his fond parent projects as his own greatness. No good comes of it, nothing but discord, disruption and arrangement.

A boy does well in his high school course and his father is delighted. He decides once more that the law, or medicine, or engineering, whatever his youthful ambition had chosen, is the course his son shall take. Son is dismayed. He thought he had made it plain all along that he wanted to be a businessman. He has no taste for anything else. Business is his career.

The resultant struggle drives the boy from home, brings grief to his family, distress and bewilderment to him. Even if, in the end, his father gives up grudgingly, the scars of battle remain to ache and smart at a touch of memory.

Yes, children, youth, need guidance. They will accept it just so far but when the limit is reached they rebel. They must if they are intelligent. There is in every high-school graduate a hard core of personality, of character. He will go along cheerfully with his leaders until that core is threatened. Then he will balk. When that happens teacher or parent must stop, take another look, let the student talk while he listens, for this is the real person talking now. It is time to go along with him, not to try to make him follow a road alien to his feet.

Some children are very sensitive and afraid. Fear is poison to the mind and children who have fears suffer. How to guard against fear is explained by Dr. Patri in leaflet P-1. To obtain a copy, send 10 cents in coin to him, c-o this paper, P. O. Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N. Y.

WILL EXPEDITE P. O. W. LETTERS

Military Aircraft To Convey Mail From U. S. To Korea Via Japan

The Ouachita parish chapter, American Red Cross, received the following information concerning mail for prisoners of war:

In an effort to expedite mail deliveries of prisoner of war, mail will be carried by military aircraft from United States to Korea by way of Japan, the department of defense annouced. Previously, this has been carried by commercial aircraft, delivered at Hong Kong through Communist channels. The mail should be addressed as follows:

Grade, name and service number of the individual, care of Chinese People's Committee for World Peace, Peking, China.

Also, name and number of prison camp, if known. Place the letter in an envelope addressed as above, no postage necessary. In the upper right hand corner of the envelope "prisoner of war mail," and in the upper left hand corner, the name and address of the sender. Drop this letter in any U. S. mail box.

The department of defense pointed out that the next of kin may expect to find Communistic propaganda in the letters that are delivered through Panmunjom. The numbers and names of prison camps in North Korea recently furnished by the Communists are as follows: 1 and 3, Chiang-Song; 2, 4 and 5, and 7, Pyok-Dong; 5 and 6, Pyong-Yang; 8, Kang-Dong; 10, Chon-Ma; and 11, Puk-Chin.

Frank Breese, home service chairman, urges that families of prisoners of war follow these instructions very carefully in addressing the mail to them.

Mexico at present has 28 states and three territories.

ST. MATTHEW'S HALF DAY TIME

Will Be Given Opportunity To Prepare For Final Term Tests

Midterm exams are just ahead for St. Matthew's Parochial School. In the high school department, classes will run on a half-day schedule this coming Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday to allow students to devote more time to reviews in preparation for the tests that will take place each morning on those days. The semester term will open January 21.

At the end of the week the boys of the high school division will hold their annual retreat at Maryhill, La. The boys will leave on Friday afternoon, and return on Sunday following. Then, in turn the girls will go for their three-day porgram of prayer, recollection and spiritual inventory. The Reverend Denis Curren is director of the Maryhill Retreat House.

Students are quite agog over the many and varied activities that are presently figuring in the school program. Sodalists are looking forward with genuine eagerness to the annual oratorical contest that will be held in Shreveport on February 3 at St. Vincent's College, and to the final speeches that will be delivered in the St. Matthew's gymnasium during the sodality convention scheduled for February 8-9. A trophy will be awarded the winner. Delegates from all north Louisiana will converge upon Monroe for that occasion. The Rt. Reverend Mosignor Marsh is general chairman of the event, and the Reverend H. Sheldon both of St. Matthew's Church, is director. Miss Sally Hays, prefect of the St. Matthew's High School Sodality, is chairman and chief director of the committees in charge. The convention is a full one-day meeting, opening with a pontifical high mass at 8 o'clock in St. Matthew's Church with the Most Reverend Bishop Greco of Alexandria officiating. Discussions will be held in the school gymnasium with the Reverend J. Sinners, S. J. of St. Louis, presiding as discussion-leader. The convention will close with a dance Saturday evening. Members of the executive board will meet in advance on Friday evening, February 8 with the dioscesan director, the Reverend A. B. Kearns, S. J., of Shreveport, and the Reverend J. Shinners, S. J., in the gymnasium meeting room. Some forty delegates, members of the executive board are expected to attend this resolutions meeting.

The St. Matthew's annual Mardi Gras carnival is the next big event of importance on the school's agenda. This annual carnival formal ball will be held in the school gymnasium on the evening of February 26. It is a benefit activity sponsored by the school's yearbook, The Matthuan. According to Miss Rosina Lisotta, editor, several candidates are competing for the title of queen of the Mardi Gras ball. From the senior class, Miss Polly Riley, and Miss Phyllis Jo Nastasi are candidates; the juniors, to date, are Miss Jimmie Fox, Miss Evelyn Ann Jernigan, Miss Miriam Biggar, and Miss Mary Ann Pizzaro. Some more candidates are Misses Anna Marie Danna, Evy Lee Ritter, Kathleen Debnam, and Vita Jean Zagone; freshman candidates are: Misses Wanda Factor, Connie Tichell, Betty Ebarb, Judy Landreaux, and Sue Turner. Candidates from the grade school upper classes are Misses Mary Ann Embanata, Katie La Case, Joyce Mochnik, Margaret Lewis, Fayelynn Guerriere.

First results of the contest will be announced on Monday, January 21. The question uppermost now is: Who will be queen?

The U. S. Marines reported that no patrol employing dogs was ambushed in the Pacific war.

CAP Over Monroe

As we have told you several times, and we want to remind you again, your civil air patrol is a very vital part of our civil defense network on a national scale. Only when all of us as citizens recognize our responsibilities in assisting in this work can we properly prepare ourselves for any eventuality. Lack of personnel often hampers a great work and we know there are great numbers of our friends in Monroe who have not as yet inquired about CAP and its functions. Don't tell yourself you have no qualifications—you might be surprised at the variety of things which could use your valuable assistance. Let's talk it over—call Jack Hover at 9842 or 6560 or Eddie Young at 7552 or 3-5116. Learn about civil air patrol!

CLAIBORNE HAS PANEL TALKS

Discussion Held To Build Up Desired Personalities

Continuing a series of panel discussions on peritnent subjects, the Claiborne P.-T. A. presented the subject, "For the Spirit's Hunger."

The following members made up the panel: Mrs. Marie Wallace, Mrs. H. W. McEnery, Mrs. M. L. DeFreese, Miss Marguerite Norris. The aims of this discussion was to build up, out of spiritual insights already familiar to us, a practical picture of the kind of personality that has spiritual destination and inner peace.

The first point explored and discussed resulted in the following conclusion: the person who feels no need to grow is unlikely ever to grow, he often blames others for his mistakes, and thereby arouses a sense of resentment that causes him to feel misunderstood and builds up in him a defensive attitude. Periods of acute spiritual hunger among peoples have always in history been marked by the growth of cults. The human being who feels unable to stand alone grabs for support. He tends to let others take the risks, do the thinking, dole out praise and disapproval and never grows fully to adult competence and independence. This type of person will never receive the necessary spiritual help unless his interest and energy is turned outward. Some people won't tolerate having attention turned from themselves.

Unless he changes the basic direction of his attention he is doomed by his self-concern to lose his life by trying to save it, or the ego of his importance. Other points developed showed that spiritual health is won by self-direction, and we must take care that in projected anger at our own littleness we do not persecute those who take away from our greatness. When the call for service comes to us today, do we say as the prophet of old, "Here am I, send me."?

Mrs. Grady Haynes, Founder's Day chairman announced that a program commemorating the founding of the P-T. A. will be held Feb. 15, at 7:00 p. m.

The finance committee met at the close of the meeting and planned a chicken supper to help raise the budget. The sixth grade won the attendance count.

RUSSIANS SETTLE IN KURILES

Moscow —(P)— Dispatches being received from the Kurile Islands—that is between the one of Okhotsk and the Pacific—tell of the arrival and settlement of Soviet citizens there.

The Soviet state is reported to be giving the new settlers generous help in establishing themselves. They are said to receive loans in money, manufactured goods and timber.

Angelo Patri

Our Children

AMBITIOUS PARENTS

One of the most difficult problems a schoolteacher has to meet is the one in which the parent insists that he has one sort of child while the child plainly proclaims he is another sort entirely. The teacher wants to go along with the pupil he has, the parent wants him to create the dream child he insists upon having. The pupils is torn between the two forces, his parents' dream and his own nature.

Many a parent longs to fulfill his broken dream in the life of his child. It is rarely possible for anybody to live again in the life of another. Each of us is given his own chance at life, just that one, no more. Any attempt to be reincarnated in the form of one's child is doomed to failure, most painful failure, from the start.

Usually such an ambition calls for a star performance on the child's side. Never mind if he has no talent of the kind. Never mind that he indicates skill, talent, high ability in another direction. He must stop being himself and be the dream creature his fond parent projects as his own greatness. No good comes of it, nothing but discord, disruption and arrangement.

A boy does well in his high school course and his father is delighted. He decides once more that the law, or medicine, or engineering, whatever his youthful ambition had chosen, is the course his son shall take. Son is dismayed. He thought he had made it plain all along that he wanted to be a businessman. He has no taste for anything else. Business is his career.

The resultant struggle drives the boy from home, brings grief to his family, distress and bewilderment to him. Even if, in the end, his father gives up grudgingly, the scars of battle remain to ache and smart at a touch of memory.

Yes, children, youth, need guidance. They will accept it just so far but when the limit is reached they rebel. They must if they are intelligent. There is in every high-school graduate a hard core of personality, of character. He will go along cheerfully with his leaders until that core is threatened. Then he will balk. When that happens teacher or parent must stop, take another look, let the student talk while he listens, for this is the real person talking now. It is time to go along with him, not to try to make him follow a road alien to his feet.

Some children are very sensitive and afraid. Fear is poison to the mind and children who have fears suffer. How to guard against fear is explained by Dr. Patri in leaflet P-1. To obtain a copy, send 10 cents in coin to him, c-o this paper, P. O. Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N. Y.

WILL EXPEDITE P. O. W. LETTERS

Military Aircraft To Convey Mail From U. S. To Korea Via Japan

The Ouachita parish chapter, American Red Cross, received the following information concerning mail for prisoners of war:

In an effort to expedite mail deliveries of prisoner of war, mail will be carried by military aircraft from United States to Korea by way of Japan, the department of defense announced. Previously, this has been carried by commercial aircraft, delivered at Hong Kong through Communist channels. The mail should be addressed as follows:

Grade, name and service number of the individual, care of Chinese People's Committee for World Peace, Peking, China.

Also, name and number of prison camp, if known. Place the letter in an envelope addressed as above, no postage necessary. In the upper right hand corner of the envelope "prisoner of war mail," and in the upper left hand corner, the name and address of the sender. Drop this letter in any U. S. mail box.

The department of defense pointed out that the next of kin may expect to find Communistic propaganda in the letters that are delivered through Panmunjom. The numbers and names of prison camps in North Korea recently furnished by the Communists are as follows: 1 and 3, Chiang-Song; 2, 4 and 5, and 7, Pyok-Dong; 6 and 9, Pyong-Yang; 8, Kang-Dong; 10, Chon-Ma; and 11, Puk-Chin.

Frank Breese, home service chairman, urges that families of prisoners of war follow these instructions very carefully in addressing the mail to them.

Mexico at present has 28 states and three territories.

ST. MATTHEW'S HALF DAY TIME

Will Be Given Opportunity To Prepare For Final Term Tests

Midterm exams are just ahead for St. Matthew's Parochial School. In the high school department, classes will run on a half-day schedule this coming Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday to allow students to devote more time to reviews in preparation for the tests that will take place each morning on those days. The semester term will open January 21.

At the end of the week the boys of the high school division will hold their annual retreat at Maryhill, La. The boys will leave on Friday afternoon, and return on Sunday following. Then, in turn the girls will go for their three-day porgram of prayer, recollection and spiritual inventory. The Reverend Denis Curren is director of the Maryhill Retreat House.

Students are quite agog over the many and varied activities that are presently figuring in the school program. Sodalists are looking forward with genuine eagerness to the annual oratorical contest that will be held in Shreveport on February 3 at St. Vincent's College, and to the final speeches that will be delivered in the St. Matthew's gymnasium during the sodality convention scheduled for February 8-9. A trophy will be awarded the winner. Delegates from all north Louisiana will converge upon Monroe for that occasion. The Rt. Reverend Mosignor Marsh is general chairman of the event, and the Reverend H. Sheldon both of St. Matthew's Church, is director. Miss Sally Hays, prefect of the St. Matthew's High School Sodality, is chairman and chief director of the committees in charge. The convention is a full one-day meeting, opening with a pontifical high mass at 8 o'clock in St. Matthew's Church with the Most Reverend Bishop Greco of Alexandria officiating. Discussions will be held in the school gymnasium with the Reverend J. Sinners, S. J. of St. Louis, presiding as discussion-leader. The convention will close with a dance Saturday evening. Members of the executive board will meet in advance on Friday evening, February 8 with the dioscesan director, the Reverend A. B. Kearns, S. J., of Shreveport, and the Reverend J. Shinners, S. J., in the gymnasium meeting room. Some forty delegates, members of the executive board are expected to attend this resolutions meeting.

The St. Matthew's annual Mardi Gras carnival is the next big event of importance on the school's agenda. This annual carnival formal ball will be held in the school gymnasium on the evening of February 26. It is a benefit activity sponsored by the school's yearbook, The Matthuan. According to Miss Rosina Lisotta, editor, several candidates are competing for the title of queen of the Mardi Gras ball. From the senior class, Miss Polly Riley, and Miss Phyllis Jo Nastasi are candidates; the juniors, to date, are Miss Jimmie Fox, Miss Evelyn Ann Jernigan, Miss Miriam Biggar, and Miss Mary Ann Pitarro. Sophomore candidates are Misses Anna Marie Danna, Evy Lee Ritter, Kathleen Debnam, and Vita Jean Zagone; freshman candidates are: Misses Wanda Factor, Connie Tichell, Boty Eberts, Judy Landreaux, and Sue Turner. Candidates from the grade school upper classes are Misses Mary Ann Embanata, Katie La Caze, Joyce Macknik, Margaret Lewis, Fayelynn Guerriero.

First results of the contest will be announced on Monday, January 21. The question uppermost now is: Who will be queen?

The U. S. Marines reported that no patrol employing dogs was ambushed in the Pacific war.

CAP
Over Monroe

As we have told you several times, and we want to remind you again, your civil air patrol is a very vital part of our civil defense network on a national scale. Only when all of us as citizens recognize our responsibilities in assisting in this work can we properly prepare ourselves for any eventuality. Lack of personnel often hampers a great work and we know there are great numbers of our friends in Monroe who have not as yet inquired about CAP and its functions. Don't tell yourself you have no qualifications—you might be surprised at the variety of things which could use your valuable assistance. Let's talk it over—call Jack Hover at 9842 or 6560 or Eddie Young at 7552 or 3-5116. Learn about civil air patrol!

CLAIBORNE HAS PANEL TALKS

Discussion Held To Build Up Desired Personalities

Continuing a series of panel discussions on peritinent subjects, the Claiborne P.-T. A. presented the subject, "For the Spirit's Hunger."

The following members made up the panel: Mrs. Marie Wallace, Mrs. H. W. McEnery, Mrs. M. L. DeFreese, Miss Marguerite Norris. The aims of this discussion was to build up, out of spiritual insights already familiar to us, a practical picture of the kind of personality that has spiritual destination and inner peace.

The first point explored and discussed resulted in the following conclusion; the person who feels no need to grow is unlikely ever to grow, he often blames others for his mistakes, and thereby arouses a sense of resentment that causes him to feel misunderstood and builds up in him a defensive attitude. Periods of acute spiritual hunger among peoples have always in history been marked by the growth of cults. The human being who feels unable to stand alone grabs for support. He tends to let others take the risks, do the thinking, dole out praise and disapproval and never grows fully to adult competence and independence. This type of person will never receive the necessary spiritual help unless his interest and energy is turned outward. Some people won't tolerate having attention turned from themselves.

Unless he changes the basic direction of his attention he is doomed by his self-concern to lose his life by trying to save it, or the ego of his importance. Other points developed showed that spiritual health is won by self-direction, and we must take care that in projected anger at our own littleness we do not persecute those who take away from our greatness. When the call for service comes to us today, do we say as the prophet of old, "Here am I, send me.?"

Mrs. Grady Haynes, Founder's Day chairman announced that a program commemorating the founding of the P.-T. A., will be held Feb. 15, at 7:00 p. m.

The finance committee met at the close of the meeting and planned a chicken supper to help raise the budget. The sixth grade won the attendance count.

RUSSIANS SETTLE IN KURILES

Moscow —(AP)— Dispatches being received from the Kurile Islands—that lie between the sea of Okhotak and the Pacific—tell of the arrival and settlement of Soviet citizens there.

The Soviet state is reported to be giving the new settlers generous help in establishing themselves. They are said to receive loans in money, manufactured goods and timber.

NEW IMPROVED
FAB
Save Half Your Work
NO RINSING NEEDED!
AMAZING WHITER BRIGHTER WASHES

New FAB washes clothes WHITER WITHOUT BLEACHING than any other product with bleaching!

Yes, Whiter and Cleaner than any soap with bleaching!

IT'S AMAZING — BUT TRUE! New Fab washes clothes whiter without bleaching—keeps washable colors looking brighter! Yes, Fab washes whiter without bleaching than any soap . . . whiter than any other "no-rinse" suds or any washing product known with bleach in the wash water.

What's more, freshly rinsed Fab clothes are cleaner than you can get them with any soap. Fab washes out the grimy dirt, leaves no dulling soap film in the hardest water. As you use Fab, your clothes get whiter and whiter . . . colors get brighter and brighter . . . and you have the sweetest-smelling wash in the world!

SAVE WORK! Fab immediately loosens dirt. No soaking is needed! Since Fab keeps dirt floating in the wash water, you can stop rinsing—save half your work!

SAVE CLOTHES! Fab washes so dazzling white you don't need bleach! So clothes last longer with no bleach to weaken fabrics or fade pretty washable colors.

SAVE HANDS! New Fab is wonderfully mild to hands . . . and is safe to use on baby's clothes. What's more, Fab is kind to your own pretty washables.

AND, YOU CAN STOP RINSING! Fab gives you the cleanest possible, sweetest-smelling "no-rinse" wash!

FAB WHITENS AS IT WASHES!

BATTLING TO KEEP A DESERT HURRICANE FROM SMASHING THE CAPITAL CITY OF MARS, FLASH RISKS HIS LIFE IN A LAST DESPERATE EFFORT. HE SHOOTS A JET OF BURNING HYDROXIUM INTO THE STORM, SETTING FIRE TO THE HARD-DRIVEN SAND ITSELF.
FOR A FRIGHTFUL MOMENT IT SEEMS THAT FLASH'S DARING EXPERIMENT IS BACKFIRING ON HIM, FOR THE BURNING SANDS MELT IN A FLOOD OF LIQUID FLAME THAT THREATENS TO ENGULF THE HANDFUL OF HUMANS.
BUT FLASH IS PREPARED. HIS ZERO-RAY PROJECTOR FREEZES THE ONRUSHING FLAME INTO STRANGE AND FANTASTIC SHAPES, A MAN-MADE WALL PROTECTING THE MARTIAN CITY FROM THE DESERT MENACE.
WITH AN ALMOST HUMAN FRENZY, THE FLAMES BEAT AGAINST THE BARRIER, FINALLY SUBSIDING IN DEFEAT. WITH THE DANGER PAST, FLASH GETS A HERO'S REWARD FROM DALE. EVEN THE RUTHLESS QUEEN MENTA MUTTERS HER THANKS TO THE EARTHMAN.
BUT THEIR RESPITE IS BRIEF. A THOUGHTGRAM INFORMS MENTA THAT THE SANDSTORM HAS DAMMED THE GREAT CANAL, FLOODING THE CITY. "HERE COMES A SCOUT-SHIP TO PICK US UP," SHE SAYS. "NOW, FLASH, WE'LL SEE IF YOU CAN FINISH THE JOB YOU STARTED!"

IT'S YOURS, MONROE—for an easier, brighter washday!

No-Rinse Surf

gets clothes so CLEAN-really CLEAN-
you need never rinse again!

NO-RINSE Surf [illegible] washing time [illegible] NO RINSING NEEDED

Half the work of washday is over—from now on! New Surf is here, and it gets your clothes so dazzling clean, soft and sweet—you don't have to rinse! Just wash—wring—dirt rolls out with the wash-water!

Even without soaking or scrubbing—bleaching or bluing—you'll find your clothes look cleaner, feel cleaner, smell cleaner—and they are cleaner! That's because Surf contains a miracle ingredient that floats dirt away. Down the drain it goes—leaving your clothes and your tub gleaming-free of any scum. Get the marvelous new No-Rinse Surf—you'll soon agree it's the greatest washday wonder yet!

Buy it in the convenient thrifty giant size

Only washday product approved by U.S. Testing Company for no rinsing!

SEE HOW CLEAN! "Believe me, I was amazed to see how clean and white No-Rinse Surf got my wash—and I didn't use bleach or bluing, or even rinse it at all!"
—says MRS. MILDRED WICKES, [illegible] W. Maple Street, SHREVEPORT

—says MRS. KATHLEEN SNOW, 4344 Clingman Drive, SHREVEPORT

SMELL HOW CLEAN! "You can always tell a clean wash by the way it smells—and No-Rinse Surf certainly proved itself to me! Even my youngster's clothes came out fresh as a breeze!"

cuts washday time in half!
NO RINSING NEEDED

SEE HOW CLEAN! "Believe me, I was amazed to see how clean and white No-Rinse Surf got my wash—and I didn't use bleach or bluing, or even rinse it at all!"

—says MRS. MILDRED WICKES, 2800 W. Maple Street, SHREVEPORT

—says MRS. KATHLEEN SNOW, 4344 Clingman Drive, SHREVEPORT

SMELL HOW CLEAN! "You can always tell a clean wash by the way it smells—and No-Rinse Surf certainly proved itself to me! Even my youngster's clothes came out fresh as a breeze!"
